

(2) Requires reinspection, cleaning, or treatment of the fruit or vegetable at that port or at a place other than the port of first arrival, or is prohibited and must be exported from the United States.

(e) Notice to owner of actions ordered by inspector. If an inspector orders any disinfection, cleaning, treatment, re-exportation, or other action with regard to imported fruits or vegetables, the inspector shall file an emergency action notification (PPQ Form 523) with the owner of the fruits or vegetables or an agent of the owner. The owner must, within the time specified in the PPQ Form 523, destroy the fruits and vegetables, ship them to a point outside the United States, move them to an authorized site, and/or apply treatments or other safeguards to the fruits and vegetables as prescribed by an inspector to prevent the introduction of plant pests into the United States.

(f) Costs and charges. The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS), U.S. Department of Agriculture will be responsible only for the costs of providing the services of an inspector during regularly assigned hours of duty and at the usual places of duty.¹ The owner of imported fruits or vegetables is responsible for all additional costs of inspection, treatment, movement, storage, or destruction ordered by an inspector under this subpart, including any labor, chemicals, packing materials, or other supplies required. APHIS will not be responsible for any costs or charges, other than those identified in this section.

AUTHORITY: Secs. 105, 107, 71 Stat. 32 and 34, as amended; 37 Stat. 854; secs. 7 and 9, 37 Stat. 317 and 318, as amended; sec. 10, 45 Stat. 468 (7 U.S.C. 150dd, 150ff, 155, 160, 162, and 164a); 37 FR 28464, 28477, as amended; 45 FR 8564, 8565.

§ 319.59 Prohibitions on importation; disposal of articles refused importation.

(a) Pursuant to section 7 of the Plant Quarantine Act (7 U.S.C. 160) the Secretary has determined that, in order to prevent the introduction into the United States from any foreign country or locality of foreign strains of flag smut or Karnal bunt, it is necessary, except as provided in § 319.59–2(c) of this subpart, to prohibit the importation into the United States of certain articles from certain foreign countries and localities. Accordingly, no person shall import or offer for entry into the United States any article designated in § 319.59–2 (a) and (b) of this subpart as a prohibited article, except as otherwise provided in § 319.59–2(c) of this subpart.

(b) Any article refused importation in accordance with the requirements of this subpart shall be promptly removed from the United States or destroyed as deemed necessary by an inspector at the expense of the importer, and pending such action shall be subject to the immediate application of such safeguards against escape of injurious plant diseases (including foreign strains of flag smut) and Karnal bunt, injurious insect pests and other plant pests as an inspector determines necessary to prevent the introduction into the United States of such diseases or pests. If such article is not promptly safeguarded, removed from the United
