Subpart A—General Policy and Procedures

§ 171.1 Availability of information.

(a) Unclassified information, documents, and forms which have previously been provided to the public as part of the normal services of the Department of State will continue to be made available on the same basis as before. Any Departmental officer who receives a request for records through normal channels of contact with the public, media, or the Congress which would not normally be made available shall advise the requester that the request will be referred to the Information and Privacy Coordinator, Foreign Affairs Information Management Center, for processing under the appropriate statute or executive order as provided in these regulations.

(b) All identifiable records of the Department of State shall be made available to the public upon compliance with the procedures established in this subchapter, except to the extent that a determination is made to withhold a record in accordance with an appropriate exemption as provided herein.

§ 171.2 Requests for information.

(a) Requests for identifiable records in accordance with this subchapter may be made by the public in person during regular business hours from the Department of State, 2201 C Street, NW., Washington, DC where the receptionist will refer the requester to the proper office for service and the necessary forms for making a request.

(b) Requests by mail and referrals from other agencies should be addressed to the Information and Privacy

Coordinator, Foreign Affairs Information Management Center, Room 1239, Department of State, Washington, DC 20520, who will coordinate action as specified in this request. In addition, requests may be directed to the Department's field offices and overseas posts; routine, unclassified, administrative records may be released to the individual if it is determined that such release is authorized. Any unfilled request shall be submitted to the Information and Privacy Coordinator. Individuals are urged to clearly indicate on their requests the statute under which they are requesting access to information; this notation will facilitate the processing of the request by the Department.

(c) While every effort is made to guarantee the greatest possible access to all requesters, regardless of the specific statute under which the information is requested, the following guidance is provided for individuals in requesting records:

(1) Freedom of Information Act. Requests for documents concerning the general activities of government and of the Department of State in particular (see subpart B).

(2) E. O. 12065. Requests for mandatory review and declassification of Department records and requests for access by former Presidential appointees (see subpart C).

(3) Privacy Act. Requests from U.S. citizens or resident aliens for records pertaining to themselves and maintained by the Department under the individual's name (see subpart D).

(4) Ethics in Government Act. Requests for the financial Disclosure Statements of Department Employees covered by this Act (see subpart E).

(d) The burden of adequately identifying the record so requested lies with the requester. Individuals may seek assistance regarding any facet of their requests from the Information and Privacy Coordinator.

§ 171.3 Public reading room.

A public reading room or area where records may be made available is located in the Department of State, 2201 C Street, NW., Washington, DC 20520. The receptionist will refer the applicant to the proper room. All those statutes, regulations, and guidelines pertaining to access to information required to be made available to the public shall be located in the reading room. Fees will not be charged for access by the public to this room or the indexes and regulations contained therein, but fees, in accordance with § 171.6, will be charged for furnishing copies thereof. Persons desiring to utilize their own portable copying equipment should request approval in advance from the Information and Privacy Coordinator. Any arrangements for the use of such equipment must be consistent with security regulations of the Department of State and are subject to the availability of personnel to monitor such copying.

§ 171.4 Extension of time limits.

While every effort is made to meet the time limits cited in each section of this subchapter, unusual circumstances may arise which would necessitate the extension of these time limits. Extensions shall be granted in those instances where it is necessary, in order to guarantee proper processing of the request, to:

(a) Search for and collect the requested records from overseas posts or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;

(b) Search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or

(c) Consult with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the Department of State having substantial subject matter interest therein. Such consultation shall be conducted with all practicable speed. In such instances the requester shall be given written notification by the Information and Privacy Coordinator of the extension of the time limit and the reason for such extension.

§ 171.5 Archival records.

The Department ordinarily transfers custody of records as soon as practicable after they become twenty (20) years old to the National Archives and
