Congressman Mario Diaz-Balart Ridicules Democrats’ Baseless Election Challenge

Diaz-Balart: Should the Orange Bowl Result Be Overturned Too?

WASHINGTON—Congressman Mario Diaz-Balart (R-Fla.) today ridiculed the Democrats’ baseless challenge to Ohio’s election results.

“Perhaps Oklahoma should follow the Democrats’ lead and petition the NCAA to overturn the Orange Bowl result, too,” Diaz-Balart said. “President Bush won Ohio, period. Just because the Democrats don’t like the results does not mean the results aren’t correct.

“Democrats have wasted no time in continuing their obstructive ways. After being sworn into office just two days ago, Democrats are already questioning confirmation of the first Hispanic Attorney General and contesting results of an election the President won by more than 3.5 million votes. Democrats have no agenda for moving this nation forward. It’s too bad some of these Democrats can’t put their energies into more worthwhile matters like reforming Social Security and tax reform.”
