ENTERED ACCORDING TO ACT OF CONGRESS, IN THE YEAR 1905
BY N. W. AYER & SON,
THE OFFICE OF THE LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS, AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Population 1,976,571.

STATE CAPITAL, RALEIGH.

NORTH CAROLINA is bounded north by Virginia, east and southeast by the Atlantic Ocean south by South Carolina and Georgia, and west by Tennessee. Its extreme length from east to west is 490 miles; extreme breadth, 185 miles; land area, 48,580 square miles. The surface is very varied. For nearly 100 miles inland from the coast the country is level, marshy, and swampy; soil sandy but very fertile. It is estimated that there are nearly 3,000,000 acres of swamps in this region. Next is the middle section, with varied surface and fine soil. The surface then rises into small hills, increasing in altitude until they reach the mountainous region in the west. Some of the peaks in the Black Mountains and the Blue Ridge attain an elevation of from 5,000 to 6,000 feet. This region contains good grazing land, with much hard timber; and stock raising is largely carried on. In the coast region the river bottoms and reclaimed swamp lands are very fertile, and here rice, cotton, corn, honey, beeswax, apples, peaches, and pears abound. The Scuppernong and Catawba grapes are native here; cranberries are extensively produced. The pine region is mainly uncultivated, but a large trade is done in timber, tar, and turpentine. Cotton is raised chiefly in the southern counties. The middle section is adapted to the growth of cereals, tobacco, and cotton; sweet potatoes are a leading staple. The principal manufactures are flour, lumber, tar, turpentine, rosin, cotton and woolen goods, tobacco, zinc (smelted and rolled), carriages, boots and shoes. The manufacture of cotton goods is very large and is constantly increasing. It exports coastwise and to foreign ports large amounts of lumber, cotton, tobacco, flour, and fish. The fisheries are very large and valuable. The State is very rich in minerals. Gold is mined to a considerable extent in Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Lincoln, and Rowan Counties, and there is a branch of the United States Mint at Charlotte. Silver, lead, and zinc are found in association, particularly in Davidson County; silver ores mixed with lead or copper, principally in the interior counties; copper ores cover a wide field, and there is a very valuable mine in Ashe County; mica is found among the granites of Cleveland, Mitchell, and Yancey Counties; there is an abundance of corundum and many other metals, and even precious stones are found. Coal and iron are very abundant; the coal is mostly bituminous, and is contained in two fields, one in Stokes and Rockingham Counties, known as Dan River Field, the other in Chatham and Moore Counties, known as Deep River Field. The whole of the region from the navigable waters of the Roanoke and Cape Fear Rivers westward to Cherokee County contains rich beds of magnetic and hematite ores; the "Cranberry" mine, in Mitchell County, yields the purest magnetic ore yet found in the United States, producing a remarkably strong and tenacious iron.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in North Carolina is 263, including 32 daily, 20 semi-weekly, 182 weekly, 2 fortnightly, 8 semi-monthly, 17 monthly, 1 six times a year and 1 quarterly. The places of publication number 137, of which 77, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Population 357,591.

STATE CAPITAL, BISMARCK.

NORTH DAKOTA is bounded north by Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, South by South Dakota, east by Minnesota, and west by Montana. Length, east to west, about 355 miles. width, about 200 miles. Land area about 70,195 square miles. The Missouri River furnishes navigation for boats of three to six hundred tons burden. The Red River of the North, also navigable, drains the great wheat valley on its eastern border. That portion of the State east of the Missouri River is mostly rolling prairie; the soil on the Missouri Slope being a black, sandy loam, with clay subsoil; while in the Red River Valley it is a vegetable deposit of unsurpassed richness. West of the Missouri river the land is more broken, with stretches of excellent farming and grazing lands along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad. In the north is a group of hills of moderate elevation known as Turtle Mountain. In the southwest is a district of eroded clay hills, called the "Bad Lands," generally a good grazing region. The northern and central parts are especially adapted to the raising of wheat and other cereals, potatoes, vegetables and the earlier varieties of corn. The Red River Valley is not equalled on this continent for wheat production. The principal crops of the State are wheat, oats, barley, corn, potatoes, dairy products, butter, cheese, and wool. The rainfall is not great, but seems sufficient for ordinary years. The Missouri River and all small streams and lakes are lined with timber, and west and north of Bismarck are found inexhaustible beds of lignite coal.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in North Dakota is 263, including 8 daily, 2 semi-weekly, 246 weekly, 1 semi-monthly and 6 monthly. The places of publication number 179, of which 37, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

OHIO.

Population 4,302,860.

STATE CAPITAL, COLUMBUS.

OHIO is bounded north by Michigan and Lake Erie, east by Pennsylvania and West Virginia, South by West Virginia and Kentucky, and west by Indiana; greatest length from east to west 225 miles; greatest breadth 200 miles; land area, 40,760 square miles. The general character of the surface is that of a plateau of about 800 to 1,000 feet above sea level. The most prominent feature is the great divide which separates the drainage of Lake Erie from that of the Ohio River. This passes diagonally across the State from Trumbull County in the northeast to Mercer and Darke Counties in the west. Its average height is about 600 feet above the lake; and from it the surface slopes gradually northward toward the lake and southward toward the river. The rivers and streams have excavated deep valleys, which give to the surface its distinctive undulating or rolling character. The soil is universally fertile; and Ohio holds a leading position in every branch of agriculture. The uplands are well suited to wheat, the southern slope of the watershed to grain generally, the northern slope to grazing and dairying, and the northeast section or Western Reserve especially so. The bottom lands of the Miami, Muskingum, and Scioto rivers are very rich in corn; the Western Reserve and Miami regions are famous for apples. Flax and linseed are staple products, and tobacco is largely grown in most of the southern counties. The forests have largely disappeared, but several million acres of excellent hardwood timber remain. The fishing interests of Lake Erie are important. The manufactures of the State are very numerous and valuable. Iron, pork packing, farm implements, clothing, flouring and grist mill products, lumber, malt and distilled liquors are among the most important. Coal underlies a greater part of the State; iron ore is abundant, especially in the south; salt is very largely produced from springs; petroleum is an important product, also lime and cement. Good grindstones and building stones are obtained at Amherst, Berea (Berea grit), Buena Vista, and Independence. There are excellent qualities of limestone and sandstone for building, especially at Massillon and Dayton. Marl deposits abound in the Maumee Valley and other points. There are good pottery and fire clays, the fire bricks of Mineral Point being among the best in the United States. Cleveland, Massillon, Youngstown, and the towns on the Ohio River are the chief seats of the iron manufacture, which includes pig, forged, and rolled; iron castings and sheet iron works, rails, Bessemer steel rails, etc. The discovery of natural gas in apparently inexhaustible quantities at Findlay, and many other places in the State, has given its industrial interests an additional and marked impetus. The railroad facilities are rapidly increasing, and Ohio is now a net work of well constructed and busy transportation lines.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Ohio is 1,166, including 174 daily, 7 tri-weekly, 42 semi-weekly, 771 weekly, 3 fortnightly, 15 semi-monthly, 133 monthly, 5 bi-monthly and 16 quarterly. The places of publication number 412, of which 88 designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

OKLAHOMA.

Population 495,285.

TERRITORIAL CAPITAL, GUTHRIE.

OKLAHOMA is bounded on the north by Kansas and the Indian Territory, on the east by the Indian Territory, and on the south and west by Texas. Land area, 38,830 square miles. The land is generally tillable and the principal occupation of the people is agriculture. More wheat is raised than any other cereal. Corn is largely grown in the eastern part of the Territory. Cotton, oats, alfalfa, broom corn, Kafir corn, and barley are also profitable crops. Hay and fruit of excellent quality are raised in considerable quantities. The wealth of summer forage crops which may be grown and the abundant pasturage which wheat affords during the winter make the production of all classes of live stock very profitable. Limestone, gypsum, and good building stone are plentiful. There are sixty flouring mills, and large shipments of flour are made to other States, after supplying home consumption. Cotton seed oil mills use the cotton seed produced on the farms, and large numbers of cattle are fed on the meal and hulls. Practically all the government land has been homesteaded, and new settlers are rapidly transforming the prairie into a land of improved farms.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Oklahoma is 337, including 28 daily, 295 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 2 semi-monthly and 11 monthly. The places of publication number 181, of which 27, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

OREGON.

Population 437,302.

STATE CAPITAL, SALEM.

OREGON is bounded north by Washington, east by Idaho, south by Nevada and California, and west by the Pacific Ocean; average length from east to west, about 300 miles; average breadth, about 260 miles; land area, 91,560 square miles. It is divided unequally by the Cascade Mountains. East of this range the surface is generally undulating table land, with high cone-like hills and deep canyons. Between the Cascade and Coast Ranges is the Willamette Valley, 40 miles wide by 140 miles long, and exceedingly fertile; from the Coast Range westward the surface is mountainous, hilly, and broken. This section is suited for wool growing, stock raising, and the growth of winter wheat, barley, oats, and hay. The eastern portion does better as a stock raising region, but good wheat is also grown there. In the valley, wheat, corn, hops, tobacco, wool, flax, fruit, linseed, dairy products, and potatoes are raised in large quantities. The mountain regions are abundantly forested, the principal species being fir, cedar, pine, birch, and spruce. Many of the trees are gigantic in size, and afford excellent lumber. The Rogue River Valley, on account of its mild climate, is well adapted for raising fruits and grapes and large quantities are shipped from there annually. The manufactures comprise lumber—the large Douglas spruce affording the best masts and spars in the world;—leather, boots and shoes, saddlery, milling and smelting of ores, carriages, furniture, liquors, linseed oil, etc. The packing of beef and pork, and canning of salmon are successfully carried on. Gold and silver are produced, but not in very large amounts; copper and iron ore are abundant clay, glass sand, granite, marble, etc., are plentiful.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Oregon is 227, including 23 daily, 14 semi-weekly, 170 weekly, 3 semi-monthly and 17 monthly. The places of publication number 111, of which 22, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Population 6,606,747.

STATE CAPITAL, HARRISBURG.

PENNSYLVANIA is bounded north by New York and Lake Erie, east by New York and New Jersey, south by Delaware, Maryland, and West Virginia, and west by West Virginia and Ohio. Its greatest length from east to west is about 302 miles; its greatest breadth about 175 miles; mean length 280 miles; mean breadth 158 miles; land area, 44,985 square miles. The surface is exceedingly varied, chiefly level or slightly undulating in the southeast, hilly and mountainous in the interior, and generally rolling or broken in the west. A series of parallel ridges, members of the Appalachian system, each with a distinct name, traverse the State from northeast to southwest. The most eastern of these is the South Mountain, an extension of the Blue Ridge, and the western and highest the Allegheny, from which the surface slopes generally toward Ohio. Nearly one-fourth of the State is wooded, and a very large amount of lumber is manufactured, Williamsport and Lock Haven being the chief centres of this industry. The soil of the valleys and plains is generally fertile, and some of it exceedingly so. Lancaster County, and some of the counties bordering on the Ohio River, are the most productive. The State excels in dairy and market garden produce and all the agricultural staples of the Northern States. The tobacco crop is exceeded only by that of Kentucky and Virginia. Lancaster and York counties are the chief seats of the industry, Lancaster yielding nearly twice as much as any other county in the United States. Its beds of anthracite and bituminous coal and iron ore, and the great oil basin, are sources of immense wealth. Anthracite coal is found mainly in the counties of Carbon, Dauphin, Luzerne, and Schuylkill, to some extent in Columbia and Northumberland, and semi-anthracite in limited areas in Sullivan and Wyoming. Bedford, Bradford, Centre, Clearfield, Fulton, Lycoming, and Tioga counties contain fields of semi-bituminous coal, while the bituminous coal beds are located beyond the main Allegheny Ridge, every county west of it, with the exception of Erie, yielding more or less of this coal. Mercer supplies a good block coal for furnace use. The petroleum region is situated mainly in the counties of Venango, Butler, McKean, and Clarion. Salt springs abound in the same region, also natural gas wells, the gas from which is used for heating and lighting purposes. It is rich in minerals, slate, and building-stone of many kinds. There are many medicinal springs, the principal of which are at Bedford, Doubling Gap, Ephrata, Yellow Springs, and York. The southeastern corner of the State (bounded by a line running from Trenton, N. J., to Norristown, thence nearly to Lebanon, thence across the Susquehanna in a southwesterly direction to the Maryland line, east of Gettysburg) is rich in limestone and marble, of which great quantities are quarried for use in Philadelphia. This region also produces combined iron and chromium ores, hematite, magnetic iron, and corundum. Nickel is found at Lancaster, galena at Phoenixville, zinc at Friedensville and Bethlehem. A handsome black limestone is quarried at Williamsport, roofing-slates in the Lehigh and Delaware Valleys, Silurian limestone in the Cumberland Valley and at other points. In manufactures, Pennsylvania is second only to New York, and Philadelphia is one of the principal seats of foreign and coastwise trade. The leading exports are grain, provisions, petroleum, tobacco, oil cake, lumber, tallow, hides, leather, shoes, cotton goods, machinery, and coal. Erie and Pittsburg are also great commercial centres. Kensington and Chester are the chief ship building stations. Pittsburg, Allegheny, Harrisburg, Reading, and Scranton are the chief seats of the iron manufactures. Philadelphia is one of the great manufacturing cities of the world, and has an enormous production of iron goods, textile fabrics, and other articles.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Pennsylvania is 1,456, including 214 daily, 8 tri-weekly, 44 semi-weekly, 910 weekly, 4 fortnightly, 9 semi-monthly, 234 monthly, 10 bi-monthly and 23 quarterly. The places of publication number 474, of which 67 designated by a dagger (†) are county seats.

S.W. of New York, Penna.; Balt. & Ohio; Phila. & Read.; Phila., Balt. & Wash.; and other railroads. Tel. Exp. Banks. Port of entry, the metropolis of Pennsylvania, and the third city of the U. S. in population. Philadelphia is principally distinguished as a manufacturing city. Among the most notable of its industries are the Wm. H. Cramp & Co's. Shipyards, and the Baldwin Locomotive Works, with a capacity of 2,000 locomotives annually. In carpets, woolen and cotton goods, and other textile fabrics, its production is enormous, and the same may be said of the products of iron and steel, while many other branches of manufacture are also very largely represented. The domestic and foreign commerce of this city is also large, but is secondary in importance to its manufactures. Among its numerous institutions may be named Independence Hall, the University of Pennsylvania, Jefferson, and other medical colleges, Girard College, Drexel Institute, Franklin Institute, Academy of Natural Sciences, Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia Library, the magnificent new City Hall, and Fairmount Park, the largest and most picturesque pleasure ground in the United States.

Penna.; Balt. & Ohio; Pittsb. & Lake E.; and several other railroads. Tel. Exp. Banks. Second city of Pennsylvania, and the leading iron and steel manufacturing city in America. Its pig iron product is said to be one-fourth, and its steel product more than one-half of the total product of the United States. The glass manufacture is also very important, the product being claimed to be about one-half of the total produced in this country. Coke is very largely produced, and there are numerous smaller manufactures. The abundance of natural gas fuel gives Pittsburgh special advantages in manufacturing. The commerce of this city is also very considerable; oil, coal, lumber, iron, steel and glass products, etc., being largely distributed. Here are the Western University of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh Female College (Methodist), a handsome City Hall, a United States Arsenal, etc.

RHODE ISLAND.

Population 454,629.

STATE CAPITAL, PROVIDENCE.

RHODE ISLAND is bounded on the north and east by Massachusetts, south by the Atlantic Ocean, and west by Connecticut. Its extreme length from north to south is 47½ miles; extreme breadth, 40 miles; average breadth, 35 miles; land area, 1,653 square miles. The surface is for the most part rough, hilly and stony. There are no mountains, and few hills of any eminence. Nearly one-fourth is woodland. Soil generally fertile, especially that of the smaller islands; but parts are level and marshy. Rhode Island is not an agricultural State. The wheat and buckwheat crop is merely nominal; other cereals small; dairy and market-garden produce and live stock very moderate. The most prominent industries are cotton, woolen and worsted goods, machinery, jewelry, silver and plated ware, clothing, iron and bronze, rubber and elastic goods, leather, refined sugar and molasses, and flouring mill products. In its production of cotton goods it is only surpassed by Massachusetts. Coal is mined at Cumberland, Portsmouth and Valley Falls, but is hard and difficult to burn. There are extensive granite quarries at Westerly.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Rhode Island is 66, including 14 daily, 1 tri-weekly, 3 semi-weekly, 39 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 7 monthly and 1 bi-monthly. The places of publication number 22, of which 4, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Population 1,307,067.

STATE CAPITAL, COLUMBIA.

SOUTH CAROLINA is bounded north and northeast by North Carolina, southeast by the Atlantic Ocean, west and southwest by Georgia. Its greatest length from east to west is about 275 miles, and its greatest breadth about 210 miles; land area, 30,170 square miles. The surface presents nearly the same features as that of North Carolina. The coast for 100 miles inland is low and level, with sandy soil, numerous swamps, and extensive pine forests; then follows a tract of low sand hills, the soil of which is moderately productive. The land rises abruptly on the western edge of this belt, and continues to rise until it terminates in the Blue Ridge, the highest peak of which, Table Mountain, is 4,000 feet above the sea. The swamps embrace over 1,000,000 acres, and the pine lands 6,000,000. The sea islands are mainly devoted to sea island cotton and rice, and the palmetto grows on them; the tidal swamps to rice; inland swamps, when drained, to rice, cotton, corn and peas; the salt marshes to long cotton; the oak and pine and oak and hickory lands to corn and cotton; and the pine barrens to fruits and vegetables. Rice, cotton, and corn thrive best in the central and southern counties. The northwestern region produces corn, wheat, barley, oats, tobacco, and many fruits. Stock raising and wool growing are carried on with profit. Figs and pomegranates grow in the lower counties, and the peach and grape thrive over the State generally; strawberries abundant. The manufactures are principally cotton goods, flour, lumber, machinery, fur, turpentine, carriages, and fertilizers. Commerce is mainly confined to Charleston, Georgetown, and Beaufort. Exports are chiefly rice, cotton, lumber, phosphate, naval stores, cotton seed and its oil, oil cake, fish, and spring vegetables. Considerable shad and oyster fishing. The mineral wealth, though large, has not been much developed. Considerable gold is found in the northwestern counties. There are large deposits of excellent iron ore in Greenville, Pickens, Spartanburg, and Union Counties; manganese, copper, lead, and bismuth are also found, mainly in the northwest; white and colored marbles and limestones, granites and cyanites, soapstones, flagging stone, and buhr stone abundant. In Fairfield Co., is found, what is claimed to be, the finest granite in the United States. It is of beautiful appearance, great strength and fine quality. Aiken County contains immense beds of the finest porcelain clay. A little coal is found in Chesterfield County. The most valuable mineral at the present day is, however, a bone phosphate marl, a fossil deposit of recent origin and one of the best of fertilizers, found in the lowlands and river beds near Charleston; on the Stono, Ashpepo and Edisto Rivers; also near St. Helena Sound.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in South Carolina is 156, including 13 daily, 1 tri-weekly, 15 semi-weekly, 114 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 2 semi-monthly, 9 monthly and 1 five times a year. The places of publication number 69, of which 40 designated by a dagger †, are county seats.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Population 443,927.

STATE CAPITAL, PIERRE.

SOUTH DAKOTA is bounded north by North Dakota, east by Minnesota and Iowa, south by Nebraska, and west by Montana and Wyoming. Length, east to west, nearly 300 miles; width, about 240 miles. Land area about 76,850 square miles. The Missouri River furnishes navigation for boats of three to six hundred tons burden. That portion of the State east of the Missouri River is mostly rolling prairie; the soil on the Mississippi slope being a black, sandy loam, with clay subsoil. West of the River the land is more broken, with mining and grazing land in the southwestern section or Black Hills region, which is a mountain district of nearly 5,000 square miles in extent, exceedingly rich in valuable minerals, and in great part well adapted to stock raising. It is largely forested, and with the aid of irrigation much of it might be adapted to agriculture. The eastern portion of the State is especially adapted to the raising of wheat and other cereals, potatoes, vegetables, and flax. The Missouri River and all small streams and lakes are lined with timber. The principal agricultural products are wheat, corn, oats, barley, flax, hay and vegetables. Dairy products, 7,974,000 pounds of butter, 910,000 pounds of cheese. The value of the cattle and hogs marketed in 1903 was $32,000,000; dairy and creamery products, $6,500,000; eggs and poultry, $4,000,000; garden products and fruit, $3,500,000; wool and hides, $1,501,000. The wheat product was 55,000,000 bushels; corn, 50,000,000 bushels; oats, 21,000,000 bushels; barley, 12,000,000 bushels; and hay, 2,000,000 tons. The mineral output was $12,000,000. The Black Hills possess some of the richest gold mines in the world; the gold production for 1903 was over $7,000,000. Tin occurs in great abundance, though as yet but little developed, from difficulty in reducing. Other important minerals are silver, copper, iron, gypsum, mica, marble, building stone, lime, brick, fire, and potter's clay, and coal. Petroleum and natural gas are also present, while various other minerals exist.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in South Dakota is 319, including 15 daily, 4 semi-weekly, 281 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 2 semi-monthly and 16 monthly. The places of publication number 191, of which 51, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

TENNESSEE.

Population 2,095,223

STATE CAPITAL, NASHVILLE.

TENNESSEE is bounded north by Kentucky and Virginia; southeast by North Carolina south by Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi; west by Arkansas and Missouri; greatest length from east to west 332 miles, breadth 109 miles; land area, 41,750 square miles. The State is popularly divided into East, Middle, and West Tennessee. East Tennessee comprises the eastern mountain border, the beautiful East Tennessee Valley, and about half of the Cumberland Mountain plateau. Middle Tennessee reaches from about the center of the plateau to the Tennessee River, and is a region of fertile terraces, including the vast elliptical basin of nearly 5,000 square miles, known as the Garden of Kentucky. West Tennessee extends from the Tennessee River to the Mississippi, and is somewhat broken in the east, succeeded by a rolling plain descending to the latter river. The Mississippi bottom is a low, flat, alluvial plain, covered with forests and abounding with lakes and swamps. West Tennessee is extremely fertile, and produces corn and cotton in large quantities. Middle Tennessee is generally fertile, giving excellent grain, tobacco, and much cotton, especially toward the south. East Tennessee valley lands are fertile, producing corn, cotton, and winter wheat; potatoes, oats, hay, and hemp are extensively produced; great numbers of stock are raised, and the wool clip is large and excellent. Swine are extensively grown, and much attention is paid to fine breeds of horses. The leading cereals are corn, wheat, oats and rye. Peanuts form a product of some importance, yielding about 1,500,000 bushels. Tennessee is rich in marble of various kinds, limestone and other building stone; valuable copper mines exist in Polk County; coal and iron ore are very abundant. The coal deposits underlie 5,100 square miles, the yearly product is over 1,000,000 tons. Iron mining and smelting is becoming very extensive, and much iron ore is exported to the iron working towns on the Ohio River. The lumbering interest is very great, there being a very large area of valuable hardwood timber, of which about 16,000,000 acres have scarcely been touched. Wool carding and cloth dressing are carried on extensively. Flouring and grist mill products are very large. Union County contains zinc and lead mines. Colored marbles are found in immense quantities in East and West Tennessee; roofing slates in East Tennessee; hydraulic limestone in East, Middle and West Tennessee; there are also building limestone, sandstone, and granite; fire and potter's clay.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Tennessee is 322, including 17 daily, 3 semi-weekly, 212 weekly, 3 fortnightly, 5 semi-monthly, 31 monthly, 1 bi-monthly, and 17 quarterly. The places of publication number 138, of which 86, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

TEXAS.

Population 3,285,474.

STATE CAPITAL, AUSTIN.

TEXAS is bounded north by New Mexico, the Indian Territory, and Arkansas, east by Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana, southeast by the Gulf of Mexico, southwest by Mexico, and west by New Mexico; greatest length, about 740 miles; greatest breadth, 825 miles; land area, 292,290 square miles. From the Sabine River to the Trinity River is the great timber region, generally level and sandy in the south, rolling and fertile in the north. From the Trinity to the Colorado is prairie, timbered along streams, with extensive forests of live oak, extending through central and western Texas to the Red River, called the "Cross Timbers." The total area of timber is about 49,960,000 acres, of which 25,000,000 are in pines. The pecan tree is widely distributed, and is a valuable nut-bearing tree, its yield being estimated at 9,000,000 pounds, or 56 per cent. of the entire crop of the United States. Western Texas embraces the counties between the Colorado and Rio Grande; four-fifths of it is prairie; timber generally confined to banks of streams. Between the Colorado and the Brazos Rivers are the Comanche and Leon River Mountain ranges. In the north and northwest are the Church and Double Mountains, and the surface is generally broken until the Llano Estacado, or Staked Plain, is reached, when the surface is gently undulating and vegetation scanty. Between the Pecos and Rio Grande are several ranges, sometimes attaining an elevation of 5,000 feet. The chief crops are cotton, corn, and wheat. The former two may be grown in nearly any part of the State, but especially in the eastern and central sections; the latter chiefly in the north and centre. Sea island cotton is grown on the coast. Sugar cane is raised chiefly on the Brazos and other rivers, near their mouths, and rice in the south and southeast. Oats, barley, tobacco, and sweet and white potatoes are grown to some extent. Texas now produces immense quantities of orchard and garden products. Thousands of acres are under irrigation from flowing artesian wells, principally located in southwest Texas. Swine thrive on the abundant mast of the forests. The chief occupation westward is stock raising and wool growing. Figs and oranges thrive in the south. Manufacturing interests are increasing. The leading products are lumber, cotton seed oil, flour, carriages, foundry and machine shop products, woolens, marble, etc. There are immense deposits of copper along the line of the Texas Pacific Railroad; coal, timber, limestone, soapstone, and iron are found in the same region. Argenterous galena is found in large quantities in northwestern Texas; immense quantities of magnetic iron in Mason, Llano, and the western counties which is now being developed. There is a field of lignite coal about 6,000 square miles in extent, and a field of semi-anthracite in Brown, Coleman, Comanche, and Hamilton Counties. Salt is produced in large quantities from springs in El Paso, Lampasas, Llano, and Mitchell Counties; asphaltum is abundant. Large quantities of saltpetre are found in Blanco and Burnet Counties; marble and roofing slate, grindstones, potter and fire clays, marl and other fertilizers are found in great quantities.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Texas is 865, including 86 daily, 18 semi-weekly, 705 weekly, 7 semi-monthly, 46 monthly and 3 quarterly. The places of publication number 465, of which 202, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

UTAH.

Population 295,401.

STATE CAPITAL, SALT LAKE CITY.

UTAH is bounded north by Idaho and Wyoming, east by Wyoming and Colorado, south by Arizona, and west by Nevada; length, north to south, about 350 miles; width, about 200 miles; land area, 82,000 square miles. The surface is generally mountainous, interspersed with arid plateaus, valleys, and basins. The grazing and mountain lands comprise about seven-eighths of the State. The area at present under cultivation is about four per cent.; eleven per cent. can be made productive by irrigation. Irrigation is nearly everywhere necessary, and where employed brings good results, as the soil contains all the elements of fertility. The State contains over 50 miles of canals and nearly 7,000,000 cubic feet of irrigation reservoirs. Wheat, oats, barley, corn, potatoes, hay, sugar beets, and wool are the chief products. Cattle and sheep raising are profitable industries and are often successfully carried on where farming is impracticable. Agricultural products of all kinds in 1905 amounted to over $24,000,000 in value, while the value of manufactures was $13,000,000. About 3000 acres are devoted to orchard and nursery interests and over 170,000 acres to the production of sugar beets. The chief wealth of the State, however, is in its minerals. The total output in 1903 of gold, silver, lead, and copper was over $24,000,000, of which amount gold, lead, and copper furnished over $5,000,000 each and silver upwards of $10,000,000; coal and salt are also largely produced. Manufactures are chiefly those of goods needed for home consumption, but for many years extensive works for the mining and smelting of ores have been established and of late much extended. The orchard and nursery average amounts to 9,000; sugar beet acreage is over 13,000.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Utah is 81, including 9 daily, 4 tri-weekly, 9 semi-weekly, 26 weekly, 4 semi-monthly and 9 monthly. The places of publication number 47, of which 22 designated by a dagger †, are county seats.

VERMONT.

Population 347,007.

STATE CAPITAL, MONTPELIER.

VERMONT is the most northwesterly of the New England States, bounded north by Quebec, east by New Hampshire, south by Massachusetts, and west by New York. It is 143 miles long by from 49 to 56 miles wide, with a land area of 9,436 square miles. The Green Mountains traverse it from north to south, mainly in two ranges, generally covered with dense forests, but affording excellent pasturage. Western Vermont and a large tract of the eastern part comprise beautiful pastoral regions, but the central part is rugged and mountainous. The best soil is found on the western slope of the mountains near the border of Lake Champlain, and in the valley lands of the Connecticut River. The State occupies a prominent position in agriculture. When its area, population, amount of forest land, and long severe winters are considered, there is perhaps no other State that yields so large a return. All the ordinary agricultural staples are abundantly produced; wool and dairy products are large and excellent; cattle, sheep, and horses are raised in large numbers, and the yield of maple sugar is unequalled. Manufactures occupy a prominent position in its industries, and cover a wide range of goods, including flour, furniture, cotton and woollen goods, leather, agricultural tools, tin and copper ware, lumber, etc. Large quantities of lumber are exported, and marble and slate extensively quarried. The principal marble quarries are at Brandon, Dorset, Isle La Motte, Manchester, Middlebury, New Haven, Puttston, Proctorsville, serpentine, Roxbury, Verdanthropic, Rutland, Shelburn, Sutherland Falls, Swanton and West Rutland; slate quarries at Castleton, Fair Haven, Gallford, Northfield, Pawlet and Poultney granite at Barre and Brattleboro, Potters' clay comes from Bennington and Rutland; steatite from Castleton and Gratton. Manganese, brown hematite, kaolin and ochre from Brandon, South Wadingford and Manchester Centre; copper ore from Vershire and Cornish. Rutland is the largest marble centre in the world, not less than $6,000,000 of capital and 1,000 men being employed in 15 quarries and 20 mills. During the last ten years the development of the granite business at Barre, six miles from Montpelier, has been very large. Burlington is a large market for Vermont and Ottawa lumber, having extensive mills and a trade extending throughout the Eastern States. Vermont continues to be the greatest breeding state of fine horses, Morgans and Hambletonians, and of Spanish merino sheep. Every year numbers of these superior animals are shipped to all parts of this country, to South America and to Australia.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Vermont is 105, including 10 daily, 81 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 1 semi-monthly, 8 monthly and 1 quarterly. The places of publication number 69, of which 42, designated by a dagger †, are county seats.

VIRGINIA.

Population 1,919,103.

STATE CAPITAL, RICHMOND.

VIRGINIA is bounded north by West Virginia and Maryland, east by Maryland and the Atlantic Ocean, south by North Carolina and Tennessee, and west by Kentucky and West Virginia. Its greatest length from east to west is about 110 miles, its greatest breadth 192 miles; land area, 91,175 square miles. The surface is divided into six great natural divisions, the Tidewater comprising the south and southeast; the Middle, an undulating plain, extending westward to the Coast Range; the Piedmont, from the Coast Range to the Blue Ridge Mountains, and from the Potomac River to North Carolina; the Blue Ridge, stretching across the State in a southwesterly direction; the Valley—a part of the great Appalachian Valley, reaching from Canada to Alabama—a broad belt of rolling country between the Blue Ridge and the Kittatinny or North Mountain; and the Appalachian, a mountainous region traversed by the Alleghenies. The soil in the Tidewater region is a light sandy loam, yielding large crops of vegetables and small fruits. The Valley Region has a rich fertile soil, well adapted for cereals, of which corn, wheat, oats and rye are the principal. Much of the Mountain Region is uncultivated and chiefly forest land; but the parallel valleys are very fertile. The Piedmont, Blue Ridge, Valley, and Appalachian regions are noted for their grasses. The yield of tobacco is only equaled by that of Kentucky. Some cotton is grown in the Tidewater section; fruit grows all over the State. A considerable part of the tide water region is devoted to raising early vegetables for northern markets. Dairying, stock raising, and wool-growing are important industries. The timber export is large. There are profitable fisheries of bass, shad, etc., and the oyster trade is very important. The manufacturing interests are comparatively small, but are increasing, the chief seats being Richmond, Alexandria, Danville, and Lynchburg. The more important products are iron, tobacco, leather, coke, cotton, paper, agricultural implements, machinery, etc. Virginia has excellent natural advantages for commerce, but it is only lately that she has begun to take a prominent part in foreign trade. There are beds of anthracite, semi-bituminous, and bituminous coal in the southwestern counties, not much developed; salt is an important product of this region. There are coal bearing strata in other parts of the State, particularly near Richmond; the coal is bituminous, and generally of good quality. Virginia has vast beds of gypsum and marl, abundant iron ore, fine granite, marble, and other building stones; zinc, sulphur, kaolin, fire clay, and many other minerals. It abounds in mineral springs of great reputation. Iron and manganese are extensively mined, also zinc and lead ores. Lime burning is an important industry. Considerable quantities of coal are produced from the Trans-Appalachian district.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Virginia is 216, including 30 daily, 21 tri-weekly, 8 semi-weekly, 103 weekly, 4 fortnightly, 4 semi-monthly, 32 monthly, 2 bi-monthly and 4 quarterly. The places of publication number 118, of which 76, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

WASHINGTON.

Population 581,626.

STATE CAPITAL, OLYMPIA.

WASHINGTON is bounded north by British Columbia, west by the Pacific Ocean, east by Idaho and south by Oregon. Its average length, east to west, is 330 miles; width, 220 miles; land area 66,520 square miles. It is divided by the Cascade Mountains, into two distinct parts. Western Washington is a fine timber country, with many fertile valleys, well settled and very productive in vegetables which grow to an immense size, fruit of all kinds, and hops. Dairying is an interest of growing importance. Extensive coal and iron mines are being operated, coke ovens established, and the State will be, in a short time, the Pennsylvania of the Pacific Coast. The discoveries during the past two years have been of copper, silver, galena and gold mines, all of which are rapidly being developed. There is also an abundance of iron ore, limestone, granite, marble, etc. Eastern Washington is especially adapted for the raising of all kinds of grain, fruit, vegetables, hops, corn, and particularly wheat. The climate is perfect; the mean average temperature for the year being 53°. It is the best agricultural country on the Pacific Coast. Cattle and stock of all kinds do remarkably well; the ranges are good and it is not considered necessary to feed the stock in the winter time, owing to the generally light snow fall and the abundance of natural grasses. Puget Sound, its chief harbor, having an extent of 1,524 miles of shoreline, and Seattle, its principal sea port, is fast becoming the metropolis of the northwest Pacific Coast. Fish of all kinds abound, and the canning of salmon employs many hundred people in the season. Manufacturing establishments are increasing every day and the State is on the eve of great developments. Ship building is one of the most important industries. The principal articles of export are lumber, coal, wheat and salmon. Hops are a leading product of Western Washington. Of the area of the State, 20,000,000 acres are in timber, with 1,000,000 additional of mineral and mountain lands, mostly timbered. Parts of this area bear immense trees, ten to twelve feet in diameter and 200 feet high.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Washington is 288, including 23 daily, 7 semi-weekly, 27 weekly, 3 semi-monthly and 31 monthly. The places of publication mentioned, of which 103 are designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

CHAS. EXTON, B. & C. Co., Inc. • 1876 Establishment of Publishers' reports. Roman figures—estimated. PUBLISHED BY CHAS. EXTON, B. & C. Co., Inc. • Form 111—1905 County State, 1/2 Sheet of paper.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Population 1,021,106.

STATE CAPITAL, CHARLESTON.

WEST VIRGINIA is bounded north and east by Pennsylvania and Maryland, east and south by Virginia, and west by Kentucky and Ohio. Its greatest length from north to south is about 210 miles; greatest breadth, 160 miles; land area, 21,615 square miles. A large part of the surface is mountainous and hilly; about two-thirds is covered with forest. The soil of the ridges is fertile to the tops, and the summits of many mountains are flat, natural meadows or glades. The valley of the Great Kanawha is the finest grazing region of the State. Blue grass is indigenous; the lumber trade is important, the forests being principally composed of hardwood timber of the most valuable kinds. Nearly the whole of the State lies within the Allegheny coal system, and large quantities of coal are exported both by river and rail, and new mines are constantly being opened. The total area underlaid by coal is estimated at not less than 16,000 square miles. It is generally bituminous. The Kanawha Valley is one of the great salt producing regions of the United States. Petroleum is extensively produced, chiefly in Ritchie, Pleasants, Marshall, Wood, and Wirt Counties. Natural gas is found in several sections, Wheeling and the Northern Pan Handle using it as a fuel almost to the exclusion of coal. Limestone, sandstone, and grinding stone abound generally through the State. The minerals and mineral springs are inexhaustible. West Virginia is especially famous for wool, while the live stock interests generally are large. Other great staples are corn, wheat, oats, and tobacco. Manufactures are comparatively undeveloped, except in the towns along the Ohio River. The State has enormous water power, all its streams having a rapid descent, but so far this has been but little utilized. The leading industries are steel and iron in various forms, glass, flour, salt, wood pulp, liquor, lumber, queensware and porcelain, fire brick, leather, cigars and tobacco, and machinery. The cigar manufacture is very important. Wheeling is the largest and most important city; it is the manufacturing center and all the industries enumerated above, except salt, flourish there.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in West Virginia is 225, including including 35 daily, 5 semi-weekly, 173 weekly, 2 fortnightly, and 10 monthly. The places of publication number 93, of which 55, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

WISCONSIN.

Population 2,155,441.

STATE CAPITAL, MADISON.

WISCONSIN is bounded north by Lake Superior, northeast by Michigan, east by Lake Michigan, south by Illinois, and west by Iowa and Minnesota. Its greatest length from north to south is 300 miles; greatest breadth, 200 miles; land area, 51,450 square miles. The surface is generally an elevated plain, with high bluffs along the rivers and lakes, and elsewhere gently undulating, diversified with prairie, woodlands, and numerous lakes. The State ranks high in agricultural products. The northern part of the State is heavily timbered but is fast settling up. It has a somewhat severe climate, but outside the wooded country the soil is good, producing large crops but not of corn. The lumber business of this section of the State, in pine and hard wood, has built up many large and flourishing inland cities like Oshkosh, Eau Claire, Wausau, Chipewau Falls, Stevens' Point, Merrill and Shawano. There is an immense deposit of the best iron ore, extending across the entire northern part of the State and known as the Gogebic iron belt; many valuable mines have been opened, and the shipments of Bessemer and hematite ore have added millions of wealth to the productive capacity of the State and largely increased the population. Galena limestone, lead, and zinc exist in the southwest, chiefly near Mineral Point. One of the best hydraulic cements comes from the neighborhood of Milwaukee. Wheat, corn, rye, oats, barley, potatoes, dairy products, and maple sugar are all raised in large quantities; hops are exceedingly prolific; fruit growing is an important industry. Cheese and butter making have increased to enormous proportions, especially in the central and southern counties, and the growing of seed leaf tobacco for wrappers has become an important and profitable industry, the product commanding the highest market price. The leading agricultural products are oats, corn, wheat, barley, tobacco, butter and cheese. Large numbers of horses are bred; sheep are numerous, and the wool clip large and valuable. The lakes and streams abound with fish, especially trout and black bass. Manufactures are thriving and numerous, lumber and wood work of all kinds holding a very prominent position. The manufactures of furniture, wagons, agricultural implements, leather and brooms are large and increasing, while at Milwaukee are situated several of the largest and wealthiest beer brewing corporations in the world, and the manufactures of cotton and woolen goods, nails, steel rails and merchant iron are conspicuous and valuable.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Wisconsin is 720, including 64 daily, 2 tri-weekly, 23 semi-weekly, 571 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 2 semi-monthly, 55 monthly and 2 quarterly. The places of publication number 324, of which 71, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

WYOMING.

Population 101,525.

STATE CAPITAL, CHEYENNE CITY.

WYOMING is bounded north by Montana, east by Dakota and Nebraska, south by Colorado and Utah, and west by Utah, Idaho, and Montana; length, east to west, 365 miles; width, 271 miles; land area, 97,575 square miles. Its surface is broken by mountain ranges, deep river canons, flat topped hills or buttes, the latter a feature of South Wyoming, and which rise from valley or plain like walled cities or mounds. There are large elevated plateaus or parks, of which the principal is the Great Yellowstone or National Park. There are extensive areas of pine and spruce timber, widely distributed throughout the mountain regions. Stock raising, sheep husbandry, and coal mining are the leading pursuits. Irrigation is needed in a large part of the country to make the soil productive. It is estimated that 10,000,000 acres may be reclaimed by irrigation. This is being actively applied, more than 4,500 miles of irrigation ditches having been dug in the past ten years. The question of the formation of reservoirs by the Government is under consideration. Gold and silver are plentiful. There are vast beds of iron ore and plenty of good coal, the latter underlying 30,000 square miles of territory, much of it workable. Gypsum, salt, soda, sulphur, copper, lead, tin, and other minerals are found. Petroleum seems abundant in central and northern Wyoming. It is produced to some extent. In manufactures, the sawing of lumber and railroad ties, milling of quartz, and railroad repair and machine shops in the towns on the line of the Union Pacific Railroad, occupy the leading places.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Arizona is 52, including 4 daily, 6 semi-weekly, 10 weekly and 2 monthly. The places of publication number 31, of which 13, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

ALASKA.

Population, 63,592.

TERRITORIAL CAPITAL, SITKA.

ALASKA is bounded north by the Arctic Ocean, east by the Northwest Territories of Canada, west and south by the Pacific Ocean, Behring's Sea and Strait, and numerous islands. It has a total area of about 590,884 square miles, its greatest length, from north to south, being 1100 miles and greatest breadth over 700 miles. The northern half is low with great swampy morasses along the streams, running back into low, rolling hills. Native Indians inhabit that section living along the streams in small bands. The southern half is mountainous, and along the southwest coast are some of the highest mountain peaks on the American continent; Mount St. Elias, the highest, is about 20,000 feet. The northwesterly section comprises the peninsula of Alaska and the Aleutian islands, the latter the seat of the valuable fur seal and sea otter fisheries. This district is mountainous and actively volcanic. The principal industry at present is mining, the country being scamed by the largest quartz veins in the world. The Alaska Mill and Mining Co. have a large plant on Douglas Island, across the bay from Juneau, and ship a large amount in gold bricks every month. There are similar plants in other localities. In a few years the fisheries and forests of red and yellow cedar will yield large returns. The Seal Islands in Behring Sea pay a large yearly revenue to the government. The principal towns are Sitka, the capital, and Juneau, the metropolis and supply point. The western coast, from the southern boundary to Cape Spencer, is lined with a continuous chain of islands, many of them as large as the State of Maine. Between the islands and mainland are salt water channels, navigable for the largest sized steamships. In the interior is one of the largest rivers in the world, the Yukon, navigable for 2,000 miles, and 60 miles wide at the mouth. A railway has been built over the White Pass to Lake Bennett, whence water transportation commences for all points in Yukon territory.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Alaska is 14, including 3 daily, 2 semi-weekly and 9 weekly. The places of publication number 11.

HAWAII.

Population, 151,001.

CAPITAL, HONOLULU.

The HAWAIIAN ISLANDS are situated in the North Pacific Ocean between longitude 154° 40' and 160° 30' west and latitude 22° 16' and 18° 13' north. The eight principal islands have an area of 6,451 square miles, the others are mere rocks. Hawaii is the largest and has given its name to the whole group. The islands are of volcanic formation. There are two active volcanoes. Kilauea and Mauna Loa. Mauna Kea, the highest point on Hawaii, is 13,825 feet high; the mountains generally range from 4,000 to 5,000 feet. Their sides abound in forests containing an abundance of timber and ornamental woods. Agricultural products are in the order named—sugar, rice, coffee, fruits, and vegetables. Bananas are an important product, over 100,000 bunches being exported annually, with a capacity of many times that number. The United States practically monopolizes the trade of Hawaii. The total exports from July 1, 1901, to June 30, 1902, were $24,793,735, of which the United States received $24,700,557. The total imports for the same year were $22,036,583, of which $19,000,000 were from the United States.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Hawaii is 39, including 8 daily, 1 tri-weekly, 3 semi-weekly, 18 weekly, 8 monthly and 1 bi-monthly.

It includes a number of islands, the largest being Vancouver, which contains the capital of the Province, has an area of about 14,000 square miles, and produces the finest coal on the Pacific Coast. Over 300,000 tons are exported annually to the United States, and the quantity is steadily increasing. The Province is about 700 miles long and 500 wide. The Fraser River, its principal stream, is 800 miles long, and 600 yards wide at its mouth; its valley containing much the greater part of the arable land. Its surface is largely mountainous and densely wooded, producing trees of enormous size. Lumbering is one of the principal industries, but as the land becomes cleared the soil is found very fertile and a considerable area is well adapted for agriculture of all kinds. The fruit growing industry is expected to become important. The climate is temperate and healthy, and is particularly suited for stock raising. Gold has been found in large quantities, and mining it is one of the chief industries. Upwards of $15,000,000 of this metal have been exported during the last 15 years. Copper, and iron ore are widely distributed, and many other minerals are found. The fisheries are also very valuable. Fur bearing animals are very numerous. The principal town on the mainland is Vancouver, the terminus of the Pacific Canadian Railway.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in British Columbia is 69, including 12 daily, 6 semi-weekly, 46 weekly and 5 monthly. The places of publication number 40, of which 6, designated by a dagger (†), are district capitals.

MANITOBA.

Population254,947

PROVINCIAL CAPITAL, WINNIPEG.

MANITOBA is bounded south by Minnesota and North Dakota, east by Ontario and Keewatin and north and west by Keewatin and the Northwest Territories, and has an area of 60,520 square miles. Its surface is principally prairie land, with groves of timber along the rivers and streams. The soil is probably the richest in the world, and produces the finest wheat known in the market. All other cereals grow and ripen in great abundance, also vegetables and small fruits of all kinds. For grazing and cattle raising the facilities are unbounded, hay being chiefly made from the prairie grasses, which are very nutritious, and in illimitable abundance. Cultivated grasses also answer well. Coal of the lignitic variety, is abundant though mining operations have not yet been attempted. The Laurentian district of the north and east is thought to be rich in other minerals, though it is yet, unexplored. This region gives a rich yield of furs, while its streams are full of fish. Winnipeg is on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which passes through Manitoba from east to west, and from it several railways branch out into the Province and the United States. The means of water communication are also very considerable.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Manitoba is 105, including 6 daily 2 semi-weekly, 84 weekly, 2 semi-monthly and 11 monthly. The places of publication number 59, of which 11, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES.

Population158,910

TERRITORIAL CAPITAL, REGINA.

The NORTHWEST TERRITORIES are bounded north by the Arctic Ocean, east by the Atlantic Ocean and Hudson's Bay, west by Alaska and British Columbia, and south by the United States and portions of the Dominion. They cover an area of about 2,616,730 square miles, and were formerly known as the Hudson's Bay Territory. In 1882 four provisional districts were formed, viz: Alberta, Saskatchewan, Assiniboia and Athabasca. The population of the first three at a census taken in 1885 was 48,362. The four districts contain 431,000 square miles, or 275,810,000 acres, the greater number of which are fit for cultivation. The fertile belt of the Saskatchewan Valley alone contains an area of 61,000 square miles, with a rich and deep soil of vegetable mould, while still better wheat lands exist in the valleys of the Athabasca and Pease Rivers, a region of very extensive area. Assiniboia and Saskatchewan contain the best wheat lands, while Alberta is peculiarly well adapted for grazing and stock raising. Upwards of 4,000,000 acres are already under lease for these purposes, on which are more than 100,000 head of cattle. The Canadian Pacific Railway runs through Assiniboia and Alberta. The population of the remainder of the Territories consists principally of Hudson Bay Company employes and Indians. An immense coal field 300 miles wide commences 150 miles east of the Rocky Mountains and extends to the Arctic Ocean, and is now being worked in several places. Lumber is also abundant in many places, so that a good supply of fuel is amply provided for. The completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway has given an impetus to farming and cattle-raising that is rapidly settling the southern portion of the country, while the placing of powerful steamers on the Athabasca, the Pease and Mackenzie Rivers of the North is destined at an early day to open up to settlement the immense tracts of mineral and timber land that constitute almost all the "North Country." These steamers ply in waters two thousand miles north of the North Saskatchewan and far within the Arctic Circle.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in the Northwest and Yukon Territories is 77, including 7 daily, 1 semi-weekly, 68 weekly and 1 monthly. The places of publication number 55, of which 3, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Population..... 331,120

PROVINCIAL CAPITAL, FREDERICTON.

NEW BRUNSWICK is bounded north by Quebec, east by the Gulf of St. Lawrence, west and south by the Bay of Fundy, part of Nova Scotia, and Maine. It is 210 miles in length and 180 miles in breadth, and has a coast line of about 500 miles. Its area is 27,174 square miles. Surface generally very undulating, there being scarcely an elevation on the west coast exceeding 300 feet, while on the north there is a section of mountainous character, consisting of hills of considerable elevation, covered with dense forest, and surrounded by fertile valleys and table lands. Its forests are very extensive, and lumbering is one of the principal industries. The climate is very healthy and the soil fertile, with great agricultural capabilities. The principal cereals, root plants, and vegetables are raised, with apples and the small fruits. Ship building formerly extensively carried on, has fallen off of late years. The fisheries, viz: salmon-smelt, herring and lobster, are second in value only to those of Nova Scotia. Coal, antimony, copper, iron, manganese and other minerals are found in considerable quantities. Manufactures are chiefly sawed lumber and wooden wares, cotton and woolen goods, refined sugar, rope and cordage, canned goods, polished granite, boots and shoes, edge tools, furniture, paper, castings, machinery, locomotives, etc. Chief exports—lumber, fish, cotton goods, potatoes, butter and eggs, beef and mutton, gypsum, hay, etc.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in New Brunswick is 53, including 10 daily, 7 semi-weekly, 23 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 1 semi-monthly and 8 monthly. The places of publication number 18, of which 7, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Population 459,574

PROVINCIAL CAPITAL, HALIFAX.

NOVA SCOTIA consists of a very narrow peninsula, connected with New Brunswick by a narrow Isthmus about 16 miles wide, and of the Island of Cape Breton. It is bounded on the north by the Gulf of St. Lawrence, on the east and south by the Atlantic, on the west by the Bay of Fundy and New Brunswick. It is 300 miles long and from 80 to 100 wide, with an area of 20,307 square miles, or about 13,000,000 acres, of which 5,000,000 are fit for tillage. The Cobequid Range runs through the interior, the soil on both sides of it being very fertile; which is also the case in the beautiful valley of the Annapolis River. The soil is very rich and productive, and agricultural productions are extensive, wheat, rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, corn, vegetables, and fruit growing abundantly. Apples are exported in considerable quantities. The forests are extensive and valuable, and the yield of timber is large. The principal minerals are coal, iron and gold. Coal is in great abundance, and is freely worked. Iron is in large quantities and practically inexhaustible; it is of a fine quality and commands the highest price in the market. Manganese, gypsum, and roofing slate abound. Manufactures are numerous, and include coarse cloth, flannels, blankets, carpets, boots and shoes, saddlery, furniture and farm implements. Ship-building is important. The fisheries are reckoned among the richest in the world. The capital city, Halifax, is situated on the west side of the harbor of that name, and contains about 40,000 inhabitants. The harbor is one of the finest in existence, over half a mile in width at its narrowest part, and extensive enough to contain all the navies of the world. Halifax is the winter port for the direct mail steamers, and has direct communication with Liverpool, Boston, Baltimore, Quebec and the West Indies. As a summer resort it is yearly becoming better known; its suburbs furnish the pleasantest of drives and superior bathing facilities, and its public gardens have been pronounced by all who have visited them the most beautiful on this side of the Atlantic.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Nova Scotia is 81, including 11 daily, 2 tri-weekly, 5 semi-weekly, 51 weekly, 1 fortnightly, 2 semi-monthly and 6 monthly. The places of publication number 39, of which 16, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

ONTARIO.

Population..... 2,182,947

PROVINCIAL CAPITAL, TORONTO.

ONTARIO is bounded on the east by Quebec, and the Labrador peninsula, north and north west by Hudson's Bay and the Northwest Territories, southwest and south by the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River, west by Manitoba, and has an area of 181,800 square miles, exclusive of its water surface. It is the most populous and wealthy Province of the Dominion of Canada, and contains a number of large cities with populations of from 30,000 to 50,000, including Ottawa, population 45,000, is the seat of Government and capital of the Dominion. Surface is mostly undulating, traversed by the Laurentian Hills and Blue Mountains, but except in the neighborhood of Lake Superior and Georgian Bay these nowhere exceed a few hundred feet in height. The agricultural resources are very great. Three-fourths of the present area of habitation is fertile, while an immense region beyond is capable of cultivation; very large crops of cereals are raised. The apple orchards of the southwest are very productive, and small fruits and vegetables are prolific. Stock raising and dairy farming succeed remarkably well, cattle, butter and cheese being exported in large quantities. Timber is largely produced and exported, including pine, oak, maple, walnut, hickory, etc. There are very extensive saw mills at Ottawa. The mineral treasures are exceedingly rich and varied; iron, copper, lead and silver are very abundant. Some gold has been found between Georgian Bay and the Ottawa River; petroleum, salt, rock salt and peat beds also exist, the annual yield of petroleum being nearly 16,000,000 gallons. Mica is extensively worked. Marble, said to be equal to that of Carrara, is quarried. Galena, plumbago, and various other minerals exist. Manufactures are rapidly increasing in number and importance, among the principal being agricultural implements of all kinds, wagons, carriages, railroad stock, including locomotives, cotton and woolen factories, tanneries, furniture, paper, soap, wooden ware factories, etc. The railway enterprise is very great, and in addition to the great trunk lines, the Grand Trunk Railway and Canadian Pacific, every important section has competing lines stretching out to it.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Ontario is 606, including 51 daily, 12 semi-weekly, 438 weekly, 2 fortnightly, 12 semi-monthly, 85 monthly, 5 quarterly and 1 three times a year. The places of publication number 273, of which 43, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

Population.....216,615

CAPITAL, ST. JOHN'S.

NEWFOUNDLAND is in the Atlantic Ocean, at the mouth of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, bounded north and northeast by Labrador (Belle Isle Straits intervening); Cape Breton is off its southwest point; east by the Atlantic Ocean, and west by the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Its extreme length is 350 miles; average breadth 130 miles, and area 40,200 square miles. Surface generally rugged, with numerous lakes and rivers; not much timber, except along the streams and on the western side of the island. Soil is fertile near many of the lakes and rivers, and in many places farming is profitable. Wheat grows well; also potatoes and green crops generally; apples and small fruits are profitable. The timber lands are unsettled, and lumbering is not carried on. Copper and lead are mined; the other minerals comprise iron, silver, manganese, nickle, plumbago, marble, limestone, coal, etc. The fisheries, both on the Grand Bank and inshore, are very extensive and valuable. The seal fishery employs many vessels and steamers. The Newfoundland cod fishery is the most extensive of the kind in the world. The aggregate annual catch of cod in North American waters is estimated at about 150,000,000 fish, worth about $15,000,000. Principal exports are fish and fish-oils, seal-oil and skins, and amount to more than $5,000,000 annually. Manufactures are very limited, and are confined to St. John's. The coast of Labrador, on the mainland, is now included in the colony; it comprises about 120,000 square miles, but has only 4,211 inhabitants.

The number of newspapers and periodicals published in Newfoundland is 17, including 3 daily, 9 weekly and 5 monthly. The places of publication number 6, of which 3, designated by a dagger (†), are county seats.

CUBA AND WEST INDIES.

CUBA.

Population 1,572,797.

CAPITAL, HAVANA.

CUBA, the largest of the West India Islands, is situated about 100 miles south of Florida from which it is separated by the Florida Straits. It is 650 miles in length from east to west; greatest breadth at Cape Cruz, 110 miles; average width from 50 to 60 miles, except at its western extremity where it is about 30 miles. Total area about 12,000 square miles. A mountain range intersects it longitudinally. The climate is hot and dry, and healthy only in the interior. Snow is never known to fall, but frost occurs occasionally on the highest points. The rainy season is mainly confined to July, August and September. The mountains are rich in minerals and there are abundant forests of mahogany, ebony, cedar and other valuable woods. The vegetation is exceedingly luxuriant; the principal cereal is Indian corn, of which two crops are obtained in a year. Rice is also produced in large quantities, but the principal crops are sugar, coffee and tobacco, and of these the first is by far the most important.

MONTHLY AND WEEKLY PUBLICATIONS OF GENERAL CIRCULATION.

SPECIAL NOTE.

In dividing publications of general circulation into classes or groups, it is not possible to meet the ideas of every publisher or every advertiser.

It must be borne in mind that some publications have more than one subject to which they devote special attention. Because of this there is apt to be some difference of opinion concerning the best classification of the publications that appear in the Magazine, the Women's, or the Mail Order list.

If the publication sought has general circulation, as distinguished from special or class circulation, it can as a rule be found in one of the three lists in this group, if it is not in the one first consulted.

MAGAZINES, WOMEN'S PUBLICATIONS, AND MAIL ORDER JOURNALS.

See Special Note on Page 1037.

MAGAZINES,

INCLUDING LITERARY, ILLUSTRATED AND HUMOROUS WEEKLIES OF GENERAL CIRCULATION. ISSUES ARE MONTHLY EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE NOTED.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Not all newspaper publishers believe in advertising as a means of helping their own business. Some do, however, as the following pages attest.

We bespeak from those who use this book, special consideration for the publishers who have shown their enterprise and their faith in advertising by paying for space in which to set forth the special claims of their publications to the patronage of discriminating advertisers.

The Index opposite will tell who and where they are.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "A. M. Johnson". The signature is written in black ink and features a large, sweeping flourish that extends to the right and loops back under the name.

ALL THE NEWS WHILE IT IS NEWS

The Cincinnati Enquirer

Supreme In Its Field

The vastness of the news service of The Enquirer puts it easily in first place. Its columns contain all the news—local, telegraphic and cable—that can be obtained only by its unequalled news-gathering facilities.

The Enquirer, Daily and Sunday, is sold for five cents a copy. It is one of the few newspapers in the country that has maintained the price and increased its circulation at the same time.

“The higher the price at which a publication is sold, the more that publication is worth per thousand to the advertiser. The higher the price, the more closely will the actual sale approximate the number issued.”—Printers' Ink.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

The Enquirer is not excelled. It covers its local territory thoroughly by carrier system and newsboys on the streets, and spares no expense to reach its out-of-town subscribers at the earliest possible moment.

It is one of the most influential and widely read newspapers in the world. It reaches the remotest corners of the globe, and is read by people who appreciate good service.

It is one of the very limited number of newspapers accorded a rating of the double “Bull’s Eye,” or “pure gold” mark in the American Newspaper Directory.

It carries more want ads than any paper in the Central States.

The Largest Proven Circulation in New Orleans

Louisiana—New Orleans States

"NEW ORLEANS—While this city has seven excellent daily newspapers, but three are given a definite circulation by the 1904 American Newspaper Directory for the year 1903. The three ratings show The States to have had the greatest real average for the year, with 18,373 copies. The daily and Sunday issues of The States stand upon their real merit, 18,373 for the daily and 21,595 for Sunday. Were the Sunday issues added to the daily, The States would have had an average for 1903 of about 19,832 copies.

"THE STATES is the only New Orleans newspaper given a continuous rating since 1896. In that year it had 12,496, showing that The States' growth has been of a conservative, business like quality, the kind which gets permanent, clean business for local and general advertisers. The States employs no questionable methods in getting or holding circulation; it is a metropolitan newspaper in all the words imply, produced by legitimate effort for a respectable, appreciative, money-spending clientele. The States should prove the logical and most productive advertising medium in Louisiana, and we say this with due respect to its several admirable contemporaries."

The WOMAN'S MAGAZINE St. Louis

Did you see this Building when at the World's Fair?

It is the home of The Woman's Magazine. Admittedly the finest publishing plant in the United States.

The WOMAN'S MAGAZINE St. Louis

The Woman's Magazine Basis

is an honest and fair basis—fair to the advertiser, fair to the advertising agent and fair to the publisher.

We Guarantee Advertisers over 1,500,000 copies each issue, and agree to prove that number—prove it to the advertiser's satisfaction or run your ad absolutely free.

We Guarantee Advertisers that every copy of this enormous proven circulation is printed on the same weight, grade and stock of clean, white machine finished paper. We do not print the advertisers' edition on good paper and the subscription edition on an inferior quality of paper.

We Guarantee Advertisers the proper combining of key with electrotypes, and their working up properly in our columns.

We Guarantee Advertisers that every advertiser using our columns pays for our space on basis of our published rate card. We have no "inside" rates—no trades nor tricks. (Our contract files are open at all times to all advertisers and advertising agents.)

We Guarantee Advertisers a circulation that circulates. Every copy goes out in a separate wrapper, reaching a different reader and possible customer for the advertiser. There is no News Stand "Shelf" circulation.

Every Copy Circulates

If we printed 1,500,000 copies and placed half of them on News Stands, we would say to the advertiser that we "print" 1,500,000 copies, but only circulate one-half of them.

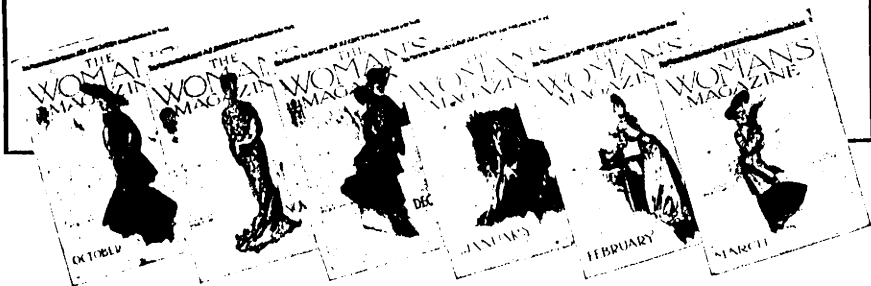

If interested, write us giving the name of some town or towns wherein you are well acquainted—know most of the inhabitants—and we will send you our subscription list of these towns so you can look them over and see the quality of homes The Woman's Magazine enters.

A magazine for women that has reached the largest paid subscription of any publication in the world is worthy of your consideration.

The question of proven circulation is of the utmost importance to advertisers. All advertisements sent THE WOMAN'S MAGAZINE are accepted with the distinct and unequivocal guarantee that its circulation exceeds 1,500,000 copies every edition and that we voluntarily prove it to the advertiser's satisfaction or run his advertisement absolutely free.

Every Subscriber to the Woman's Magazine is a reader of advertisements. We are confident of this because we obtained our circulation by direct advertising, using for this purpose many of the best mediums in the country. It follows that we can offer to the advertiser who wishes to reach women, a selected list of the women readers of many magazines and papers of general circulation.

Men Make the Money—Women Spend It

In that line is found the best reason why advertisers seeking to sell goods by mail should use THE WOMAN'S MAGAZINE. The secret of good advertising, like everything else, consists in making every stroke tell. There should be no wasted energy. If you are trying to sell something that women need, talk directly to them. The largest audience of women, and women only, will be found in going into one out of every ten homes in the United States. When we say it GOES INTO one out of every ten homes—we mean it. Every copy CIRCULATES. Not a copy is WASTED. Each copy goes out in a separate wrapper—INTO A HOME. There is no NEWS-STAND "SHELF" circulation with THE WOMAN'S MAGAZINE. One copy, going into one home, is worth more to the advertiser than a "ton of waste paper" going into the dump—or back to the mill to be re-ground into paper. Buying CIRCULATION by the agate line and getting waste paper by the TON is expensive business for the advertiser.

100% Circulation

THE WOMAN'S MAGAZINE of St. Louis guarantees advertisers a "circulation" of over 1,500,000 copies each issue—and when we use the word "circulation" we mean "circulation." If we "printed" 1,500,000 copies and placed 50% of them on news-stands we would say to the advertiser, "We 'print' 1,500,000 copies, but 'circulate' only half of them." The word "circulation" means to "circulate," and ours is circulation in the most literal sense of the word. Every copy goes out in a separate wrapper.

NO NEWS-STAND "SHELF" CIRCULATION.

This means that your advertisement in The Woman's Magazine enters 1,500,000 separate homes—one out of every ten homes in the United States.

More than 85% of this enormous proven "circulation" has been obtained by our own direct advertising in the leading magazines and periodicals of the country—proving them to be readers of advertising, and advertisement answerers—the very best quality of circulation FOR THE ADVERTISER that any publication can offer.

An Offer to Advertisers

If you can name a single post-office in the United States where there are fifty or more English-speaking families, wherein we have no paid-in-advance subscribers, we will present you with $100 in gold. This is a test for thoroughness of circulation that no other publication in the world can stand.

QUALITY.

Send us the name of any town or towns wherein you are personally well acquainted—know most of the inhabitants—and we will send you a copy of our subscription list for same. You can then see for yourself the quality of homes The Woman's Magazine enters.

Farmers Have Money This Year

The farmers of the United States have in two years produced wealth exceeding the output of all the gold mines of the entire world since Columbus discovered America. This year's (1904) farm product is over six times the amount of the capital stock of all national banks; it is three times the gross earnings from the operation of all the railways, and four times the value of all minerals produced in this country.

The above taken verbatim from annual report of Secretary of Agriculture, James Wilson, to President Roosevelt, Nov. 29, 1904.

To the Publishers of American and Canadian Newspapers:

Gentlemen:

In the printing of a newspaper there is nothing, as you know, so apt to give poor results as poor ink. If your paper looks gray, if your cuts fill up and the type faces are blurred, the first question that arises in the press room is "What is the matter with the ink?" Ink has shouldered more sins of commission and omission than any other medium which goes to make up a newspaper. The head of the press room will rarely admit that the press work is at fault. He is always ready to find fault with the ink or the paper, generally the ink. Good ink, good paper, good press work end in good result. Your press work may be the best in the world and your paper inferior to none, yet your printing, if your ink is not good, will ruin your result. To get good ink it is necessary to have the best of raw material and the greatest skill in combining them. We believe we have achieved this result.

Day in and day out our ink is surpassed by none and equalled by few. We buy the best carbon that can be obtained for newspaper ink and we have covered ourselves in a contract for a number of years with two of the largest gas carbon producers in the world. The linseed oil that we use as well as the rosin varnish is the best to be had and the dry colors which we manufacture have a tone and brilliancy which bear fruit in ink that retains these characteristics to a degree that has been commented upon time and time again.

We are not cheap ink makers. We make a high grade product at a medium price. We want your trade. The New York American, which is admitted to be the best printed paper in this country uses entirely the American Ink Company's products, as do also all the other Hearst newspapers.

We sell to other important papers and have turned out in 1904 more than three million pounds of ink. Notwithstanding this we have recently enlarged materially our plant, and would be glad to communicate with any publisher upon the ink question.

Yours very truly,

The Journal and Messenger The Leading Baptist Paper in the Central States.

There are over 4,000,000 Baptists in the United States. THE JOURNAL AND MESSENGER is one of the four leading Baptist papers in the Northern States. Its field lies west of the Allegheny Mountains. The central office is in Cincinnati. It has an enterprising business manager for West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania. It maintains a field agent in Indiana, who travels all the time among the churches soliciting subscribers. It has hundreds of solicitors in these states, and west to the Pacific.

THE JOURNAL AND MESSENGER receives the active support of its denomination, and reaches most of the well-to-do families with means to buy, and thus becomes the best advertising medium for the best articles—those that have merit. One advertising agency, and many advertisers report that they get better results in proportion to the cost and circulation than from any other religious paper. Size 32 pages, 9x13 inches. Subscription price, $2.00. The paper has been published continuously since 1831.

THERE is always one by which the rest are measured. In the magazine world, that one has always been and is to-day the CENTURY. Ask writers where their best productions are first offered; ask editors which magazine they would rather conduct; ask public men where articles carry most influence; ask artists where they would prefer to be represented; ask the public what magazine is the first choice among people of real influence, and the answer to each question is the same:

Established 1833.

Organ of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. Has a much larger circulation than any other religious paper published in Pittsburg.

Display Advertisements, 25 cents per line. Reading Notices, 50 cents per line.

THE PITTSBURG CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is the only religious paper through which advertisers can reach the large and influential Methodist Episcopal population of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, and the statistics show that in the field of its circulation there are 237,041 members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Methodist Episcopal press differs from that of most other denominations in that each paper has its own peculiar field of circulation, which is not reached to any appreciable extent by any other, and, as the field of THE ADVOCATE as defined above is one of the richest and most prosperous in our country, advertisers should always include it in their lists. Collier's

Covers the World

500,000 Copies per Week

¶ Collier's Weekly supplies its readers with the news, not of a city, nor of a section, nor of a nation even, but of the entire world.

¶ No event, situation, tendency that is interesting to civilized people can hide itself in so remote a corner that Collier's will not have a man on the spot to vividly describe it; an artist to picture the men and scenes concerned; and an expert photographer to complete and amplify the work of the pen and pencil correspondents.

¶ Fiction in Collier's is by the foremost writers, rivaling the best in the monthly magazines. Special articles are by the men who are themselves making events. Its artists are the greatest.

¶ In fine, the current history of the whole world is written and pictured in Collier's Weekly—so well written and so well pictured that the public pays over $2,500,000 a year for its receipt—more than is paid for any other weekly or any monthly in the world.

OVER TEN MILLION DOLLARS

More than $10,000,000 have been paid to the people of Indiana county, Pa., within the past three years for coal lands. It came like money from home to hosts of these people and they are now on Easy Street. They are spending it, too—perhaps with too lavish a hand; but it is being spent all the same. In this county of now over 50,000 people there is but one daily newspaper,

The Indiana Evening Gazette

It is still a youngster, but growing at a wonderful rate. Its parent, the is the paper, which by persistently calling the attention of capital to the county's wonderful undeveloped mineral riches, attracted the money this way. The people give the paper the credit for their prosperity and of course it is their idol.

INDIANA COUNTY GAZETTE (Weekly)

The "Big Five" Weeklies

PENNSYLVANIA GRIT (this year's average over 200,000 copies weekly) goes into more than 10,000 of the smaller cities and towns and villages of the country (no big cities). Prosperous people, wage earners, trades people—the 5c a copy, $2.00 a year kind. There is no other publication like it in existence. Has a home and family pull unequalled. A pronounced mail-order success.

UTICA SATURDAY GLOBE (Over 118,000 copies weekly.) Beautifully printed and carefully edited to the likes of its clientele throughout New York, Pennsylvania and the New England states, in whose homes its name is a household word. Every town in this prosperous section has its coterie of Globe readers and "they are the people." If you want to reach the right sort and get a good hearing, don't omit the Globe.

MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL-APPEAL Weekly, (80,000 copies per issue) covers the most prosperous section of the wonderfully developing Southwest like a blanket. Its people have both the inclination and the money to buy. The Commercial-Appeal leads the list on a number of well-known mail-order propositions, and the end is not yet. Ask anybody.

NATIONAL TRIBUNE (Every week over 100,000 copies.) A publication of absorbing interest in every home where pension matters and stories and reminiscences of the wars—Civil, Spanish and Philippine—receive attention. The National Tribune is pulling splendidly on mail-order lines. Many of the leaders are in it regularly. Look over a copy.

ELMIRA TELEGRAM (Over 50,000 copies weekly.) By its unique and comprehensive service the Telegram becomes practically THE local Sunday paper in the majority of the cities and towns in southern New York and northern and northeastern Pennsylvania. Separate and complete editions for each section. It is unapproached in this rich field. It opens a magnificent and prosperous section to general and mail-order advertisers.

Combined Circulation over 550,000 copies. Combined Rate only $1.65 per line

Not one of these papers wants a penny of an advertiser's money for which they cannot give good value. Let's talk it over. If we think your plan or your copy incompatible with the nature of their circulations, we'll speak out quickly.

St. Paul Volkszeitung

History and the United States census of population tells us that Minnesota is one of our most prosperous States and that it has a German citizenship of many thousands. In round numbers the State has over 355,000 Germans. The state capital, St. Paul, has a total population of 175,000. Of this number nearly 39,000 are Germans.

This fact makes the German daily newspaper of St. Paul an important factor in the getting of business through advertising. The St. Paul Volkszeitung is Minnesota's greatest German daily newspaper. The weekly edition is one of St. Paul's pioneer papers, having been established in 1857. The Daily Volkszeitung came to its readers early in 1877, and since its birth it has been an absolute factor in the affairs of St. Paul, Ramsey county and Minnesota.

The Volkszeitung is not only a daily newspaper, but it is a business bringing medium to its advertisers. NEWSPAPERDOM recently had occasion to go into the St. Paul field to learn just what sort of a business-getting proposition the Volkszeitung really is. What it learned should be of monetary interest to such advertisers, local or foreign, as have legitimate and salable goods to be disposed of through clean newspaper advertising. Here's what the Howard, Farwell & Co. concern (rated at $500,000) said in relation to the paper's adaptability as an advertising medium:

"Inasmuch as one-third of the population of St. Paul is German, the Volkszeitung represents an unusual medium for advertising purposes. We understand too, that the paper is recognized editorially as one of the best and strongest in the entire Northwest, and its circulation is among a most excellent class of people. We advertise in it regularly and feel that it is a necessity to our business."

It is easy enough for any publisher to tell of the virtues of his paper as a business proposition, but when advertisers tell a story of their experiences, for which they have paid good money, there is more reason to believe what is said by advertisers than what publishers may say. The big Eisenmenger Meat Company had this to say of the Volkszeitung:

"We have advertised in the Volkszeitung for years and find it to be a grand advertising medium. One that is religiously read by its subscribers. In our estimation, it is as good as any of our English papers, with the advantage of going direct to a money-spending German clientele."

The Plymouth Clothing Company made its reply short, but to the real point: "The Volkszeitung of our city is a good German paper and a first-class advertising medium for reaching a very desirable German trade, which is made up of our largest foreign element. It is all 'O. K.' and a hustler."

"The Taegliche Volkszeitung has a large circulation among the German-reading people in both cities, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and also in the country, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and the Dakotas. I consider it a first-class paper, in fact the only paper in this part of the country where advertising is intended to reach the German-speaking people."—HENRY BOCKSTRUCK.

The well-known W. E. Mathis Company, one of the largest house furnishing concerns in the Northwest, spoke of the Volkszeitung this way: "The Volkszeitung is one of the very best dailies in St. Paul. It has a large outside circulation. We use the Volkszeitung extensively and results have not been second to the English papers. Volkszeitung advertising space is profitable space in every sense of the word."

Another big firm which advertises on a large scale did not wish its name mentioned because of the fact that a certain relative was a stockholder in one of the English papers. Its name was sent as a guarantee of good faith, however. Said this firm: "We want to say first, that with one exception, the Volkszeitung is the best business proposition we use. Every penny we spend with it brings direct returns. We have advertised special lines and special sales in it from time to time for several years and it has never failed us. That is a great deal to say. But it is true. We spend our money for advertising so as to increase our business. We have been successful through judicious advertising in the St. Paul dailies. The Volkszeitung will continue our second best proposition so long as it does by us in the future what it has done by us in the past."

Those words were written in unvarnished English and must carry great weight with any advertiser who is out for a medium which returns value received for every dollar paid it for space.—From NEWSPAPERDOM, March 31, 1904.

Years, and Favorably Known to Millions of People.

The Hearthstone is a standard and valuable medium for mail order and general advertising, circulating largely in country villages and towns among prosperous and intelligent people who make many of their purchases by mail.

The Hearthstone carries at the present time the announcements of advertisers who have been represented in its columns from the very first issues and who know that, year in and year out, The Hearthstone is in the front rank as a profitable medium.

Advertisers have reported at times surprisingly large returns from The Hearthstone; one advertiser received fifty-thousand replies to his advertisements in a single year; another received more than four thousand cash orders from the single insertion of an advertisement measuring less than seventy-five lines.

The regular guaranteed circulation of The Hearthstone exceeds 500,000 copies monthly and the advertising rate of $1.90 per agate line is very reasonable. There is no waste and no duplication in our circulation; every copy counts.

The Hearthstone has been regularly and successfully published for fifteen years and is valued by its subscribers who stay with us year by year. Every copy being bright and interesting, is read thoroughly and frequently preserved or loaned to friends. The Hearthstone is edited with care and is better printed and on a better quality of paper than mail order publications generally.

We believe that The Hearthstone will pay you handsomely and that once having used it you will find it profitable to continue right along.

THE JOURNAL QUINCY, ILLINOIS.

THE JOURNAL does not pretend to be the only pebble on the beach, even in its own field. There are others. It has no exclusive control of any portion of the earth's surface. It has no clench on the advertisers of this country, or on any of them. It is the truth to say that it is a good country daily, and that it gives a good service in its fine field, which is the garden spot of the Mississippi Valley. Here we have fertile acres, big factories and stout banks.

THE JOURNAL wants all the decent advertising it can get at card rates, but not a line below card rates. See THE JOURNAL'S circulation statement elsewhere in this Annual. THAT'S ALL!

The Evening Journal Washington, Iowa.

This is a fact which local advertisers and many foreign advertisers have found out.

THE BOOKLOVERS MAGAZINE

A magazine that has entered and succeeded in a field of its own making must be valuable to discriminating advertisers. The Booklovers is not modeled after any other publication. It is simply built month by month for the people who like its policy and its make up. It is always abreast with the times and brim full of freshness in article, story and illustration. Its color pictures are already famous.

Advertisers have found it profitable because of its large circulation and its select clientele. It is not often that quantity and quality are so well combined. If you have an article of merit appealing to people of the better sort, The Booklovers Magazine will pay you.

THE COMMONER

a Developer of Steady Buyers

There is an immediate and appreciable difference felt by the investor in space between inquiries and sales. Of course it makes a difference what an advertisement offers, and the way an inquiry is followed up, whether sales result.

The class of people to which The Commoner appeals makes the difference. The very nature of its articles, the steady aim of its editorials and general purpose appeal peculiarly to live thinkers—owners of real estate, farmers, people who have resources represented by available cash. Consequently they are buyers by nature. They are influenced by The Commoner; they agree with its opinions and believe in its policy and naturally turn to its advertisements as the reliable source of information for necessities and luxuries. Now, when your advertisement is presented to over of such subscribers you are going to get buyers. You can't help it. We can send a bunch of letters from all parts of the country proving this fact. Ask for proofs of circulation at the same time.

Everything "Open and above board."

The Nebraska Farmer

The best known, most practical, and progressive agricultural and live stock journal in the west, with a wide-spread, and growing circulation among the best farmers in the great Trans-Mississippi region of which Omaha is the Commercial Metropolis. Large crops and good prices for the past five years give us prosperous farmers with plenty of money to supply their needs. You can best reach this trade through the NEBRASKA FARMER. Its publishers have recently published a "History of Nebraska for Fifty Years," since admitted as a territory, price, 50 cts., or free as a premium with a year's subscription. If interested, send for copy, and see that this paper is included on your list, when making up one.

NEBRASKA FARMER CO.,Omaha, Neb.

KANSAS for Prosperous Farmers. According to recent official statistics, every farmer in Kansas, for 1904, received an average income in excess of $2,000. No other portion of the United States can make as favorable a showing. Now is the time for advertisers to get busy and prosper likewise.

THE KANSAS FARMER FOR RESULTS

Never in the history of the KANSAS FARMER'S long and successful career have advertisers been so well pleased with the returns for money invested in it as during the year 1904. Since 1863 the "Old Reliable" KANSAS FARMER has been recognized as the standard Farm paper of the prosperous Southwest. Our original net flat rate system to reliable advertisers has greatly increased the volume of high-grade business during the past two years. The low rate of 11 cents per line makes our proposition the most attractive in the publicity field.

ADVERTISERS SAY SO—THEY KNOW!

THE WAECHTER UND ANZEIGER was established in 1852. It is the only German daily in Cleveland and Northern Ohio. It has more circulation than any other German paper east of Chicago or west of New York.

It circulates in a county having more than 600,000 population, and the city more than 400,000, more than 40 per cent. of this population being German. The Waechter und Anzeiger reaches them all. The readers are well-to-do people that like the news in their own language. The paper has no street sale, it is a family newspaper, clean in its news columns and honest in its politics. It is a paying medium for honest advertising. There is no other way to reach the German people of Northern Ohio. The Waechter und Anzeiger does the work and does it well at low rates.

These are "THE METHODISTS." They are clean. Only the advertising of good, representative businesses which the Methodist Church can allow to be presented to its members appears in the columns of "THE METHODISTS." This strict censorship will exclude any questionable advertising, and it will also protect that which is lawful and decent. They reach an intelligent home constituency that has time to read and think. One insertion of a book advertisement, costing $150, recently brought $1,488 cash returns. This speaks for itself. Advertising rates, three-eighths of cent a line per thousand circulation.

The Sunday School Journal 230,000 Monthly

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL JOURNAL is one of the most influential and widely circulated periodicals in all Methodism—a 100-page monthly magazine for the adult members of the home—the fathers and mothers and grown-up brothers and sisters who teach and labor in the Sabbath School. It provides them with a careful analysis of the Sunday School lesson for each of the four Sundays of the month, accompanied by interesting articles and suggestions on the training of children and the moral development of our boys and girls. Hence it comes close to the heart of the mother, and occupies an important place each month in the literature of 230,000 of our best homes (representing perhaps a million people), where it is read thoughtfully, studied carefully, each week for the four weeks of the month. Some of our advertisers say they get replies almost every day for five weeks. All "ads" must be quarter, half and full pages. It is generally conceded that "Current Literature" is without a rival in its own particular field. No magazine is more carefully read by an intelligent class of men and women. It circulates almost entirely by subscription, which means that each copy goes into a separate home twelve times a year and stays there. It is not thrown away, but is kept and is constantly referred to. This gives an advertiser the best possible value in proportion to cost.

"All Out of Everybody's"

The enormous demand for Everybody's Magazine during the last five months of 1904 cleaned out the news-stands almost on the days of publication.

Although the January (1905) issue was 700,000 copies the news-stands were sold out on day of publication—a circumstance without a parallel in the history of magazine making.

Everybody's Magazine now has the largest circulation ever attained by any general magazine.

Phenomenal as this growth has been, the aggressive plans of the publishers will send the circulation above with the March (1905) issue—means within a few months the largest circulation of any magazine in the world.

One Million Copies

The importance of the advertising columns of Everybody's Magazine is recognized by every large general advertiser in the United States. The absence of all liquor and patent medicine advertisements makes Everybody's a peculiarly valuable medium for reaching the home-life of the people.

The present rate of $100 per page per thousand with 150,000 copies without cost to the advertiser makes Everybody's the best proposition ever offered the advertiser.

For full information please write the publishers.

DO YOU KNOW

Joe Chapple

AND HIS

National Magazine?

DVERTISE in a magazine that is itself well advertised and you will get double advertising. Sail with the current and you'll get the benefit of its motion. Last year we advertised the pertinent question, "Do YOU Know Joe Chapple and his National Magazine?"

Immediately 44,000 new subscribers were added to our list.

During the six months of the St. Louis Exposition the National was printed in souvenir editions in the Liberal Arts Palace and hundreds of thousands carried home a handsome copy of the magazine. Over twenty thousand subscribed on the spot.

Now we are giving away to our readers "10,000 Silver Dollars for Heart Throbs," and are spending thousands of dollars in advertising the fact. This will mean more subscribers and more advertising value for our magazine. But while circulation is increasing rapidly, our advertising rates will hold at the old prices for only a short time longer. Prior to the advance you can make reservation for the entire season at these rates.

Over 200,000 circulation and but $150 per page! Think of it! And proportional rates for one-eighth page or more. Besides 5 per cent. discount is given for six consecutive insertions and 10 per cent. for twelve. Take time to think of it, but don't let forgetfulness intervene before you send along copy and order for the next issue.

Are the best papers for covering the Jewish field. Combined circulation is guaranteed at over 100,000 and is subject to investigation by any one without previous notice. If figures are not verified it forfeits contracts and refunds money already paid by advertisers. What better guarantee can it give? Besides, it holds a certificate from the Association of American Advertisers. JOSEPH JACOBS, editor of the Jewish Encyclopedia, says: "There are 700,000 Jews in Greater New York and suburbs."

THE WORLD TO=DAY

A MONTHLY RECORD OF HUMAN PROGRESS

NO advertiser, in making up his magazine list, can afford to overlook The World To-Day—the popular, illustrated Magazine of the Great Middle West. While circulating in the East, The World To-Day covers a field which is peculiarly its own—the Mississippi Valley and the Great Western States.

BROAD WESTERN CIRCULATION

among people of a high standard of intelligence and prosperity, makes The World To-Day a first-class medium for the general advertiser, while, as a mail-order proposition, results prove that it is unsurpassed.

The low rates, quoted below, are based upon conditions of a year ago, and must shortly be increased. At present they are far below actual value.

OKLAHOMA

The Land of NOW

OKLAHOMA has a larger area than Indiana, Maine or South Carolina, and a greater population than Colorado, Oregon, South Dakota or Maine. She is increasing in population and wealth faster in proportion than any state in the Union.

The population of Enid on June 1, 1900, was 3,444; it is now over 12,000. The scholastic population is 3,180, and the voting population 2,216. Railroads reach out in ten different directions.

Enid is east of the center of population of Oklahoma, but has no rival west of her, and none within fifty miles on the east. The centering of the many railroads at this point makes it absolutely certain that Enid will be for all time to come the chief city of this vast and fertile region.

The EAGLE is the big newspaper of this section. It reaches over five thousand homes in Garfield and Woods counties—happy, prosperous, intelligent, contented American homes, to most of which the EAGLE has been a welcome visitor for years.

When you advertise do it among people who can and do read and who have the money to buy and pay for what they want.

THE ENID EAGLE, Enid, Oklahoma.

The only 5ct. newspaper in New York

The Daily and Sunday Telegraph

It circulates among the wealthy—persons interested in theatricals, racing, automobiling and the higher branches of sport.

It has a clientele distinctly its own and is read and preserved by persons who have money to spend and who spend it.

It is particularly a profitable medium for advertisers whose goods, or business, appeal to men and women of wealth.

A Rural Circulation of over 2,000,000

THE quality and quantity of the circulation of the five Ellis Papers is unequalled by any similar number of publications. Our two million subscribers live in growing towns and villages, and on farms. They are a class of people who believe in the paper they read and buy the commodities advertised therein. No argument is needed to prove the wide and general publicity given to any article advertised in this list. Taking into consideration that these papers are read by more than one-eighth of the country's entire population, this fact is self-evident. Profitable returns from advertising is simply a matter of choosing the right mediums.

The Ellis Papers

pay advertisers handsomely because they are read by people who buy. These papers have a

Here's Why

Mr. Advertiser, THE DETROIT TIMES can help you "cover Detroit."

But maybe you are in some Detroit evening newspaper now. And you ask, "Why should I use another?"

The answer is that Detroit is no longer a one-paper town. Population 336,000.

Moreover, THE TIMES (now in its fifth year) has created a constituency that is quite its own.

It is the only paper in Detroit selling for one cent everywhere.

It has a new-found distinctive field, unreached by any other Detroit paper.

And no matter to how many people in Detroit you are now speaking, THE TIMES will carry your messages to over 30,000 more.

We can give you an actuary's certificate for it.

THE HERALD

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

THE HERALD is the only daily newspaper in Binghamton that prints a daily record of circulation and furnishes advertisers with sworn statements every six months. A business men's census of Binghamton and the suburbs shows THE HERALD to have a city circulation equalling the combined city circulation of the Republican and The Leader, and that THE HERALD has 3,100 exclusive subscribers. Send for circulation statements and rates.

Every educational pursuit develops the intellect and those who seek further knowledge gratefully recognize its source.

The House Beautiful magazine is a wonderful teacher presenting the best thought of the day upon the home, its maintenance and structural improvement.

The principal things of interest to women are found within its covers, and this is the reason why it has the strongest kind of an appeal to the very class an advertiser desires most to reach.

If you advertise anything pertaining to the needs and desires of a householder, you can best do it in a medium which suggests needs and cultivates desires.
