1. Purpose of This Order. This order renews and constitutes the charter for the Air Traffic Procedures Advisory Committee (ATPAC) as required under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), 5 U.S.C., appendix 2).

2. Audience. This order applies to the following Air Traffic Organization (ATO) service units: En Route and Oceanic, Terminal, Safety, and System Operations Services; and aviation industry representatives.

3. Where Can I Find This Order? This order is available on the MYFAA employee Web site at https://employees.faa.gov/tools\_resources/orders\_notices/.

4. Cancellation. This order cancels Federal Aviation Administration Order (FAAO) 1110.76R, Air Traffic Procedures Advisory Committee, effective October 26, 2006.

5. Background.

a. On January 28, 1975, the Secretary of Transportation established a task force to examine the overall organizational structure and management approach of the FAA, including the FAA's use of delegations in carrying out its statutory safety mission, and to examine the relationship of the safety mission to the FAA's other missions. On April 30, 1975, the task force submitted its report to the Secretary of Transportation. The report contained a recommendation for establishing a standing group composed of air carrier, controller, general aviation, military, and pilot representatives to review ATC procedures and practices. The FAA established ATPAC in response to the recommendation.

b. ATPAC serves the public interest by providing a forum for interaction among the FAA, the military, the airlines, airline pilots, ATC personnel, general aviation pilots, business pilots, and their representatives. The level of expertise and balanced viewpoint of this committee have enabled early identification of potential problem areas and accelerated early corrective actions, thereby creating greater safety and public confidence in the Nation's air transportation system.

6. Objective and Scope.

a. ATPAC, consistent with its original charter, is to review present air traffic control (ATC) procedures and practices.

b. The committee, as additional tasks, may:

(1) Analyze new or significantly revised ATC procedural concepts.

(2) Review the adequacy of charts, diagrams, and illustrations used to convey information concerning the application of ATC procedures and their relevance to current, revised, or proposed ATC procedures and concepts.

(3) Identify aviation regulations that have an impact on present, new, or significantly revised ATC procedures and concepts.

7. Duties.

a. The committee makes recommendations, by consensus, for standardizing, clarifying, and upgrading terminology and procedures, as a result of its review of present ATC procedures and practices.

b. The committee provides advice and makes recommendations, by consensus, concerning those terms reviewed under paragraph 5b of this order.

c. The committee acts in a solely advisory capacity in accomplishing its duties.

8. Organization and Administration. ATPAC is comprised of a general membership, an executive director, and a chairperson.

a. The committee consists of representatives of organizations selected by the FAA as most representative of the various viewpoints of aviation and airspace users. The FAA will ensure a membership that is fairly balanced in terms of points of view of those represented and the functions to be performed by the committee. To ensure the recommendations of the committee have taken into account the needs of diverse groups served by the department, membership must include, to the extent practicable, individuals or organizations to represent minorities, women, and persons with disabilities. Each member organization must designate one representative and an alternate. The current member organizations are as follows:

executive director and an alternate. The executive director serves as the Designated Federal Official of the committee. The committee may not meet in the absence of the executive director. However, in case of an emergency, the alternate will serve as the executive director. The executive director must adjourn any committee meeting whenever he or she determines adjournment to be in the public interest. The executive director must:

Meetings must not be conducted in the absence of the chairperson; however, in case of an emergency, the chairperson may designate a committee member to serve as chairperson. The chairperson should be promptly notified of any changes in representation. The chairperson:

- (1) Determines, in coordination with the executive director, when a meeting is required and where it will be held.
- (2) Conducts the meeting, including determination of priority and time allowed for discussion of AOCs and other committee business.
- (3) Ensures the committee only makes recommendations that fall within the scope of the charter (that is, deals with ATC procedures).
- (4) Serves as a facilitator during the discussions. The chairperson will ensure that all points of view are heard and will take an impartial role in the discussions, especially when working to achieve consensus on a recommendation.
- (5) Certifies the accuracy of the minutes.

The proposed agenda, as well as the time and place of the meeting and information that the meeting will be open to the public, should be included in the notice which should be forwarded to the Office of the Chief Counsel, Attention: Rules Dockets, AGC-10, 800 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20591, approximately 30 days before the meeting. Other forms of notice, such as press releases, are to be used to the extent practicable.

g. Representatives of the nongovernmental member organizations serve without government compensation and bear all costs related to their participation on the committee.

Interested persons may file written statements with the committee at any time.
