“Sec. 310. Identification of trade expansion priorities.”.

6 SEC. 102. OFFICE OF THE CONGRESSIONAL TRADE EN-

25 made by the majority leader of the Senate, in con-

4 after considering recommendations received from the 5 Committee on Finance of the Senate and the Com-
6 mittee on Ways and Means of the House of Rep-
7 resentatives. The Congressional Trade Enforcer
8 shall be appointed without regard to political affili-

10 the functions described in subsection (d).

11 (2) CONTINUED SERVICE.—An individual may 12 serve as the Congressional Trade Enforcer for more 13 than one term, and the person making the appoint-
14 ment under paragraph (1) should look favorably
15 upon reappointing the individual serving as the Con-

14 to them authority to perform any of the duties, powers, 15 and functions imposed on the Office. For purposes of pay
16 (other than the pay of the Congressional Trade Enforcer) 17 and employment benefits, rights, and privileges, all per-

23 indictment unless—

24 (i) before the date of filing; the for-25 eign country or countries involved enter

1 into an agreement with the United States
2 to eliminate the practice that is incon-3 sistent with its international obligations; or

8 thorized to provide to the Office such services, facilities, 9 and personnel.

16 sibilities assigned to each, the Congressional Trade En-
17 forcer is authorized to obtain information, data, estimates,
18 and statistics developed by the Government Accountability

15                  that would constitute a disguised restric-
16                  tion on international trade;

17                  “(iii) is not based on an assessment of 18                  the risks to human, animal, or plant life or 19                  health, or does not take into account risk 20                  assessment techniques developed by any 21                  relevant international organizations; or

22                  “(iv) is not transparent, such as a

22 (1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of 23 the House of Representatives and the Senate, re-
24 spectively, and as such subsections (c) through (h)
25 are deemed a part of the rules of each House, re-

1 spectively, but applicable only with respect to the 2 procedure to be followed in that House in the case 3 of joint resolutions described in subsection (c), and 4 subsections (c) through (h) supersede other rules
5 only to the extent that they are inconsistent there-6 with; and

7 (2) with full recognition of the constitutional 8 right of either House to change the rules (so far as 9 relating to the procedure of that House) at any time, 10 in the same manner and to the same extent as in 11 the case of any other rule of that House.

12 SEC. 204. WTO APPELLATE BODY RULINGS REQUIRING OFF-
13 SETS FOR NON-DUMPED COMPARISONS.

14 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

15 (1) The Contracting Parties of the General
16 Agreements on Tariffs and Trade agreed in 1947,
17 and the Members of the World Trade Organization 18 (WTO) reaffirmed in 1994, that dumping, by which 19 products of one country are introduced into the com-20 merce of another country at less than fair value, “is 21 to be condemned” if it causes or threatens material 22 injury to, or materially retards the establishment of, 23 a domestic industry.

24 (2) Since the adoption of the first United 25 States antidumping law in 1921, the United States

1 has treated groups of sales that are above “fair
2 value” as not dumped (i.e., having a dumping mar-3 gin of zero). Virtually every other government that 4 applies antidumping measures has used a similar 5 practice of “zeroing” sales above fair value.

6 (3) In a series of recent dispute settlement pro-
7 ceedings, the WTO Appellate Body has repeatedly 8 overturned the rulings of several panels of anti-9 dumping experts that have found that the long-10 standing practice of zeroing is not inconsistent with 11 the WTO agreements. The WTO Appellate Body has 12 found that the United States is required to recognize 13 “negative dumping” (the amount by which certain 14 groups of sales may exceed “fair value”) and thereby 15 imposed a new mandate that the United States must 16 offset dumped sales.

17 (4) The United States has described these deci-18 sions of the WTO Appellate Body as “devoid of legal 19 merit,” “fatally flawed,” and “very troubling.”

20 (5) Despite these criticisms, the U.S. Depart-
21 ment of Commerce implemented the recommenda-
22 tions of the WTO Appellate Body by creating man-23 datory offsets for dumping with respect to certain 24 comparisons made in antidumping investigations, ef-
25 fective February 22, 2007. The Department of Com-

1 merce did not make any other modifications to its 2 methodologies to ensure that dumping is addressed 3 fully and in all instances under United States anti-4 dumping law.

5 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-6 gress that—

7 (1) in negotiations and dispute settlement pro-8 ceedings at the WTO, the United States should—

9 (A) restore the balance between rights and 10 obligations that was struck during the Uruguay 11 Round of Multilateral Trade Negotiations, as 12 reflected in the Agreement on Implementation
13 of Article VI of the General Agreement on Tar-14iffs and Trade 1994, including by eliminating 15 the requirement to offset dumped sales with 16 non-dumped sales; and

17 (B) preserve the ability of the United 18 States to enforce rigorously its trade laws, in-19 cluding the antidumping, countervailing duty,
20 and safeguard laws;

21 (2) the Department of Commerce should revisit 22 its decision to modify its methodology in anti-23 dumping investigations with respect to the calcula-
24 tion of the weighted-average dumping margin, effec-
25 tive February 22, 2007;

1 (3) a revised modification should seek to ensure 2 that 100 percent of dumping is addressed under 3 United States antidumping duty law and practice,
4 while also ensuring that the United States complies
5 with its WTO obligations.

6 (c) REQUIREMENTS FOR AGENCY ACTION.—

7 (1) CHANGES IN ANTIDUMPING METHOD-
8 OLOGY.—The Department of Commerce may not im-9 plement any revised methodology in antidumping in-10 vestigations with respect to the calculation of 11 weighted-average dumping margins unless and until 12 the procedures set forth in section 123(g)(1) of the 13 Uruguay Round Agreements Act (19 U.S.C.
14 3533(g)(1)) have been followed and completed.

15 (2) EFFECTIVE DATE OF MODIFICATION.—A 16 final rule or other modification to which paragraph 17 (1) applies may not go into effect before the end of 18 the 60-day period beginning on the date on which 19 consultations under section 123(g)(1)(E) of the Uru-20 guay Round Agreements Act (19 U.S.C.
21 3533(g)(1)(E)) begin.

22 (3) VOTE BY CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.—
23 During the 60-day period described in paragraph 24 (2), the Committee on Ways and Means of the 25 House of Representatives and the Committee on Fi-

1 nance of the Senate may vote to indicate the agree-
2 ment or disagreement of the committee with the pro-
3 posed contents of the final rule or other modifica-
4 tion. Any such vote shall not be binding on the de-5 partment or agency which is implementing the rule 6 or other modification.

7 (d) GRACE PERIOD FOR ORIGINAL MODIFICATION.—

8 The final modification announced in “Antidumping Pro-
9 ceedings: Calculation of the Weighted-Average Dumping 10 Margin During an Antidumping Investigation; Final 11 Modification,” 71 Fed. Reg. 77722 (December 27, 2006)
12 shall remain in force until March 1, 2009. On that date, 13 the Department of Commerce shall return to the method-
14 ology it applied before adopting the Final Modification, 15 unless or until it issues a Revised Modification, in accord-16 ance with the procedures described in subsection (c).

17 SEC. 205. ROLE OF WTO APPELLATE BODY RULINGS IN THE 18 WTO DISPUTE SETTLEMENT SYSTEM.

19 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

20 (1) The United States and other members of 21 the World Trade Organization made clear when they 22 established the World Trade Organization that the 23 text of the WTO agreements, and not interpreta-24 tions of those agreements by the Appellate Body or 25 any other international tribunal, establishes the

1 rights and obligations of WTO members. The WTO
2 members determined that “in their findings and rec-3 ommendations, the panel and Appellate Body cannot 4 add to or diminish the rights and obligations” in the 5 text of an agreement. Instead, a dispute settlement 6 panel is to make an “objective assessment of the 7 matter before it, including an objective assessment 8 of the facts of the case and the applicability of and 9 conformity with the relevant covered agreements”.
10 The WTO members themselves, by a three-fourths 11 majority, have the “exclusive authority” to adopt 12 binding interpretations of the WTO agreements.

13 (2) Accordingly, in 1996, the WTO Appellate 14 Body stated that past dispute settlement decisions
15 “create legitimate expectations among WTO Mem-
16 bers, and, therefore, should be taken into account 17 where they are relevant to any dispute. However, 18 they are not binding, except with respect to resolving 19 the particular dispute between the parties to that 20 dispute.”.

21 (3) In 2008, however, the Appellate Body criti-22 cized a dispute settlement panel for conducting its 23 own objective assessment of a legal issue and refus-
24 ing to follow the Appellate Body’s past interpreta-
25 tions of provisions of WTO agreements. The Appel-

1 late Body stated that it was “deeply concerned about 2 the Panel’s decision to depart from well-established
3 Appellate Body jurisprudence clarifying the interpre-4 tation of the same legal issues”.

5 (4) The notion that a dispute settlement panel
6 is obligated to follow Appellate Body precedent,
7 rather than its own objective assessment of the rel-
8 evant WTO agreements, is inconsistent with the text 9 of those agreements and ultimately may have a 10 chilling effect on future negotiations to further open 11 markets and strengthen the global trading system.

12 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the 13 Congress that the United States should state unequiv-14 cally that—

15 (1) it is inconsistent with the express mandate
16 of limited authority to the WTO Appellate Body
17 under the Understanding on Rules and Procedures
18 Governing the Settlement of Disputes for the Appel-
19 late Body to establish a new legal standard that dis-
20 pute settlement panels must apply in deciding cases; 21 and

22 (2) a dispute settlement panel is obligated to 23 follow the text of an agreement negotiated by the 24 WTO members themselves, and not the “jurispru-25 dence” of the WTO Appellate Body.

1 (c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

2 (1) WTO AGREEMENTS.—The term “WTO
3 agreements” means the agreements approved by the 4 Congress under section 101(a)(1) of the Uruguay
5 Round Agreements Act (19 U.S.C. 3511(a)(1)).

6 (2) WTO MEMBER.—The term “WTO mem-
7 ber” has the meaning given that term in section 2
8 of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act (19 U.S.C.
9 3501).

10 (3) APPELLATE BODY; DISPUTE SETTLEMENT
11 PANEL.—The terms “Appellate Body” and “dispute 12 settlement panel” have the meanings given those 13 terms in section 121 of the Uruguay Round Agree-14 ments Act (19 U.S.C. 3531).

15 (4) UNDERSTANDING ON RULES AND PROCE-
16 DURES GOVERNING THE SETTLEMENT OF DIS-17 PUTES.—The term “Understanding on Rules and 18 Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes”
19 means the agreement described in section
20 101(d)(16) of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act
21 (19 U.S.C. 3511(d)(16)).

1 SEC. 206. CLARIFICATION REGARDING MATERIAL INJURY
2 BY REASON OF IMPORTS OF SUBJECT MER-
3 CHANDISE.

4 Section 771(7) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C.
5 1677(7)) is amended by adding at the end the following:

6 “(J) ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS.—In 7 evaluating whether there is material injury, or 8 threat thereof, by reason of imports of the sub-9 ject merchandise, the Commission shall make 10 its determination without regard to—

11 “(i) whether other imports would have 12 replaced or are likely to replace subject im-
13 ports if an order were issued or a suspen-
14 sion agreement were accepted under this 15 title; or

16 “(ii) the effect of a potential order or 17 suspension agreement on the domestic in-18 dustry, except with respect to any finding 19 required by subparagraph (F)(ii).”.

4 paragraph:

7 ly make the report available to the public, excluding any 8 proprietary or confidential information. The Trade Rep-

19 (4), and inserting the following:

20 “(2) On the date on which the Commission completes 21 its determinations under paragraph (1), the Commission
22 shall transmit a report on the determinations to the Presi-
23 dent and the Trade Representative, including the reasons
24 for its determinations. If the determinations under para-
25 graph (1) are affirmative or if the determinations are con-

1 sidered to be affirmative under paragraph (1), the Com-2 mission shall include in its report its recommendations on 3 provisional relief to be taken to prevent or remedy the 4 market disruption. Only those members of the Commission
5 who agreed to the affirmative determinations under para-
6 graph (1) are eligible to vote on the recommended provi-
7 sional relief to prevent or remedy market disruption. Mem-
8 bers of the Commission who did not agree to the affirma-

25 an agreement reached pursuant to such consultations is

1 not preventing or remedying the market disruption at 2 issue in the time required for Presidential action under 3 subsection (k), the President shall provide import relief 4 in accordance with subsection (a).”;

5 (8) in subsection (k)—

6 (A) in the heading, by striking “STAND-
7 ARD FOR PRESIDENTIAL ACTION” and inserting
8 “TIMING FOR PRESIDENTIAL ACTION; EXCEP-9 TIONS”;

10 (B) in paragraph (1), by striking “a rec-
11 ommendation from the Trade Representative” 12 and all that follows to the end period and in-13 serting “a report from the Trade Representa-

15 shall, pursuant to subsection (a), proclaim the 17 (C) by amending paragraph (2) to read as 18 follows:

19 “(2) The President may decline to proclaim relief 20 pursuant to subsection (a), may proclaim relief pursuant

22 by the Commission, may decline to proclaim provisional 23 relief pursuant to subsection (i), or may proclaim provi-
24 sional relief pursuant to subsection (i) that differs from 25 the relief recommended by the Commission—

3           viding relief or provisional relief pursuant to sub-4           section (a) or (i) or providing relief recommended by 5           the Commission pursuant to subsection (a) or (i)
6           would cause serious harm to the economic interests 7           or to the national security of the of the United 8           States.”;

9           (9) in subsection (l), by amending paragraph 10          (1) to read as follows:

11          “(1) The President’s decision under subsection (k) 12 shall be submitted to the Committee on Finance of the 13 Senate and the Committee on Ways and Means of the 14 House of Representatives and shall be published in the 15 Federal Register within 15 days of the decision. In the 16 submission to the committees and in publication in the 17 Federal Register, the President shall include the reasons 18 for the decision and the scope and duration of any action 19 taken. If the President takes action that differs from the 20 action recommended by the Commission under subsection
21 (f) or declines to take action pursuant to subsection 22 (k)(2), the President shall state in detail the reasons for 23 such action or inaction.”;

4 BY COMMISSION.—(1) If the President takes action that 5 differs from the action recommended by the Commission 6 under subsection (f) or declines to take action pursuant 7 to subsection (k)(2)(B)(i), the action recommended by the 8 Commission under subsection (f) shall take effect (as pro-9 vided in subsection (n)(2)) upon the enactment of a joint 10 resolution described in paragraph (2) within the 90-day
11 period beginning on the date on which the President’s de-12 cision is transmitted to the Congress pursuant to sub-13 section (l).

14           “(2) For purposes of this section, the term ‘joint res-15 olution’ means a joint resolution of the 2 Houses of the 16 Congress, the sole matter after the resolving clause of 17 which is as follows: ‘That the Congress does not approve

19 under section 421 of the Trade Act of 1974, notice of 20 which was transmitted to the Congress on 21 _____’, with the blank space being filled with the 22 appropriate case number and date.

23           “(3) The provisions of section 152 (b), (c), (d), (e), 24 and (f) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2192 (b), 11 “(2) If the action recommended by the Commission

12 takes effect pursuant to subsection (m), the President 13 shall, within 15 days after the date of the enactment of 14 the joint resolution referred to in subsection (m), proclaim 15 the action recommended by the Commission under sub-16 section (f). Such action shall take effect not later than
