

Comment 27

Heather Stone

Mr. Nagumo,

I am writing to you because I am a research technician working on the Human Genome project at Baylor College of Medicine, and I am concerned about the private sector trying to patent human genetic information. Speaking for myself, this idea is simply wrong. The human genetic code is not for private use. We as a whole people should have complete access to this privileged information. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Heather Stone