- (1) A student who does not meet the agency's residency requirements:
- (2) A lender who is not able to obtain a guarantee from the guaranty agency for at least 80 percent of the loans the lender intends to make over a 12-month period because of the agency's residency requirements;
- (3) With the approval of the guaranty agency, a student who has previously received from the same lender a FISL loan that has not been repaid; or

- (ii) Guaranteeing loans made in the State to students attending that school would significantly increase the access of students at that school to FFEL Program loans. The Secretary may guarantee loans made to those students by a lender in that State if—
- (A) The guaranty agency does not recognize the school as being eligible, but the school is eligible under the FISL program; or
- (B) A majority of the persons enrolled at the school meet the conditions of student eligibility for FISL loans but are not recognized as eligible under the guaranty agency program.

- (1) Has an origination relationship with the school;
- (2) Has a majority of its voting stock held by the school; or
- (3) Has common ownership or management with the school and more than 50 percent of the loans made by that lender are made to students at that school.
- (d) As a condition for guaranteeing loans under the Federal FFEL programs, the Secretary may require the lender to submit evidence of circumstances that would justify loan guarantees under the provisions of this section.
- (e) With regard to a school lender that has entered into an agreement with the Secretary under §682.600, the Secretary denies loan guarantees on the basis of this section only if the Secretary first determines that all eligible students at that school who make a conscientious effort to obtain a loan from another lender will find a loan to be reasonably available. For purposes of this paragraph, the determination of loan availability is based on studies and surveys that the Secretary considers satisfactory.

- (ii) If the total of default claims under the Federal GSL programs paid by the Secretary to a State lender during any fiscal year reaches nine percent of the amount of the Federal GSL loans in repayment at the end of the preceding fiscal year, the Secretary's guarantee liability on a claim subsequently paid during that fiscal year is 80 percent of the amount of the unpaid principal balance plus accrued interest.

- (a) To be considered for participation in the Federal GSL programs, a lender shall submit an application to the Secretary.

- (2) The Secretary provides the lender an opportunity for the lender to meet with a designated Department official if the lender wishes to appeal the Secretary's decision.

- (3) The Secretary may include in an agreement a limit on the duration of the agreement and the number or amount of Federal GSL loans the lender may make or hold.
