

Dress of Senators in olden Times and the Present, they wear ruffled Shirts and ruffled risbands, their Vests was embroidered, their Stockings were of fine Silk, very few of the Senator appeared on the floor in any other style of Coat, than a Swallow Tail they wore Blue or Brown Clothes and, Senator Webster Coat was always adorned with brass buttons

Henry Clay, all ways came to the Senate in a Black Swallow Tail Coat and his Stert Collar was very large

I have heard Ladies, say to each other what does Mr Clay, wear his Collar so high in the later days. There are scarcely few Senators that come into the Senate. Wearing a Swallow-tail Coat

The favorite dress of Senators in the days are black brocade, frock Coats and high standing Collars