

NOAA Teacher at Sea
Margaret “Greta” Dykstra-Lyons
Onboard NOAA Ship DAVID STARR JORDAN
August 1 - 15, 2005

Log 7

Name: Drew Barth

Age: 20

Home: Billings, MT

Position on DAVID STARR JORDAN: Wiper--engine room

Years of experience: 1

Favorite part of job: Traveling to different places

Favorite cruise: Shark cruise

Favorite port: Yet to be discovered

Memorable experience: Dolphins bow riding while in the small boat

Continents visited: 1

Name: Jason Larese

Age: 37

Home: San Diego, CA

College: UC-San Diego and University of Washington

Major: Undergrad—chemical engineering;
Graduate—Marine Policy

Job: Biological Technician

Position on DAVID STARR JORDAN:

Independent observer

Number of months at sea this year: 1

Highlight of job: Stimulating, exposure to interesting things

Memorable experience: First stranding—deceased juvenile gray whale; bow-riding dolphins in bioluminescence

Favorite species: Risso's dolphins

Concern: Apathy

Continents visited: 4

Photo-Jason preparing to biopsy dolphins from bow

Name: Mike Sapien

Age: 37

Home: San Diego, CA

Position on DAVID STARR JORDAN:

2nd cook

Years of experience: 2

Previous experience: In port support for DAVID STARR JORDAN and deck crew

Favorite part of job: Star gazing

Favorite cruise: Clipperton Island

Favorite port: Acapulco, Mexico

Memorable experience: An 8' sand shark brought up in bottom trawl net

Other boats in NOAA fleet: ALBATROSS IV and DELAWARE

Continents visited: 1

