Geothermal Resources Valuation Regulations

AGENCY: Minerals Management Service (MMS), Interior.

ACTION: Notice of training seminars.

SUMMARY: The Minerals Management Service (MMS) hereby gives notice that it will conduct training seminars at the locations and dates given below on the revised geothermal resources valuation regulations that were published in the Federal Register on November 8, 1991 (56 FR 57256). The seminars will focus on the methods of determining value of geothermal resources for royalty purposes as identified in the regulations that became effective January 1, 1992.

DATES: See SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION.

ADDRESSES: See SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Charles Brook, Oil and Gas Valuation Branch, Royalty Valuation and Standards Division, (303) 231-3534 or (FTS) 326-3534.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The new geothermal resources valuation regulations govern the methods by which value is determined when computing royalties on geothermal resources produced from Federal leases. Valuation standards are grouped according to the resource's usage: electrical generation or direct utilization. Valuation procedures within each usage group are divided on the basis of the resource's disposition: sales under an arm's-length contract, sales under a non-arm's-length contract, or utilized by the lessee (no sales). Each usage-disposition combination involves different valuation procedures. The training seminars will focus on application of the valuation standards, with particular emphasis on valuing "no sales" resources. The calculation of values under the netback procedure for geothermal resources used to generate electricity and under the alternative fuels approach for geothermal resources used in direct utilization processes will be addressed in detail. Valuation standards for geothermal byproducts, none of which are currently commercially recovered, will be reviewed as time permits or at the request of attendees.

Dates and Locations

The seminars will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the dates and at the locations given below:
