

§ 171.31

whole or in part in making any determination about an identifiable individual, except as provided in 13 U.S.C. 8.

(g) The term routine use means, with respect to the disclosure of a record, the use of such record for a purpose which is compatible with the purpose for which it was collected.

(h) The term amend means to make any correction to any portion of the record which the individual believes is not accurate, relevant, timely, or complete.

(i) The term personnel record means any personal information maintained in a system of records as defined in paragraph (e) of this section that is needed for personnel management programs or processes such as staffing, employee development, retirement, grievances, and appeals.

Rules and procedures promulgated by the Office of Personnel Management under the Privacy Act for personal records for which it has responsibility will be followed by the Department with regard to such records except when inconsistent with provisions of the Foreign Service Act.

§ 171.31 Identifying information.

All requests for access to a record or records must reasonably describe the system of records and the individual's record within the system in sufficient detail to permit identification of the requested record(s). System names, descriptions, and the identifying information required for each system are published in the Department's public notice of systems of records appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER. As a minimum, requests should include the individual's full name (maiden name, if appropriate), present mailing address (including zip code), date and place of birth, and other information helpful in identifying the record. Helpful data includes circumstances which give the individual reason to believe that the Department of State maintains records under her/his name, as well as the approximate time period of the records. This information will facilitate the timely search of record systems and assist the Department in locating those records which actually pertain to the individual requester. In certain instances, it may be necessary for the Department to request additional information from the requester, either to ensure a full search or to ensure that a record retrieved does in fact pertain to the individual.

§ 171.32 Exemptions.

Portions of systems of records maintained by the Department are authorized to be exempted from a limited number of provisions of the Privacy Act. In utilizing these exemptions, however, the Department contemplates exempting only those portions of systems necessary for the proper functioning of the Department and which are consistent with the Privacy Act and these regulations. The following exemptions are authorized under 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k):

(a) Records specifically authorized under criteria established by an executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and in fact, properly classified pursuant to such executive order (k)(1);

(b) Investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than material within the scope of 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2): Provided, however, That if any individual is denied any right, privilege, or benefit for which she or he would otherwise be eligible as a result of the maintenance of such material, such material shall be provided to such individual, except to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of the regulations, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence (k)(2);

(c) Records maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3056 and 22 U.S.C. 2666 (k)(3);

(d) Records required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records (k)(4);

(e) Investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment,
