First Ladies Luncheon at the Eisenhower Center

Ms. Jacqueline Berger, known as the First Ladies' Lady, Westlake Village, California, will speak at a lunch and exhibit opening, Monday, July 17, in the courtyard of the Eisenhower Library, Abilene, Kansas. Ms. Berger, an author on America's First Ladies, has researched and studied the women who were married to our nation's Presidents. The public is invited to attend this event which will feature a new exhibit of hats worn by First Lady Mamie Eisenhower on display in the Library lobby, just for this occasion. The program begins at noon with lunch catered by Classic Catering, a division of the Kirby House Restaurant, and immediately followed by Ms. Berger's presentation entitled, "Ordinary Women, Extraordinary Lives."

Cost of the event, including lunch, is $20 per person. To reserve a seat, please send payment to the Eisenhower Library, 200 SE 4th Street, Abilene, KS 67410. Checks should be payable to the Eisenhower Foundation. For further information, please contact Colleen Cearley at 785-263-6700 or toll free 1-877-RING IKE. The Eisenhower Library is one of twelve Presidential libraries operated by the National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, D.C
