

Animal testing is cruel and inhumane. I am a firm believer that God did not bless us with these loving creatures to be abused and tortured this way. I feel that the testing should be done on the murderers and child molesters that are in prison and this would be their debt paid back to society and less taxes out of our pockets to keep them up. Animals are a precious gift from God . They have feelings and experience pain just like you and I.