

Antelope Lake Recreation Area

Mt. Hough Ranger District

About the Area

At 5000 feet in elevation, Antelope Lake is located in the north eastern part of the Mt. Hough Ranger District. It is a small remote lake with 15 miles of shoreline. Surrounding the lake are mountains blanketed with pine and fir trees. Protected coves around the lake attract several species of migratory birds. The campgrounds are usually open by Memorial Day weekend and close by the middle of October. These dates are subject to change depending on the snow level in the area.

Getting there

Antelope Lake is located 30 miles NE of Taylorsville on the Genesee/Antelope Lake Rd. From Janesville, on Hwy 395, take County Rd. 208 for four miles, then FS Rd. 28N01 for nine miles, turn right on FS Rd. 28N03 for two miles.

Supplies

Groceries, ice, bait and souvenirs are available at the Antelope Lake Store located near Boulder Creek Campground. Closest towns to purchase gasoline are Greenville and Janesville.

Campfire Programs

Enjoy campfire programs every Saturday night from Memorial Day weekend - Labor Day weekend. Programs are presented at the amphitheater located behind the Antelope Lake store, near Lone Rock Campground.

Sanitation Dump Station

This facility is located near the Boulder Creek Fire Station at the north end of the lake.

All are Welcome
