

TCPA Order, the Commission stated its belief that any state regulation of interstate telemarketing calls that differed from our rules under section 227 almost certainly would conflict with and frustrate the federal scheme and would be preempted. The Commission will consider any alleged conflicts between state and federal requirements and the need for preemption on a case-by-case basis. Accordingly, any party that believes a state law is inconsistent with section 227 or our rules may seek a Declaratory Ruling from the Commission. When filing comments, please reference CG Docket No. 02–278. Comments may be filed using the Commission’s Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) or by filing paper copies. See Electronic Filing of Documents in Rulemaking Proceedings, 63 FR 24121, May 1, 1998. Comments filed through the ECFS can be sent as an electronic file via the Internet to <http://www.fcc.gov/e-file/ecfs.html>. Generally, only one copy of an electronic submission must be filed. In completing the transmittal screen, commenters should include their full name, U.S. Postal Service mailing address, and the applicable docket or rulemaking number. Parties may also submit an electronic comment by Internet e-mail. To get filing instructions for e-mail comments, commenters should send e-mail to ecfs@fcc.gov, and should include the following words in the body of the message, “get form <your e-mail address>.” A sample form and directions will be sent in reply.

Parties who choose to file by paper must send an original and four (4) copies of each filing. Filings can be sent by hand or messenger delivery, by electronic media, by commercial overnight courier, or by first-class or overnight U.S. Postal Service mail (although we continue to experience delays in receiving U.S. Postal Service mail). The Commission’s contractor, Natek, Inc., will receive hand-delivered or messenger-delivered paper filings or electronic media for the Commission’s Secretary at 236 Massachusetts Avenue, NE., Suite 110, Washington, DC 20002. The filing hours at this location are 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. All hand deliveries must be held together with rubber bands or fasteners. Any envelopes must be disposed of before entering the building. Commercial and electronic media sent by overnight mail (other than U.S. Postal Service Express Mail and Priority Mail) must be sent to 9300 East Hampton Drive, Capitol Heights, MD 20743. U.S. Postal Service first-class mail, Express Mail, and Priority Mail should be addressed to 445 12th Street,

SW., Washington, DC 20554. All filings must be addressed to the Commission’s Secretary, Marlene H. Dortch, Office of the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, SW., Room TW–B204, Washington, DC 20554.

This proceeding shall be treated as a “permit but disclose” proceeding in accordance with the Commission’s ex parte rules, 47 CFR 1.1200. Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentations must contain summaries of the substances of the presentations and not merely a listing of the subjects discussed. More than a one or two sentence description of the views and arguments presented is generally required. See 47 CFR 1.1206(b). Other rules pertaining to oral and written ex parte presentations in permit-but-disclosed proceedings are set forth in section 1.1206(b) of the Commission’s rules, 47 CFR 1.1206(b).

Synopsis

On November 19, 2004, Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) filed a Petition for Declaratory Ruling asking the Commission to preempt certain sections of the Wisconsin Statutes and Wisconsin Administrative Code as it relates to interstate telephone calls. CBA contends that the Wisconsin laws are significantly more restrictive than the Commission’s telemarketing rules. More specifically, CBA argues that the Wisconsin laws are inconsistent with the Commission’s regulations which permit telephone solicitation calls to persons with whom the caller has an “established business relationship” (EBR), even where the called party’s number has been entered on the national do-not-call registry. CBA contends that the Wisconsin laws prohibit certain categories of calls that are within the scope of the Commission’s EBR exception, including: (1) Calls made to residential subscribers who have made an inquiry or application regarding products or services, but have not expressly asked to be called in response to that inquiry or application; (2) calls made to residential subscribers who have engaged in a completed purchase or transaction with the caller; (3) calls made to existing customers for the purpose of offering additional or different products from those the seller already is providing to the customer; and (4) calls from an affiliate of the entity with whom the residential customer has an existing relationship. CBA explains that “[t]hese inconsistencies between federal law and the Wisconsin statute subject CBA’s members to ‘multiple, conflicting regulations’ in the area of interstate telemarketing. * * *” Therefore, CBA requests a Declaratory Ruling that the identified provisions of Wisconsin’s telemarketing statute and implementing regulations are preempted.

Synopsis

On November 22, 2004, National City Mortgage Company (NCMC) filed a Petition for Expedited Declaratory Ruling asking the Commission to preempt Florida law prohibiting prerecorded messages without consent. According to Petitioner, NCMC has received a notice from the Florida Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services which indicates that a prerecorded message call initiated by NCMC violated section 501.059(7)(a) of the Florida statute. NCMC explains that the Florida statute prohibits such prerecorded calls and makes no exception to this restriction for calls that are placed to persons with whom the caller has an established business relationship. In addition, NCMC explains that its calls into Florida are interstate calls. NCMC contends that the Florida statute is inconsistent with the Commission's rules that permit calls using prerecorded voice messages to any person with whom the caller has an established business relationship at the time the call is made; therefore, NCMC argues that the Florida statute should be preempted as applied to interstate calls. In addition, NCMC indicates that it has been informed by the Florida Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services that the complaint is still pending and might become the basis for further enforcement proceedings against NCMC. NCMC maintains that "the State of Florida's apparent intention to enforce th[e] prohibition as to interstate calls subjects NCMC to the 'multiple, conflicting regulations' that the Commission has declared its intention to avoid."
