- Served continuously from October 9, 1996, to at least April 1, 2000.
- Completed high school, GED, or 12 hours of college credit.
- Honorable discharge.

Bars to MGIB Eligibility

Claimants are not eligible if commissioned after 12/31/76 upon completing an ROTC scholarship or graduating from any service academy, unless...

ROTC

Eligibility Is Retained If You:

- Became eligible for MGIB before receiving commission,
- Received a commission after 9/30/96 and received less than $3,400 during any one year of a ROTC program,
- Declined ROTC scholarship money the last term before graduation, or
- Were eligible for MGIB under Category 3 or 4.

What Is Entitlement?

Entitlement is the amount of monthly full time benefits a claimant will receive.

- Up to 36 months for MGIB.
- Up to 48 months for combined benefit types. (Example: If a claimant used 10 months under the old Vietnam Era GI Bill, she may now use an additional 36 months of MGIB chapter 30 benefits.)

Entitlement Charges

Entitlement is charged one day for each day of full time training.

For example: A claimant attending school ½ time for 60 days is charged 1 month of entitlement.

Early Release

- Reduction in Force.
 - Disability.
 - Hardship.
 - Physical condition which interfered with duty.
 - Medical condition existing prior to service.
- Convenience of the Government.
 - Requires 20 months minimum service for 2 year enlistment and 30 months for a 3 year enlistment.

Delimiting Date

The amount of time a claimant has to use his/her EDU benefits.

- Ten years from the last release from Active Duty (90 days or more) for MGIB.
- Fourteen years after eligibility begins, for MGIB-SR for claimants entering after Oct. 1992.

- There is no delimiting date for REAP participants provided they remain within their component. Once a member leaves his/her component, eligibility to REAP ends.

College Funds

VA refers to these as “kickers.” There are kickers for chapters MGIB, VEAP, and MGIB-SR.

- Dollar amount established by DoD.
- Prorated for non completion of contract (MGIB).
- Paid in addition to monthly benefits.
- Prorated monthly for less than full time training.

Benefits: In Service VS. After Service

- Claimants may begin using MGIB benefits after serving 2 years active duty.
- Active duty claimants are only reimbursed for tuition and fees up to the veteran's rate.
- Active duty claimants are not paid for breaks between terms, and may not receive college fund payments or $600 MGIB buy up payments.

Active Duty: Paying Tuition and Fees

Example:

- $1075 is the full time MGIB rate.
- Term is Jan. 6 to May 5, for FT (120 days).
- Tuition and Fees are $1250.
- Veteran would receive $1075/month; $4299.60 for the term.
- Active Duty claimant gets $312.50/month; $1250 for the term.
- Entitlement used by both is 4 mos. and 1 day.

How To Apply For Benefits

- Completed VA Form 22-1990.
 - Send your signature if you're using the VONAPP online application.
- Include direct deposit information.
- Attach copies of DD Form 214/215, NOBE(for 1606), Call Up Orders, etc..
- Copies of College Fund Contracts.

Application

What Happens When a Claimant Applies?

How Long Does Processing Take?

Processing times depend on a number of variables such as the time of year, the current workload pending at the RPO, the amount of development needed on the claim, etc..

Who Reports Enrollment?

- A school VA certifying official for college, vocational, flight and correspondence training.
- Claimant for TA top up requests and reimbursement of licensing and certification tests.
- Employer for OJT/APP.

How Are Benefits Paid?

- Benefits are paid monthly for the previous month.
- TATU, Accelerated Pay, and LAC are paid in a lump sum.
- Correspondence and flight are paid by lessons completed.

Monthly Payments

Monthly payments are:

- Based on a 30 day calendar month.
- Prorated for partial months.
- Prorated for less than full time training.
- Include college funds or kickers.
- Always paid in arrears.

Monthly Certification

- MGIB claimants certifying enrollment may do so at the end of a month by:
- Web Automated Verification of Enrollment on the GIBILL web site.
- Interactive Voice Response at 1-877-823-2378.

How Long Does It Take To Get My Payment?

After successful certification:

- Claimants with domestic direct deposit should receive payment within 3-5 days.
- Claimants receiving mailed checks from the Treasury Department in Austin, TX, should receive a check within 10-14 days. (International delivery time will vary.)

Monthly Rates

Monthly rates usually increase each year.

Rates are found on:

- Claimant's EDU Award Letter.
- GIBILL website (the rates here don't include college fund kickers or the additional MGIB $600 buy up program).

Important Information

We have redesigned the GI Bill website to make it easier to use. You may find some links relocated. The WAVE link has been located under "Information for Benefit Recipients" and there is new education benefits information available in Spanish that can be accessed by clicking on the link at the bottom of this page.

Hot Topic - New education benefit for Activated Reservists

There is a new education benefit available to certain reservists who were activated for at least 90 days after September 11, 2001. We call this benefit the "Reserve Educational Assistance Program" (REAP) or Chapter 1607.

General information on REAP is available in the "Questions & Answers", and GI Bill Information section of this web site.
