

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS RELATED EVENTS AT APHA

SAN DIEGO, CA | OCTOBER 2008

The National Public Health Performance Standards Program (NPHPS) and Accreditation— Understanding the Link (3195.0)

Monday, October 27: 12:30-2:00PM

San Diego Marriott Marina, Marriott Hall Salon 2

This session will explore frequently asked questions regarding the link between NPHPS and accreditation. Participants will get answers to questions like, “How are state and local jurisdictions using the NPHPS as a preparatory tool for accreditation?” and “How do the two initiatives relate and where do they differ?” Speakers will highlight the distinctions and opportunities between the NPHPS public health system assessments and agency-focused accreditation.

NPHPS Part II—The National Public Health Performance Standards Program (NHPSP): Breaking Barriers to Strengthen Public Health Systems (3297.0)

Monday, October 27: 2:30-4:00PM

San Diego Marriott Marina, Torrey 1/2

This session will provide information about the updated NHPSP assessment instruments, how the assessments have been used in the field, and how NHPSP assessment activities can best be maximized for performance improvement.

Methods for Regional Collaboration: NHPSP, MAPP, Operational Definition and PPHR (4006.1)

Tuesday, October 28: 8:30-10:00AM

San Diego Marriott Marina, Solana Room

This session will highlight how local jurisdictions have used the National Public Health Performance Standards Program (NHPSP), Mobilizing for Action through Planning and Partnerships (MAPP), Operational Definition standards and Project Public Health Ready (PPHR) criteria for improving Essential Public Health Services delivery through regional collaboration.

Crossing Theoretical Borderlands: Applying Theories on Collaboration, Strategic Planning, and Quality Improvement to Public Health Practice (4076.1)

Tuesday, October 28: 10:30AM-12:00PM

San Diego Marriott Marina, Solana Room

This session will provide a brief overview of MAPP; discuss the theoretical underpinnings of the process; and describe the benefits local jurisdictions have experienced by applying these theories towards performance improvement.

Mobilizing for Action through Planning and Partnerships (MAPP) Workshop (213.0)

Wednesday, October 29: 8:30AM-4:00PM

San Diego Convention Center (SDCC), Room 31C

The MAPP Workshop will provide an interactive forum for learning about the MAPP process. Participants will learn why MAPP advances public health practice through community organizing, strategic planning, and systems change. Potential, new, and experienced MAPP users are encouraged to attend. To register, visit: www.zoomerang.com/Survey/?p=WEB228AYVKFBF2. The online registration deadline is Monday, October 20 at 5:00PM ET.
