§716.8

- (i) Send a single opt out notice to John's address, but you must accept an opt out direction from either John or Mary.
- (ii) Treat an opt out direction by either John or Mary as applying to the entire account. If you do so, and John opts out, you may not require Mary to opt out as well before implementing John's opt out direction.
- (iii) Permit John and Mary to make different opt out directions. If you do so, and if John and Mary both opt out, you must permit one or both of them to notify you in a single response (such as on a form or through a telephone call).
- (6) Special rule for loans. (i) You are required to provide an initial opt out notice to a borrower or guarantor on a loan if you share his or her nonpublic personal information with non-affiliated third parties other than for purposes under §§716.13, 716.14 and 716.15.
- (ii) You may satisfy your annual opt out notice requirement by providing one notice to those borrowers and guarantors jointly.
- (e) Time to comply with opt out. You must comply with the consumer's opt out direction as soon as reasonably practicable after you receive it.
- (f) Continuing right to opt out. A consumer may exercise the right to opt out at any time.
- (g) Duration of consumer's opt out direction. (1) A consumer's direction to opt out under this section is effective until the consumer revokes it in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.
- (2) When a member relationship terminates, the member's opt out direction continues to apply to the nonpublic personal information that you collected during or related to the relationship. If the individual subsequently establishes a new member relationship with you, the opt out direction that applied to the former relationship does not apply to the new relationship.
- (h) Delivery. When you are required to deliver an opt out notice by this section, you must deliver it according to the methods in §716.9.

§716.8 Revised privacy notices.

- (a) General rule. Except as otherwise authorized in this part, you must not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal information about a consumer to a non-affiliated third party other than as described in the initial notice that you provided to that consumer under §716.4, unless:
- (1) You have provided to the consumer a revised notice that accurately describes your policies and practices;
- (2) You have provided to the consumer a new opt out notice;
- (3) You have given the consumer a reasonable opportunity, before you disclose the information to the non-affiliated third party, to opt out of the disclosure: and
 - (4) The consumer does not opt out.
- (b) Examples. (1) Except as otherwise permitted by §§716.13, 716.14 and 716.15, you must provide a revised notice if you—
- (i) Disclose a new category of nonpublic personal information to any nonaffiliated third party;
- (ii) Disclose nonpublic personal information to a new category of non-affiliated third party; or
- (iii) Disclose nonpublic personal information about a former member to a nonaffiliated third party, and that former member has not had the opportunity to exercise an opt out right regarding that disclosure.
- (2) A revised notice is not required if you disclose nonpublic personal information to a new nonaffiliated third party that you adequately described in your prior notice.
- (c) Delivery. When you are required to deliver a revised privacy notice by this section, you must deliver it according to the methods in §716.9.

§ 716.9 Delivering privacy and opt out notices.

(a) How to provide notices. You must provide any privacy notices and opt out notices, including short-form initial notices, that this part requires so that each consumer can reasonably be expected to receive actual notice in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.

- (b) (1) Examples of reasonable expectation of actual notice. You may reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice if you:
- (i) Hand-deliver a printed copy of the notice to the consumer;
- (ii) Mail a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the consumer;
- (iii) For the consumer who conducts transactions electronically, post the notice on the electronic site and require the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining a particular financial product or service;
- (iv) For an isolated transaction with the consumer, such as an ATM transaction, post the notice on the ATM screen and require the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining the particular financial product or service.
- (2) Examples of unreasonable expectations of actual notice. You may not, however, reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice if you:
- (i) Only post a sign in your branch or office or generally publish advertisements of your privacy policies and practices;
- (ii) Send the notice via electronic mail to a consumer who does not obtain a financial product or service from you electronically.
- (c) Annual notices only. You may reasonably expect that a member will receive actual notice of your annual privacy notice if:
- (1) The member uses your web site to access financial products and services electronically and agrees to receive notices at your web site and you post your current privacy notice continuously in a clear and conspicuous manner on your web site; or
- (2) The member has requested that you refrain from sending any information regarding the member relationship, and your current privacy notice remains available to the member upon request.
- (d) Oral description of notice insufficient. You may not provide any notice required by this part solely by orally explaining the notice, either in person or over the telephone.
- (e) Retention or accessibility of notices for members. (1) For members only, you

- must provide the initial notice required by §716.4 (a)(1), the annual notice required by §716.5(a) and the revised notice required by §716.8 so that the member can retain them or obtain them later in writing or, if the member agrees, electronically.
- (2) Examples of retention or accessibility. You provide the privacy notice to the member so that the member can retain it or obtain it later if you:
- (i) Hand-deliver a printed copy of the notice to the member;
- (ii) Mail a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the member upon request of the member; or
- (iii) Make your current privacy notice available on a web site (or a link to another web site) for the member who obtains a financial product or service electronically and agrees to receive the notice at the web site.

Subpart B—Limits on Disclosures

- §716.10 Limits on disclosure of nonpublic personal information to nonaffiliated third parties.
- (a) (1) Conditions for disclosure. Except as otherwise authorized in this part, you may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal information about a consumer to a nonaffiliated third party unless:
- (i) You have provided to the consumer an initial notice as required under §716.4;
- (ii) You have provided to the consumer an opt out notice as required in §716.7;
- (iii) You have given the consumer a reasonable opportunity, before you disclose the information to the non-affiliated third party, to opt out of the disclosure; and
 - (iv) The consumer does not opt out.
- (2) Opt out definition. Opt out means a direction by the consumer that you not disclose nonpublic personal information about that consumer to a non-affiliated third party, other than as permitted by §§ 716.13, 716.14 and 716.15.
- (3) Examples of reasonable opportunity to opt out. You provide a consumer with a reasonable opportunity to opt out if:
- (i) By mail. You mail the notices required in paragraph (a)(1) of this section to the consumer and allow the consumer to opt out by mailing a form,
