

Please begin completely changing testing methods for assessing acute systematic toxicity levels from lethal dose animal testing, to non-animal, in vitro testing methods. With the technology that we currently have, it is no longer necessary to perform these extremely cruel tests on animals that we know have the capacity for suffering.

Thank you for doing the right thing,

~Jill Cooper~