MEDIA ADVISORY

Alexander to honor West Point nominee

All members of the media are invited to attend

WASHINGTON, D.C.--U.S. Rep. Rodney Alexander, R-Quitman, would like to announce that he has nominated Brian Clayton, an Alexandria resident, to an appointment at West Point Academy.

Clayton, the son of Donald and Kathryn Clayton, is a 2005 graduate of Alexandria Senior High.

He attended Louisiana Tech University this academic year.

"I'm proud to nominate Clayton and I know that he has a bright future," Alexander said.
"West Point will provide Clayton with opportunities that could change his life forever."

Alexander will hold an awards ceremony for Clayton and his family at 11 a.m., Monday, at his Alexandria District Office, located at 1412 Centre Court, Suite 402.

All members of the media are encouraged to attend.

For more information on this event, contact Tommie Seaton at 318-445-0818.
