

In collaboration with VHA Office of Academic Affiliations (OAA), HSR&D sponsors post-doctoral and post-residency training programs at OAA-approved training sites for fellowships in health services research and medical informatics. OAA provides stipends for post-doctoral fellows who are also supported by supplemental funding from HSR&D for research-related expenses and technical support. HSR&D currently has 15 training sites for the PhD associated health professions training programs, 2 sites for post-doctoral physicians in health services, and 7 training sites for post-doctoral clinicians and associated health professionals in medical informatics. OAA and HSR&D have also initiated support for a post-resident fellowship program in health services research at 10 sites nationally.

The PhD associated health professions programs are located at:

Ann Arbor, MI; Bedford, MA; Boston, MA; Durham, NC; Gainesville, FL; Hines, IL; Houston, TX; Indianapolis, IN; Iowa City, IA; Little Rock, AR; Los Angeles, CA; Minneapolis, MN; Palo Alto, CA; Philadelphia, PA/Pittsburgh, PA; and Seattle, WA.

Post-doctoral physician programs in health services research are located at:

Durham, NC; and Seattle, WA

The medical informatics programs for post-doctoral clinicians and associated health professionals are located at:

American Lake/Seattle, WA; Boston, MA; Indianapolis, IN; Palo Alto, CA; Philadelphia, PA; Portland, OR; and Salt Lake City, UT

The post-resident programs in health services research are located at:

Bedford, MA; Boston, MA; Gainesville, FL; Hines, IL; Houston, TX; Indianapolis, IN; Iowa City, IA; Minneapolis, MN; Palo Alto, CA; and Los Angeles, CA.
