§ 982.629

- (d) PHA-owned units. Homeownership assistance may be provided for the purchase of a unit that is owned by the PHA that administers the assistance under the consolidated ACC (including a unit owned by an entity substantially controlled by the PHA), only if all of the following conditions are satisfied:
- (1) The PHA must inform the family, both orally and in writing, that the family has the right to purchase any eligible unit and a PHA-owned unit is freely selected by the family without PHA pressure or steering;
 - (2) The unit is not ineligible housing;
- (3) The PHA must obtain the services of an independent agency, in accordance with §982.352(b)(1)(iv)(B) and (C), to perform the following PHA functions:
- (i) Inspection of the unit for compliance with the HQS, in accordance with §982.631(a);
- (ii) Review of the independent inspection report, in accordance with §982.631(b)(4):
- (iii) Review of the contract of sale, in accordance with §982.631(c); and
- (iv) Determination of the reasonableness of the sales price and any PHA provided financing, in accordance with §982.632 and other supplementary guidance established by HUD.

§ 982.629 Homeownership option: Additional PHA requirements for family search and purchase.

- (a) The PHA may establish the maximum time for a family to locate a home, and to purchase the home.
- (b) The PHA may require periodic family reports on the family's progress in finding and purchasing a home.
- (c) If the family is unable to purchase a home within the maximum time established by the PHA, the PHA may issue the family a voucher to lease a unit or place the family's name on the waiting list for a voucher.

§ 982.630 Homeownership option: Homeownership counseling.

(a) Before commencement of homeownership assistance for a family, the family must attend and satisfactorily

- complete the pre-assistance homeownership and housing counseling program required by the PHA (pre-assistance counseling).
- (b) Suggested topics for the PHA-required pre-assistance counseling program include:
- (1) Home maintenance (including care of the grounds);
- (2) Budgeting and money manage-
- (3) Credit counseling;
- (4) How to negotiate the purchase price of a home;
- (5) How to obtain homeownership financing and loan preapprovals, including a description of types of financing that may be available, and the pros and cons of different types of financing;
- (6) How to find a home, including information about homeownership opportunities, schools, and transportation in the PHA jurisdiction;
- (7) Advantages of purchasing a home in an area that does not have a high concentration of low-income families and how to locate homes in such areas;
- (8) Information on fair housing, including fair housing lending and local fair housing enforcement agencies; and
- (9) Information about the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.) (RESPA), state and Federal truth-in-lending laws, and how to identify and avoid loans with oppressive terms and conditions.
- (c) The PHA may adapt the subjects covered in pre-assistance counseling (as listed in paragraph (b) of this section) to local circumstances and the needs of individual families.
- (d) The PHA may also offer additional counseling after commencement of homeownership assistance (ongoing counseling). If the PHA offers a program of ongoing counseling for participants in the homeownership option, the PHA shall have discretion to determine whether the family is required to participate in the ongoing counseling.
- (e) If the PHA is not using a HUD-approved housing counseling agency to provide the counseling for families participating in the homeownership option, the PHA should ensure that its counseling program is consistent with the homeownership counseling provided under HUD's Housing Counseling program.
