Looking Forward to Re-Enlisting...

— From — 29th Support Group

My name is Sgt. Trinity Southworth. I deployed from HHC, 29th Support Group, out of Rhein Ordnance Barracks in Kaiserslautern, German. I have lived in Germany since May 2000.

I am a supply specialist working outside of my occupation specialty in Iraq as a unit supply sergeant.

So far, several months into my deployment, I am still trying to get used to the heat. This is my first deployment, so I really didn't know what to expect here. Also, I am just getting used to not being with my wife and kids.

I am working above my pay grade in a Staff Sergeant slot and really enjoy it. There is no doubt I can do it, but I need some time which I don't get a lot of that. At first I was just trying to stay afloat, but now I have a better understanding of how things work.

Sometimes we get local purchase requests which are interesting. We can get some items here cheaper and some are more expensive. My first day I was here we received paper from a local vendor. This did not surprise me. I figured that we get a lot locally. It just makes sense.

I expect to be asked for some crazy things here as the supply guy, but so far nothing really interesting. But I am sure it will happen. It is human nature.

My favorite part of the day is when I make it back to my room at the end of the day and get to talk to my wife and kids on the phone.

I am looking forward to reenlisting in September 2007. I am looking to get to Fort Stewart and take my wife and two boys with me to the States.

I am married to a wonderfully, stubborn German woman and am looking forward to seeing her, my kids, and then my parents and siblings, in-laws, and the whole extended family.
