VOLUNTEERS

In 1972, Congress passed special legislation to enable interested citizens to assist in the important conservation work of the Forest Service. If you like people and are concerned about our country's natural resources, the Forest Service needs your skills and talents in it volunteer program. How to apply:

- 1. Contact any Forest Service office in the area where you wish to serve and ask for an application or fill out the attached application. If you are selected, you will be given orientation on Forest Service history, objectives, programs, and safety. Please note that due to limited supervision we are unable to fill all request and that your application will be held on file or referred to an appropriate volunteer association.
- 2. To find out about volunteering on trail projects, please contact the Washington Trails Association (WTA) hotline (mainly for hikers) at 206-517-7032 or email at (wta@seanet.com). You can also contact the Volunteer Trail Work Coalition (for hikers and other trail users) at 206-464-1641.
