

Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library & Museum

200 SE 4th Street, Abilene, KS 67410-2900

<http://eisenhower.archives.gov>

Linda K. Smith

(785) 263-6700

January 7, 2008

NEWS RELEASE

Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum Announces New Staff Member

The Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. James (Jim) Hill as its new Public Programs Specialist. He is a 1994 Kansas State University graduate with a Master's degree in Adult Education. Previously, Hill worked as a training instructor for the Environmental Division, Directorate of Public Works on Fort Riley. Prior to Fort Riley, he taught English as a Second Language at Manhattan High School. Hill retired from the US Army in 2002 and is a member of the VFW and American Legion. Hill is a resident of Manhattan, Kan.

Hill's major duties include public affairs, educational outreach and volunteer coordination as well as serving as a liaison to community leaders, school groups and public and private institutions.

The Dwight D. Eisenhower Library is one of twelve Presidential libraries operated by the National Archives and Records Administration. For more information, please call the library at 785-263-6700 or toll free 1-877- RING IKE.