Striking Scenic Contrasts and Colorful History

Dubois is located in the "Valley of the Warm Winds." Because of its location along the Upper Wind River Valley, surrounded by the Wind River and the Absaroka Mountain ranges, Dubois is a town with striking contrasts from colorful badlands to high alpine peaks.

The rich western history of Dubois includes the stories of Shoshone guide, Togwotee, Jedediah Smith, Jim Bridger, and later, Butch Cassidy. A memorial west of Dubois pays tribute to the era of the famous "Tie Hack" the men who handcut railroad ties.
