

WANTED: America's finest public servants for national recognition

Nominate a federal employee for the 2007 Service to America Medals

Good government requires good people, yet too often the men and women who do our nation's business are overlooked and underappreciated. The Service to America Medals are awarded annually by the nonprofit, nonpartisan Partnership for Public Service to honor the accomplishments and commitment of America's outstanding public servants. Each award is accompanied by a cash prize from $3,000 to $10,000.

Award categories include:

- ★ Federal Employee of the Year
- ★ Career Achievement
- ★ Call to Service
- ★ Citizen Services
- ★ Homeland Security
- ★ International Affairs
- ★ Justice & Law Enforcement
- ★ National Security
- ★ Science & Environment

By honoring excellence in the federal workforce, the Service to America Medals send a powerful message to the American people about the importance of a strong civil service and seek to inspire a new generation of Americans to serve. Award recipients will be saluted by dignitaries from government, business, and the entertainment world at a Washington, D.C. gala in Fall 2007.

Deadline Extended to March 1, 2007
