August 2008

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT
					 Go outside and cover your eyes. Can you hear any insects?	 Finger Play - Eensy Weensy Spider
		 Make a map of your room or yard. Plan a vacation trip for an ant or a spider.	 	 What is a mosquito's favorite sport? Skin diving!	 Pantomime some of your favorite book titles with your family.
	 What types of bugs live near you? Draw pictures.		 Find three bugs outside. Do any of them have wings?	 Write a poem about your favorite book.	 Treat books with respect. Start a home library.	 There are 10,000 species of grasshopper. Read a book about some of them.
 What is a book's favorite food? A bookworm!		 Make ladybug cookies. Share them with a friend.		 Read a book about monarch butterflies' migration. Do you have flowers in your yard that attract butterflies?		 Read with great expression. Funny voices count too!
 	 With sidewalk chalk, draw a ladybug. How many spots will you draw on it?	 Check with your city for a service project that your family can participate in.	 Look in magazines or newspapers for stories about insects. Are they helpful or harmful?
