

§9.3

22 CFR Ch. I (4-1-01 Edition)

program. This official shall be responsible for actively overseeing the agency's program, including a security education program, to ensure effective implementation of the Order.

(a) In addition, this official shall have the following responsibilities:

(1) To establish and monitor agency policies and procedures to prevent over or under classification, to ensure the protection from unauthorized disclosure of properly classified information, including intelligence information, and to ensure orderly and effective declassification of agency documents which no longer require protection, in accordance with the terms of the Order.

(2) To review proposed classified disclosures of an exceptional nature bearing upon issues of concern to the Congress and the public.

(3) To issue any needed guidelines for classification or declassification.

(4) To recommend to the agency head the following:

(i) Proposals for reclassification in accordance with section 1.6(c) of the Order;

(ii) Other categories of information, as defined in section 1.3(a)(10) of the Order, which require protection against unauthorized disclosure but which are not specifically protected by sections 1.3(a) (1) through (9) of the Order;

(iii) Waivers, for specified classes of documents or information of the requirement to indicate which portions of documents are classified and which are not, as provided by section 1.5(b) of the Order; and

(iv) Waivers for specified classes of documents or information, of the requirement to prepare derivative classification guides, as provided by section 2.2(c) of the Order.

(5) To prepare a list of officials, by name or position, delegated Top Secret, Secret, and Confidential classification authority.

(6) To receive, and if necessary act on, suggestions and complaints with respect to that agency's administration of its information security program.

(7) To provide guidance concerning corrective or disciplinary action in unusually important cases involving unauthorized disclosure or refusal to declassify.

(8) To maintain liaison with the Director of ISOO and to furnish reports and information as required by section 5.2 of the Order.

(b) Department of State. Within the Department of State, the senior official is the Deputy Assistant Secretary, Classification/Declassification Center, hereinafter referred to as (DAS/CDC).

(c) AID. Within AID (a component of the International Development Cooperation Agency), the senior official is the Inspector General.

(d) USIA. Within USIA, the senior official is the Director, Office of the Public Liaison.

§9.3 Responsibility for safeguarding classified information.

(a) Primary. The specific responsibility for the maintenance of the security of classified information rests with each person having knowledge or physical custody thereof, no matter how obtained.

(b) Individual. Each employee is responsible for becoming familiar with and adhering to all security regulations.

(c) Supervisory. The ultimate responsibility for safeguarding classified information rests upon each supervisor to the same degree that the supervisor is charged with functional responsibility for the organizational unit. While certain employees may be assigned specific security responsibilities, such as Top Secret Control Officer or Unit Security Officer, it is nevertheless the basic responsibility of supervisors to ensure that classified material entrusted to their organizational units is handled in accordance with the procedures prescribed in these regulations. Each supervisor should ensure that no one employee is assigned unreasonable security responsibilities in addition to usual administrative or functional duties.

(d) Organizational. The Offices of Security in State, AID, and USIA are responsible for physical, procedural, and personnel security in their respective agencies. In the Department of State, the Office of Communications (COMSEC) is responsible for communications security.
