MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD:

Mr. Allen Dulles and Richard Bissell saw the President at about 11 AM this morning, concerning the possibility of one or more reconnaissance flights. This followed up on the President's comment a few days ago that a flight across the area concerned, entering at one point and leaving at an opposite point, would seem to raise fewer problems in his mind.

Mr. Dulles and Mr. Bissell indicated question about this type of flight, suggesting one entering and leaving from the south. After discussion the President asked that a meeting be arranged with them and Secretary Herter tomorrow at 8:45.

A. J. Goodpaster
Brigadier General, USA
