his principal consular officer, who then has the responsibility for reporting in the manner prescribed in this section through § 72.8.

§ 72.2 Exceptions to consular responsibility.

(a) Department of Defense personnel. The Department of Defense is required to report officially the deaths of its military and civilian personnel. However, if no representative of the Department of Defense is present in the consular district where the death occurs, the consular officer should inform the Mission in the country to which he is assigned regarding the circumstances, for action by the appropriate attache. In colonial or trustee areas, or in countries in which no Defense Department attaches are assigned, the consular officer should telegraph the particulars of the death to the Department of State, indicating the maximum length of time before local burial is mandatory, for action by the Department of Defense. All inquiries concerning the death of any person falling within this category should be referred to the Department of Defense, Washington, DC 20301. Instructions in this paragraph do not apply to reporting the deaths of dependents of Department of Defense personnel or to reporting the deaths of contractor personnel, i.e., United States civilians employed in foreign countries by commercial concerns operating under contract with the Department of Defense, or their dependents. The deaths of such persons should be reported in the manner prescribed in § 72.4

(b) Coast Guard personnel. The United States Coast Guard is required to report officially the deaths of its military and civilian personnel. If death occurs in any country in Europe or the British Isles in which a Coast Guard detail is not assigned, the consular officer should inform the Senior Coast Guard Merchant Marine Detail Officer (Europe), London, England, by telegraph. If the death occurs outside Europe or the British Isles, the consular officer should telegraph the particulars of the death to the Department of State, indicating the maximum length of time before local burial is mandatory, for action by the Coast Guard. All inquiries concerning the death of Coast Guard personnel should be referred to the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, Washington, DC 20226. The instructions in this section do not apply to reporting the deaths of dependents of Coast Guard personnel. The deaths of such persons should be reported in the manner prescribed in § 72.4.

§ 72.3 Telegraphic notifications of death.

(a) Use of telegraph. When instructions must be obtained from the next of kin or other interested person in the United States as to disposition of the remains, notification of death should be sent by telegraph to the Department for forwarding. If available to the consular officer, the name and address of the next of kin or legal representative (§ 72.18) should be included in the message. Consular officers at posts in Canada and Mexico whose consular districts are contiguous to the United States may, in their discretion, communicate directly by telegraph with next of kin or legal representative, requesting instructions for disposition of the remains.

(b) Content of notification. All such notifications should state the minimum cost of

- (1) Local burial;
- (2) Cremation (if applicable);
- (3) Embalming, preparing and shipping the remains; and
- (4) The maximum period of time before local burial is mandatory.

(c) Payment of charges. The cost of these initial notifications of death by telegraph is a proper charge against official funds. Subsequent telegrams relating to matters for personal decision are normally at the expense of interested parties.

§ 72.4 Normal reporting procedure.

(a) Purpose and use of Form FS-192. Form FS-192, "Report of the Death of an American Citizen", is an administrative report established for the purpose of providing essential facts concerning the death of a United States citizen, and should be used to report the death officially to the Department, to the legal representative, and to the closest known relative of the deceased. Notification of death by telegraph does not eliminate the necessity for reporting the death on Form FS-192.

Department of State

(b) Information required on Form FS-192. All information called for under the various headings of Form FS-192 should be supplied in as much detail as possible. When prolonged delay is experienced in procuring full data, the consular officer should prepare and distribute a preliminary report of death on Form FS-192, marking the report "Preliminary." This should be followed by a final and complete report as soon as full data are available. Expanded comments necessary to cover special circumstances concerning the death, should appear under the heading "Remarks." When applicable, statements concerning the following subjects should also appear under the heading "Remarks":

(1) Disposition made of the passport and certificate of naturalization (see § 72.8);

(2) If the deceased is known to have been the recipient of continuing payments other than salary from the Federal Government (e.g., retirement, social security, disability compensation, or veterans insurance or benefits), indication of the nature of the Payments received;

(3) If the deceased is a Selective Service registrant of inductible age, his Selective Service registration number and the number and address of his Local Board, when known.

(c) Signing and sealing of Form FS-192. All copies of the Form FS-192 should be signed by the consular officer with his name and official title typed below, and the consular impression seal should be impressed on each copy.

(d) Transmission of Form FS-192 to the Department. The original of Form FS-192 shall be sent to the Department, plus one additional copy for each agency concerned, if the deceased was:

(1) A recipient of continuing payments other than salary from the Federal Government; or

(2) An officer or employee of the Federal Government (other than Department of Defense or Coast Guard); or

(3) A Selective Service registrant of inductible age.

(e) Transmission of form to legal representative and next of kin. A copy of Form FS-192 should be sent to the legal representative. A copy should also be sent to the closest known relative of the deceased (or relatives, if there are two or more persons having equal interests). No fee is prescribed for sending one copy each of completed Form FS-192 to the legal representative and to the closest known relative or relatives.

(f) Transmission of form to other consular districts. In the event that a part of the personal estate of the decedent is known to be in a consular district other than that in which the death occurs (see § 72.32), a copy of Form FS-192 should be sent to the consular officer in the other district.

(g) Supplying copies of form. Copies of Form FS-192 shall be supplied by the Department of State or by the Foreign Service post upon request to any person having valid need therefor. Charges are as prescribed in the Schedule of Fees (§ 21.1 of this chapter) or in the Tariff of Fees, Foreign Service of the United States of America (§ 22.1 of this chapter).

§ 72.5 Reports of presumptive deaths.

(a) Provisional report. Upon the receipt of evidence that a United States citizen is missing and is presumed to be dead, a report should be submitted to the Department on Form FS-192, with the title amended to read "Report of the Presumptive Death of an American Citizen." A statement should be inserted in the form under the heading "Cause of Death" such as the following: "Reported missing, believed to be dead", giving the source of the information upon which the presumption is based. A statement should also be included under the heading "Remarks" showing the requirements of local law for the establishment of legal presumption of the death of missing persons; i.e., whether under local law the legal presumption of death automatically arises at the expiration of a stipulated lapse of time, or whether formal action is necessary to obtain legal confirmation of the death of missing persons.

(b) Final report. In the event that the fact of death is established, a final complete report shall be submitted to
