DESCRIPTION: The trend to contract for services using performance-based services acquisition (PBSA) is growing. For FY 2005, OMB directed agencies to expend at least 40% of their acquisition dollars for services on PBSAs. The trend impacts most service contracts – whether they be for janitorial, information technology, or engineering services. Attend this free seminar to learn about best practices and tools available to help implement PBSA. You will also have a chance to ask the experts questions following their presentations.
