criminal activity). In such cases, an additional period of supervision prior to termination of jurisdiction may be warranted.

(3) Decisions to terminate supervision prior to completion of the three year period specified in paragraph (e)(1)(ii) of this section may be made where it appears that the parolee is a better risk than indicated by the salient factor score as originally calculated. However, termination of supervision prior to the completion of two years of difficulty-free supervision will not be granted unless case-specific factors clearly indicate that continued supervision would be counter-productive.

(4) Cases with pending criminal charge(s) shall not be terminated from supervision until disposition of such charge(s) is known.

(5) After five continuous years of supervision, decisions to terminate will be made in accordance with subsection (c) of this rule.
