

became the Commission's final determination under 19 CFR § 210.42. On October 23, 2002, the Commission issued a notice requesting a briefing on the issues of remedy, the public interest, and bonding. 67 FR 66002 (October 29, 2002). On November 5, 2002, pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1337(g)(1) and 19 CFR § 210.16(c)(1), complainant Microsoft filed a declaration seeking limited relief against the defaulting respondent. In its declaration, Microsoft requested that the Commission issue a limited exclusion order and a cease and desist order against UGC.

The Commission solicited comments from the parties, interested government agencies, and other persons concerning the issues of remedy, the public interest, and bonding. 67 FR 66002 (October 29, 2002). Complainant and the IA filed proposed remedial orders and addressed the issues of remedy, the public interest, and bonding. No comments were filed by government agencies or other interested persons.

Section 337(g)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930 provides that the Commission shall presume the facts alleged in a complaint to be true, and upon request issue a limited exclusion order and/or cease and desist order if: (1) A complaint is filed against a person under section 337, (2) the complaint and a notice of investigation are served on the person, (3) the person fails to respond to the complaint and notice or otherwise fails to appear to answer the complaint and notice, (4) the person fails to show good cause why it should not be found in default, and (5) the complainant seeks relief limited to that person. Such an order shall be issued unless, after considering the effect of such exclusion, the Commission finds that such exclusion should not be issued.

The Commission determined that each of the statutory requirements for the issuance of a limited exclusion order and a cease and desist order were met with respect to defaulting respondent UGC. The Commission further determined that the public interest factors enumerated in sections 337(d) and 337(f) did not preclude the issuance of such relief. Finally, the Commission determined that the bond during the Presidential review period shall be in the amount of 100 percent of the entered value of the imported articles.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, and section 210.16 (c) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR § 210.16.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: December 24, 2002.

Secretary.
