

THE FIFTH ANNUAL GILBERT W. BEEBE SYMPOSIUM

Honorary Chair: Seymour Jablon

Tuesday, November 28, 2006
Keck Center of The National Academies
Room 100
500 5th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20001

GILBERT W. BEEBE 1912-2003

Presented by The National Academies and the Nuclear and Radiation Studies Board

PRE- AND POST-CONCEPTION RADIATION EXPOSURE: SENSITIVITY OF GAMETES, FETUSES, AND CHILDREN

“Introductory Comments”

James Adelstein

Harvard Medical School

“Overview of Pediatric Radiation Epidemiology”

John Boice, Jr.

International Epidemiology Institute &
Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center,
Vanderbilt University

“What We Can Learn About Risks of Exposure to Gametes, Fetuses, and Children from the ABCC/RERF Studies”

Roy Shore

Radiation Effects Research Foundation

“A Tribute to the Contributions of a Pediatrician, Robert W. Miller”

Joseph Fraumeni, Jr.

Cancer Epidemiology & Genetics, NCI

“Thyroid Cancer in Radiation-Exposed Children”

Elaine Ron

Radiation Epidemiology Branch, Division of
Cancer Epidemiology & Genetics, NCI

“Long-term Effects of Radiotherapy for Childhood Cancer”

Ann Mertens

Childhood Cancer Survivor Study,
University of Minnesota

“Current Concepts in Radiation Genetics”

Ranjit Chakraborty

Center for Genome Information, University of Cincinnati Medical Center