CREC Recruiting For Summer Youth Conservation Corps —Communities of Flagstaff, Sedona and Williams—

Flagstaff, Az. – The Coconino Rural Environment Corps (CREC) is currently recruiting for their summer Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) in the communities of Flagstaff, Sedona and Williams. YCC is a conservation and service corps program for all 16-18 year old teens who want to make a difference in their world.

YCC participants work in small crews of 6 to 8 with the guidance of Youth Mentors. Service projects are usually outside and may include trail construction and maintenance, fence construction, invasive species removal, park maintenance, community landscaping and more.

The position pays a living stipend of $270 per week. Participants who are 17 or 18 years old are eligible to become AmeriCorps members and earn college scholarships of $1,000 upon successful completion of their YCC term.

No experience is necessary—only the desire to work hard and learn about the environment.

Interested in applying? Applications may be requested by email or phone.

Get your application in NOW!
Positions are limited and fill up several months before summer.
