SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 13, 2007, the Commission instituted an investigation under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. §1337, based on a complaint filed by SiRF Technology, Inc. of San Jose, California (“SiRF”), alleging a violation of section 337 in the importation, sale for importation, and sale within the United States after importation of certain GPS chips, associated software and systems, and products containing same by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,304,216; 7,043,363; 7,091,904; and 7,132,980. 72 Fed. Reg. 11378 (Mar. 13, 2007). The complainant named Global Locate, Inc. of San Jose, California (“Global Locate”) as the only respondent.

On July 11, 2007, respondent Global Locate moved to extend the target date by three months, from June 13, 2008, to September 12, 2008, and to amend the procedural schedule. In their respective responses filed July 19, 2007, both complainant SiRF and the Commission investigative attorney opposed respondent’s motion.

On July 24, 2007, the ALJ extended the target date for completion of the above-referenced investigation to October 13, 2008. No party petitioned for review of Order No. 18, and the Commission has determined not to review it.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42(h) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42(h)).
