

16-18 February, 2009
Marriott Wardman Park Hotel
Washington, DC USA

Monday, February 16, 2009—Plenary sessions and panel discussions

- 8:00–8:10 Welcome from the U.S. National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH)
Christine Branche, Ph.D., Acting Director, NIOSH
- 8:10–8:20 Welcome from the World Health Organization (WHO) and the United Nations Road Safety Collaboration
Etienne Krug, M.D., M.P.H., Director, Department of Injuries & Violence Prevention, WHO
- 8:20–8:30 Welcome from the International Labour Organization (ILO)
Sameera M. Al-Tuwaijri, M.D., M.P.H., Director, International Program on Safety and Health at Work and the Environment (SafeWork), ILO
- 8:30–8:45 Welcome from the Ambassador from Oman to the United Nations
His Excellency, Ambassador Fuad Mubarak Al-Hinai
- 8:45–9:15 Keynote address
Karla González, Minister of Public Works and Transport, Republic of Costa Rica
- 9:15–9:45 Keynote address
Sam Smolik, Vice President – Health, Safety, Security and Environment, Shell Downstream, Inc.
- 9:45–10:15 BREAK
- 10:15–10:45 The status of occupational road safety globally: capsule presentation of conference white paper
Ed Dubens, C.E.O./President, Interactive Driving Systems
Will Murray, Ph.D., Research Director, Interactive Driving Systems
- 10:45–12:00 Panel discussion #1: Developed-economies perspective
Jeff Michael, Ph.D., Acting Director of Research and Program Development, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
John Kennedy, Executive Director for Driver and Roadway Safety, National Safety Council
Stephanie Pratt, Research Health Scientist, NIOSH
Adrian Walsh, Director, RoadSafe

12:00–1:30 LUNCH

- 1:30–3:00 Panel discussion #2: Emerging-market perspective
Tony Bliss, Lead Road Safety Specialist, Energy, Transport and Water Department,
World Bank
Fernando Cammarota, CEPA
Simar Preet Kahlon, Corporate SHE Manager, Nestlé India Limited
Ndeye Awa Sarr, President, LASER International
- 3:00–3:30 BREAK
- 3:30–4:00 State of occupational road safety globally: industry perspective
Andrew R. Bradley, Head of Group Risk Services, Nestlé SA
- 4:00–4:30 State of occupational road safety globally: policy perspective
Claes Tingvall, Dr. Med. Soc., Director of Traffic Safety, Swedish Road Administration
- 4:30 ADJOURN
- 6:00–8:00 Networking Reception and Poster Session, Virginia Suite

Tuesday, February 17, 2009—Breakout sessions

Tuesday, February 17, 2009
	Track 1: Policy	Track 2: Management and interventions	Track 3: Emerging markets: research and practice
Breakout 1 8:30—10:00 am	T1.1 International initiatives	T2.1 Fleet risk management	T3.1 Road safety initiatives for workers
Moderator:	Sameera al-Tuwaijri	Ed Dubens	Andrew Bradley
	UN Road Safety Collaboration Lori Mooren, University of New South Wales	The rationale for implementing fleet safety programs from a broad government/policy perspective Roger Bibbings, Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents Paul Gallemore, Wolseley	SAFE fleet at Johnson & Johnson—caring for people across the globe Joseph Van Houten and Sandra S. Lee, Johnson & Johnson
	Policy change and new perspectives on sharing responsibility for road safety Matts-Åke Belin, World Health Organization	Models for fleet safety interventions Will Murray, Interactive Driving Systems Adrian Walsh, RoadSafe	Issues in implementing a global driver safety culture Andy Stubbings, Wyeth Juan Carlos Ramirez, Cummins Inc.
10:00–10:30 am	BREAK
Breakout 2 10:30 am–12:00 pm	T1.2 Legal perspectives on fleet management	T2.2 Driver-based interventions	T3.2 Protecting drivers in emerging markets
Moderator:	Will Murray	David Melton	Rochelle Sobel
	Negligent entrustment—when is a license check not enough? Paul Farrell, SafetyFirst Systems	Using driver risk assessment methods to develop a crash-free culture Tony Kaye, Thomas International	The Fleet Forum ‘Fleet Safety Toolkit’ Rob McConnell, Fleet Forum
	Best practices in fleet risk management: avoid conflict with privacy regulations and driver expectations Stanley Underwood North, LeClair Ryan	Driver training—balanced overview Eddie Wren, Advanced Driving Systems	A comprehensive approach to vehicle safety Ezana Wondimneh, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (USA)
12:00–1:30 pm	LUNCH

Tuesday, February 17, 2009 (continued)
Breakout 3 1:30 pm–3:00 pm	T1.3 Labor relations perspectives	T2.3 Use of crash analysis and benchmarking to improve fleet safety	T3.3 Regional focus I—Latin America and China
Moderator:	LaMont Byrd	Sandra Lee	Eugênia Rodrigues
	Impact of regulation and deregulation, industry structure, pay structure, and hiring practices on road safety Michael Belzer, Wayne State University	Crash analysis and benchmarking as tools to improve fleet safety—presentation and discussion Lynn Berberich, PHH Arval	Latin America Strategies to decrease the accidents and costs in a private fleet company Miguel Angel Gonzalez Osuna, FEMSA
	TBD	Evaluating the success of fleet safety initiatives: benchmarking metrics and program elements/identifying and sharing best practices Jack Hanley, Network of Employers for Traffic Safety	China Zhao Rui Ha
3:00–3:30 pm	BREAK
Breakout 4 3:30 pm–5:00 pm	T1.4 Corporate social responsibility	T2.4 Organizational and technology-based interventions	T3.4 Regional focus II—India
Moderator:	Jim Noble	Matts-Åke Belin	Rohit Baluja
	Engaging business in influencing behavior change or improving local road design and infrastructure Andrew Pearce, Global Road Safety Partnership	Using technology to manage crash risk before the crash occurs David Melton, Liberty Mutual Group	Occupational road safety in India Param Preet Ghuman, Employee State Insurance Corporation
	Organizational and technology interventions to improve safe and eco-driving Paul Davis, Nestlé SA Technology and environmental considerations can drive fleet safety Inder Poonaji, Nestlé SA	Sustaining safety in hard times/times of recession Paul Gallemore, Wolseley Dave Wallington, British Telecom	Road crashes involving heavy vehicles in Bangalore, India: challenges and strategies for prevention G. Gururaj, National Institute for Mental Health and Neuro Sciences
5:00 pm	ADJOURN

Wednesday, February 18, 2009—Breakout sessions and concluding plenary session

Wednesday, February 18, 2009
Breakout 5 8:30–10:00 am	T1.5 Using research to promote policy change	T2.5 Driver management approaches	T3.5 Regional focus III—Africa
Moderator:	Marilyn Fingerhut	Adrian Walsh	Nancy Carter-Foster
	Occupational light vehicle use Rwth Stuckey, Monash University	Effectively managing ‘gray fleet’/non-owned vehicles Jim Noble, Zurich Services Corporation	Jace Naidoo, Eskom
	Influencing New Zealand commercial fleet managers Debbie Stearns, Accident Compensation Commission of New Zealand	Chain of responsibility: Risk management of contractors, sub-contractors, and spot hire transport in the supply chain Will Murray, Interactive Driving Systems	Road traffic safety: A big challenge in the developing world—a Uganda (East Africa) case study Ronnie Kabuye, National Road Safety Concern, Uganda

10:00–10:30 BREAK

10:30–12:00 Concluding plenary session: findings and next steps

12:00 ADJOURN

Please continue to check the website at www.cdc.gov/niosh/programs/twu/global/ for agenda updates and additional conference information.

For more information, please contact:

Jane Hingston
U.S. National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health
Phone: +1 (202) 245-0673
E-mail: JHingston@cdc.gov

Stephanie Pratt
U.S. National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health
Phone: +1 (304) 919-1121 (mobile)
E-mail: SPratt@cdc.gov