

Driving Directions

Visitor parking is extremely limited on the NIH Campus. We strongly encourage you to take Metro to the Town Hall meeting. For Metrorail and Metrobus information, visit www.wmata.com.

If you do decide to drive, directions from the major local airports and from Maryland and Virginia may be found at <http://www.nih.gov/about/directions.htm>. If you do not have an NIH photo ID badge or an NIH parking permit, you should enter the campus at the Rockville Pike and South Drive entrance. Please allow adequate time to pass through security checkpoints. The Natcher Conference Center is located at 45 Center Drive and is across from the National Library of Medicine. For an NIH map showing location of parking lots, visit http://dtts.ors.od.nih.gov/parking_info.htm.

An alternative to parking at NIH is driving to Bethesda and parking in a public lot. From Bethesda, you can either take the Metro at the Bethesda station (located at East West Highway and Wisconsin Avenue) to the Medical Center station. You may also drive to and park at other Metro stops on the Red Line that have public parking and take the Metro to the Medical Center station.