Agency form number: unnum Reg P
OMB control number: 7100-0294

Frequency: Reporting, on-occasion; and disclosure, annually.

Reporters: State member banks, subsidiaries of state member banks, bank holding companies and its subsidiaries or affiliates, branches and agencies of foreign banks, commercial lending companies owned or controlled by foreign banks, corporations operating under section 25 or 25A of the Federal Reserve Act, and customers of these financial institutions.

Estimated average hours per response: Financial institution disclosure requirements: Initial notice, 40 hours; annual notice, 1 hour; opt-out notice to consumers, 1 hour; and notice of change in terms, 1 hour. Consumer reporting requirements: opt-out notice, 1 hour; and continuing right to opt-out, 1 hour.

Number of respondents: 9,500

Small businesses are affected.

General description of report: This information collection is mandatory (12 U.S.C. 248) and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (Pub. L. 106-102, Sec. 504). Since the Federal Reserve does not collect any information, no issue of confidentiality normally arises.

Abstract: The information collection pursuant to Regulation P is triggered by the establishment of a relationship between a customer and a financial institution. The regulation ensures that financial institutions provide customers notice of the privacy policies and practices of financial institutions and a means to prevent the disclosure of nonpublic personal information, in certain circumstances. Where applicable, financial institutions are required to provide an initial notice and an annual notice of their privacy policies and practices, opt-out notices, and revised notices containing changes in policies and procedures.

In 2000, the Federal Reserve, along with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS), National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) (the agencies) jointly agreed on burden estimates when they promulgated the privacy regulations.

In early 2003, an inter-agency working group¹ agreed to jointly re-estimate the paperwork burden of their privacy regulations. To avoid expiration of the authority for the information collections while the review is being completed, the group agreed to separately publish for comment estimates based on the 2000 assumptions. The OCC, FDIC, and OTS published initial Federal Register notices using the 2000 estimates; the comment periods have closed. Each of these agencies have received comments. After the Federal Reserve's public comment period has closed, the agencies will jointly review all of the comments received. Then the agencies will publish a joint final notice with revised final estimates in the Federal Register.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, April 3, 2003.

Jennifer J. Johnson,

Secretary of the Board.
