

John Davis. of Mass.

SENATE CHAMBER

WASHINGTON

John Davis, of Mass. (onest John) when I was a Page in the Senate called me up to his Seat and asked me several questions, and he repeated with emphasis, Isaac don't you leave the Seats of the Senate, stay here as long as you can. It made a deep impression on my little mind, and here I am yet May 4: 1885 he was a Senator liked by every body in the Senate when he spoke he was listened to with deep attention, for what he said, he meant, — mild in his intercourse with Senators — officers and Pages —
