

Mount Sinai School of Medicine

---

MINI-MED SCHOOL

Program

April 18

"Sweet Dreams"

A presentation on anesthesia with a teaching demonstration on "Hal," the human simulator.

Adam I. Levine, MD

Assistant Professor, Department of Anesthesiology

Jeffrey H. Silverstein, MD

Assistant Professor, Department of Anesthesiology

April 20

"Tell Me Where It Hurts"

A presentation on teaching physical diagnosis, including using a standardized patient.

Mark H. Swartz, MD

The Marietta and Charles C. Morchand Professor of Medical Education

Erica Friedman Asch, MD

Associate Professor of Internal Medicine, Samuel Bronfman Department of Medicine

April 27

"Looking Inside the Body"

A presentation on imaging and its role in diagnosis.

Burton P. Drayer, MD

The Dr. Charles and Marilyn Newman Professor of Radiology

Susan R. Drossman, MD

Assistant Professor, Department of Radiology

May 4

"Taming Renegade Cells"

A presentation on cancer biology.

Janice L. Gabrilove, MD

The James F. Holland Professor of Medical Oncology

Stuart A. Aaronson, MD

The Jane B. and Jack R. Aron Professor of Neoplastic Diseases, and Director of The Derald H. Rittenberg Cancer Center

May 11

"Spare Parts"

A presentation on transplant immunology, immunosuppression, and xenotransplantation.

Charles M. Miller, MD

The Alfred and Florence Gross Professor of Surgery and Director, The Recanati-Miller Transplantation Institute

Jonathan Bromberg, MD

Professor of Surgery, University of Michigan

May 18

"Thought You Could Decide"

A presentation on medical ethics.

Diane E. Meier, MD

The Catherine Gaisman Professor of Medical Ethics, Henry L. Schwartz Department of Geriatrics and Adult Development

Ian R. Holzman, MD

Professor, Jack and Lucy Clark Department of Pediatrics

Welcome to the Mount Sinai School of Medicine Mini-Med School.

We're glad you could join us for tonight's presentations on some of today's most important and most interesting topics.

Like all five presentations, tonight's lectures are designed to give you a better understanding of important scientific discoveries and the way they affect your own health and your own future.

We hope you'll enjoy our Mini-Med School program. After all, where else can you find a med school with no exams and no lab requirements?

*All programs are from 6:30-8:00 P.M.,
here in the Stern Auditorium.
(Enter on Madison Avenue at 100th Street.)
Space is limited, so call (212) 774-9088 to RSVP.*

*Special thanks to Mary E. Klotman, MD,
Dean of the Mini-Med School.*

About Tonight's Presenters

Adam I. Levine, M.D.

Dr. Adam I. Levine graduated summa cum laude from Clark University in Worcester, Massachusetts, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He attended Mount Sinai School of Medicine, and he stayed at Mount Sinai to complete an internship in medicine and a residency in the Department of Anesthesiology, where he was appointed Chief Resident. He is now Clinical Assistant Professor of Anesthesiology at Mount Sinai, and he also is Director of Residency Training and Director of Human Simulation in Anesthesiology.

Among his honors, he was named Teacher of the Year in 1994-95, and again in 1996-97. Dr. Levine is a Diplomat of the American Board of Anesthesiology.

Dr. Levine has given his signature lecture, "Simulation from Aviation to Anesthesia," at local area hospitals, including Beth Israel Medical Center, and as an invited professor at the Baylor University Department of Anesthesiology in Houston. He also presented the lecture in 1997 at a conference in Acapulco.

(over)

Jeffrey H. Silverstein, M.D.

Dr. Jeffrey Silverstein is Director of the Division of Geriatric Anesthesia in the Department of Anesthesiology at Mount Sinai. On staff at Mount Sinai since 1991, he holds joint appointments in the Departments of Geriatrics and Adult Development and Anesthesiology and Surgery.

A native of Canada, Dr. Silverstein earned his M.D. at the University of Extremadura, in Badajoz, Spain. Following residencies in internal medicine and general surgery at Interfaith Medical Center in Brooklyn, and in surgery and anesthesiology at Brookdale Hospital Medical Center, also in Brooklyn, he completed a fellowship in anesthesia/critical care medicine at The Mount Sinai Hospital. He was named Fellow of the Year in the Surgical Intensive Care Unit in 1991, and received the Resident Research Award from the Department of Anesthesiology that same year. In 1993 he received the Anesthesiology Department's Attending Research Award.

Dr. Silverstein has served as founding president of the resident section of the New York State Society of Anesthesiologists. Among his many professional activities, he was a delegate to the New York Governor's Conference on Aging and an alternate delegate to the White House Conference on Aging, and he is a member of the American College of Physician Executives. An internationally recognized expert on the care of elderly patients needing surgery and on geriatric trauma patients, Dr. Silverstein has lectured extensively on those and other topics throughout the country and abroad.

MINI-MED SCHOOL

---

Questions?

Our lecturers will be pleased to answer questions after their presentations. To make the Question and Answer portion of our program proceed most efficiently, please write your questions on this card. Our ushers will collect the questions and give them to the lecturers.

Thank you

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

