FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Murray A. Bloom, Chief, Division of Maritime Programs, Office of Chief Counsel, Maritime Administration, 1200 New Jersey Ave., SE., Washington, DC 20590; Ph. (202) 366-5320, fax: (202) 366-5123; or e-mail murray.bloom@dot.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: There are three maritime promotional statutes that mandate the use of U.S.-built vessels and generally provide that a U.S.-built vessel becomes ineligible if the vessel is reconstructed or rebuilt in a foreign country.

1. Section 12132(b) of title 46, United States Code, provides that a vessel eligible to engage in the U.S. coastwise trade and later rebuilt outside the United States may no longer engage in the coastwise trade. This statute is administered by the U.S. Coast Guard.

2. Chapter 535 of title 46, United States Code, established the Capital Construction Fund (CCF) program, whereby a U.S. citizen owner of an eligible vessel may defer Federal income taxes on income derived from the operation of eligible vessels to the extent that income is deposited into a fund to be used solely for the acquisition, construction or reconstruction of qualified vessels. The statutory definitions of both "eligible" and "qualified" vessels require such vessels, if reconstructed, to be reconstructed in the United States. The Maritime Administration administers the CCF program (except for the CCF applicable to fishery vessels administered by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration) under regulations located at 46 CFR 390.

3. Chapter 553 of title 46, United States Code, provides that preference be given in the carriage of U.S. Government-impelled cargoes to "privately-owned commercial vessels of the United States." That term is defined by statute as excluding a vessel rebuilt in a foreign country, unless the vessel shall have been documented under U.S. registry for at least three years. The shippers responsible for shipping cargo subject to the cargo preference statutes do so under regulations issued by the Maritime Administration at 46 CFR Part 381.

These three statutes raise difficult problems of interpretation and enforcement. The Maritime Administration will consider any and all comments as to how the Maritime Administration should administer the programs assigned to it. However, in order to focus the discussion, we suggest that submitters of comments respond to the following questions:

1. What substantive standards should the Maritime Administration apply to determine whether a CCF vessel has been reconstructed or a cargo preference vessel has been rebuilt?

2. What procedures should the Maritime Administration adopt to investigate whether a CCF vessel has been reconstructed or a cargo preference vessel has been rebuilt?

3. What role, if any, should unrelated third parties, such as competitors or shipyards, play in developing a record for decision on whether a CCF vessel has been reconstructed or a cargo preference vessel has been rebuilt?

4. What public disclosure criteria should apply to the record for decision on whether a CCF vessel has been reconstructed or a cargo preference vessel has been rebuilt?

Authority: 49 CFR 1.66.

Dated: November 7, 2007.

By Order of the Maritime Administrator.

Christine S. Gurland,

Acting Secretary, Maritime Administration.
