ALEXANDER ANNOUNCES CENLA INTERN

KAYLA TUMA TO INTERN IN ALEXANDRIA DISTRICT OFFICE

Washington, D.C. --U.S. Rep. Rodney Alexander, R-Quitman, is proud to announce that Kayla Tuma, a junior psychology major at Louisiana State University at Alexandria, will serve as an intern at the Alexandria District Office.

Kayla Tuma, the daughter of Dexter and Cherie Tuma, will handle several duties including: constituent services, mail services, assisting with case work and congressional research.

"My goal for this internship is to gain experience in a professional setting and further enhance my skills," Kayla Tuma said.

Alexander added, "This is a remarkable opportunity for Kayla and I'm sure that this internship will enrich her life. Kayla will garner first hand experience of governmental process and procedures."
