

§ 1439.406

but are not limited to: written contracts, production records, veterinarian receipts, bank loan papers, rendering truck receipts, Federal Emergency Management Agency and National Guard records, and any other documents available to confirm the presence of the livestock and the subsequent losses. Certification of third parties or the producer and other such documentation as the county committee determines to be necessary for the verification of the information provided by the applicant may be submitted, subject to review and approval of the county committee. Failure to provide documentation that is satisfactory to the county committee can result in disapproval of the application by the county committee.

(c) In all circumstances, livestock producers shall certify to the accuracy of the information provided. As provided by various statutes, providing a false certification to the government is punishable by imprisonment, fines and other penalties. All such remedies, as well as all civil remedies, may be applied. All information provided is subject to verification and spot check by the CCC.

§ 1439.406 Indemnity benefits.

(a) Payment under this part shall only be made to livestock producers who file a Certification of Livestock Losses for Eligible Disaster—Contract Growers, Form CCC-661B, for the specific livestock category for which relief is sought and file such form in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator. In addition, payment may be made only if:

(1) The livestock producer submits a proof of loss that meets the requirements of § 1439.405; and

(2) The county or State committee determines that because of an eligible disaster condition the livestock producer had a loss in the specific category in excess of the normal mortality rate established by CCC, based on the number of animals in the livestock category that were in the livestock producer's inventory at the time of the disaster event.

(b) If the number of losses in the animal category exceeds the normal mortality rate established by CCC for such category, the loss of eligible livestock that shall be used in making a payment shall be the number of animal losses in the category that exceed the normal mortality threshold established by CCC.

(c) Subject to the availability of funds, payments shall be made in an amount determined by multiplying: the national payment rate for the livestock category as determined by CCC by the amount specified in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 1439.407 Proration of claims.

In the event that the funds made available to satisfy claims shall be less than the demand for such funds, the Deputy Administrator may reduce all claims by a uniform percentage to account for the level of available funds, or may take such other measures as he deems appropriate to apportion the funds among the claimants. Such payment reductions as are made shall be applied after the imposition of applicable payment limitation provisions.

§ 1439.408 Miscellaneous provisions.

(a) Payments under this subpart are subject to provisions contained in subpart A of this part including, but not limited to provisions concerning misrepresentations, payment limitations, limitations on eligibility tied to the person's gross income, and refunds to CCC, liens, assignment of payments, and appeals, and maintenance of books and records. In addition other parts of this chapter and of chapter VII of this title relating to payments in event of death, the handling of claims, and other matters may apply, as may other provisions of law and regulation.

(b) Any payments not earned that have been paid must be returned with interest subject to such other remedies as may be allowed by law.

(c) No interest will be paid or accrue on benefits under this subpart that are delayed or otherwise not timely issued unless otherwise mandated by law.

(d) Nothing in this subpart shall require a commitment of funds to this subpart in excess of that determined to be appropriate by the Deputy Administrator and/or CCC.
