

Department of State

§ 8.6

the Act during any meetings or other contacts with the Department.

(b) One requisite for coverage of either type (established or utilized) under the Federal Advisory Committee Act is that the group can be defined as a committee as set forth in the definition of a committee, as contained in § 8.4 of these regulations, and have all or most of the following characteristics:

(1) The purpose, objective or intent is that of providing advice to any officer or organizational component of the Department;

(2) Has regular or periodic meetings;

(3) Has fixed membership (membership may include more than one full time Federal officer or employee but is not comprised wholly of Government personnel);

(4) Has an organizational structure (e.g., officers) and a staff.

(c) Where a group provides some advice to an agency, but the group's advisory function is incidental to and inseparable from other operational functions such as making or implementing decisions, the Federal Advisory Committee Act does not apply.

(d) Where the advisory function of a group is separable from its operational function, the group is subject to the Act to the extent that it operates as an advisory committee.

§ 8.4 Definitions.

(a) The Federal Advisory Committee Act defines advisory committee as any committee, board, commission, council, conference, panel, task force, or other similar group, or any subcommittee or other subgroup thereof, which is—

(1) Established by statute or reorganization plan, or

(2) Established or utilized by the President, or

(3) Established or utilized by one or more agencies, in the interest of obtaining advice or recommendations for the President or one or more agencies or officers of the Federal Government, except a committee composed wholly of full-time officers and employees of the Government.

(b) A formal subgroup or subcommittee independently possesses significant requisites of an advisory committee, i.e., fixed membership, periodic meetings, et cetera.

(c) An informal subgroup or subcommittee is one that facilitates the activities of its advisory committee. For example, during a particular meeting, the advisory committee may divide itself into subgroups to permit simultaneous discussion of different topics.

§ 8.5 Creation of a committee.

(a) A bureau or an office designated or desiring to sponsor an advisory committee will prepare a memorandum to the Advisory Committee Management Officer setting forth the purpose, organization (including subgroups), proposed balanced membership (see § 8.6), and a justification for the need of the particular committee.

(b) The Advisory Committee Management Officer will review the request and will make an action recommendation to the Deputy Under Secretary for Management through the Director of the Management Systems Staff.

(c) If the Deputy Under Secretary for Management approves the request, it will be submitted to the Committee Management Secretariat of the Office of Management and Budget for approval. The OMB Secretariat will usually take action within 15 days.

(d) The Advisory Committee Management Officer will advise the sponsoring bureau or office of the approval for or rejection of the request to establish the advisory committee.

(e) After OMB approval the intent to establish an advisory committee, containing a description of the committee and a statement of why it is in the public interest to create it, will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER at least 15 days prior to filing the committee charter.

§ 8.6 Membership.

(a) The act requires a balanced membership in terms of the points of view represented. Members are selected for their expertise in the committee's functions and should be chosen from different vocations having knowledge in the subject.

(b) It is Department policy that members will be selected without regard to national origin, religion, race, sex, or color.

(c) The committee office will keep the Advisory Committee Management Officer currently advised of a committee's membership including vacancies.

§ 8.7 Security.

(a) All officers and members of a committee must have a security clearance for the subject matter level of security at which the committee functions.

(b) The responsible committee office will provide the Advisory Committee Management Officer with each member's security clearance level and date of issue.

(c) The substantive office sponsoring an advisory committee is responsible for access to and removal from official premises of classified material in accordance with the Department's security regulations (5 FAM 940 and 973). Any questions arising involving security procedures are to be presented to the Office of Security for guidance and resolution.

§ 8.8 Chartering of committees.

(a) Requirements. (1) Each advisory committee, whether established or utilized, must have a charter approved by the Deputy Under Secretary of State for Management and filed with the Advisory Committee Management Officer, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Committee on International Relations, and in the case of a Presidential advisory committee only with the Committee Management Secretariat of OMB before it can hold a meeting.

(2) Formal subgroups may be chartered separately or the requisite information set forth in the charter of the parent committee.

(3) Informal subgroups may not require a charter; however, the charter of the parent committee must cover this aspect of its organization.

(4) The Advisory Committee Management Officer will, at the time a charter is filed, furnish a copy of the filed charter to the Library of Congress.

(b) Contents. Each committee charter shall contain: The official name and acronym, if any; the objectives, scope of activity, and full description of duties; the authority for such functions; the Department official (by title) to whom the committee reports; the relationship to or with other committees; the committee organization, composition of membership and officers' responsibilities; a description of the type of minutes, with their certification of accuracy, and records to be maintained; the estimated annual operating costs in dollars and man-years, and the source and authority for these resources; the period of time that will be required by the committee to accomplish its stated purpose; the estimated number and frequency of meetings; the termination date; and the filing date of the charter.

(c) Termination and Renewal. (1) An existing advisory committee will be automatically terminated at the end of a 2-year period (i.e., date specified in charter) unless its charter is renewed, except for a statutory committee which has provisions providing to the contrary.

(2) The Deputy Under Secretary for Management will make a determination, based on a comprehensive review, whether or not a committee will be continued.

(3) The OMB Secretariat will be advised of the determination and reasons therefore 60 days prior to the charter expiration date of the committee. If the Secretariat concurs, the Advisory Committee Management Officer will publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER the Department's intent to continue those advisory committees so designated by the Deputy Under Secretary for Management.

(4) Each office responsible for an advisory committee it wishes to continue will prepare a new charter and submit it to the Advisory Committee Management Officer before October 1 biennially.

(5) No advisory committee shall meet, advise or make recommendations between the expiration date of its charter and the date its new charter is filed.

(d) Amendments. (1) The charter of a committee may be amended, as necessary, to reflect current information
