Fishing Vessel (F/V) Exception, Homer, Alaska; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on November 12, 2003 in response to a petition filed by a company official on behalf of workers of F/V Exception, Homer, Alaska.

The petition regarding the investigation has been deemed invalid. In order to establish a valid worker group, there must be at least three full-time workers employed at some point during the period under investigation. Workers of the group subject to this investigation did not meet this threshold level of employment. Consequently, the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC this 17th day of November 2003.

Fishing Vessel (F/V) Patricia Diann, Cordova, Alaska; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on November 3, 2003, in response to a petition filed by a company official on behalf of workers of Fishing Vessel (F/V) Patricia Diann, Cordova, Alaska.

The investigation revealed that the subject firm did not separate or threaten to separate a significant number or proportion of workers as required by section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974. Significant number or proportion of the workers means that at least three workers in a firm with a workforce of fewer than 50 workers would have to be affected. Separations by the subject firm did not meet this threshold level; consequently the investigation has been terminated.

Harting, Inc. of North America, Elgin, Illinois; Including an Employee of Harting, Inc. of North America, Located in California; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 5, 2003, applicable to workers of Harting, Inc. of North America, Elgin, Illinois. The notice was published in the Federal Register on March 19, 2003 (68 FR 13332).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that a worker was separated involving an employee of the Elgin, Illinois facility of Harting, Inc. of North America located in California. This employee provided technical support services for the production of cable assemblies at an affiliated facility Harting Manufacturing, Inc., Elgin, Illinois.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include an employee of the Elgin, Illinois facility of Harting, Inc. of North American, located in California.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Harting, Inc. of North America who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-50,941A is hereby issued as follows:

- "All workers of Harting, Inc. of North America, Elgin, Illinois (TA-W-50,941A), including employees of Harting, Inc. of North America, Elgin, Illinois, located in California

(TA-W-50,834B), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 14, 2002, through March 5, 2005, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 21st day of November 2003.

Paper Converting Machine Company, Green Bay, Wisconsin; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on September 11, 2003, applicable to workers of Paper Converting Machine Company located in Green Bay, Wisconsin. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 10, 2003 (68 FR 58720).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce paper converting machinery.

The review shows that all workers of Paper Converting Machine Company, Green Bay, Wisconsin, were certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under TA-W-39,100, which does not expire until January 18, 2004.

Therefore, in order to avoid an overlap in worker group coverage, the Department is amending the August 14, 2002 impact date established for TA-W-52,626, to read January 19, 2004.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-52,626 is hereby issued as follows:

“All workers of Paper Converting Machine Company, Green Bay, Wisconsin, who become totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 19, 2004, through September 11, 2005, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.”

Signed at Washington, DC, this 22nd day of December 2003.

Tietex International, Ltd, Rocky Mount Plant, Spartanburg, South Carolina; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on October 28, 2003 in response to a worker petition filed on behalf of workers at Tietex International, LTD, Rocky Mount Plant, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Further review of the petition and information provided by one of the petitioners, finds that the Rocky Mount Plant is in Rocky Mount, North Carolina, not Spartanburg, South Carolina. Workers of Tietex International, LTD, Rocky Mount Plant, Rocky Mount, Virginia, are covered under an existing certification to apply for trade adjustment assistance, petition number TA-W-53,273. Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

York International Corporation, York, Pennsylvania; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 30, 2003, applicable to workers of York International Corporation located in York, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 28, 2003 (68 FR 66880).

At the request of the petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm producing industrial large tonnage chillers.

The review shows that the Department inadvertently omitted its findings regarding worker group eligibility to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. In order for the Department to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA, the group eligibility requirements of section 246 of the Trade Act must be met. The Department determined in this case that the requirements of Section 246 were met.

A significant number of workers at the firm are age 50 or over and possess skills that are not easily transferable. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Therefore, the Department is amending the certification to include eligibility for workers of the subject firm to apply for ATAA.
