

Hello:

I am writing to vehemently protest live lethal animal tests. This barbaric practice must end.

I fully support in vitro tests as a means to get the same result without the suffering of animals.

It has become clear that lethal animals tests are costly, barbaric and make a mockery of true science. Please do all you can to end these barbaric tests and replace them with something more intelligent.

Sincerely,

Glenn Cronick