CLOSING DATE: June 12, 2007

Dear Applicant:

The Secretary invites applications for new awards for fiscal year (FY) 2007 under the Vocational Rehabilitation Services Projects for American Indians with Disabilities (CFDA 84.250C). This program is authorized by Section 121 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (the Act), and implemented by the subsequent program regulation at 34 CFR Part 371.

The purpose of this program is to provide vocational rehabilitation services to American Indians with disabilities who reside on or near Federal or State reservations, consistent with their individual strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, and informed choice, so that they may prepare for and engage in gainful employment, including self-employment, telecommuting and business ownership.

This application package contains information and the required forms for your use in applying and competing in the FY 2007 discretionary grant award competition for the Vocational Rehabilitation Services Projects for American Indians with Disabilities. Potential applicants are advised to read all materials carefully, especially the Federal Register Notice (section A), which is the official competition announcement. In addition, if an applicant procures the service of an outside consultant for the preparation of the application, we encourage the author to collaborate with the current Section 121 project staff to ensure proposed goals and objectives are realistic.

Please note the following:

- Beginning with FY 2007, applications submitted for grant competitions funded by the U.S. Department of Education will use the Application for Federal Assistance SF 424 instead of the Application for Federal Education Assistance ED 424. The SF 424 is included in this application package.
- APPLICATION SUBMISSION . Please note there are two options available for submitting an application in this competition. These options are briefly described in this letter, but complete instructions are included in the Federal Register Notice, under Application and Submission Information. (See Section A) Select only one of the two methods indicated.
- SUBMISSION BY MAIL. Based on the precautionary procedures the U.S. Postal Service is using to process mail, we are experiencing delays in the delivery of mail to the Department. Therefore, you may want to consider sending your application by overnight courier or submitting your application electronically through Grans.gov. When using the submission by mail option, in order to expedite the review process, we request an additional three copies (for a total of six – one original and five copies) be submitted to the Application Control Center in Washington, D.C.
- GRANTS.GOV APPLICATION SUBMISSION. Applications for grants under this competition may be submitted electronically using the Grans.gov Apply site (www.Grants.gov). If you choose to submit your application electronically, you must use the Governmentwide Grants.gov Apply site at <http://www.Grants.gov>. The document following this letter includes helpful tips about submitting electronically using the Grants.gov Apply site. Please note, this helpful tips document should be read along with the Application Procedures as described in the Federal Register Notice announcing this grant competition. Information (including dates and times) about how to submit your application electronically, or by mail or hand delivery, may also be found in Section F, Application Transmittal Instructions of this application package.

- ELIGIBLE APPLICANT. Applications may be made only by the governing bodies of Indian Tribes (or consortia of those governing bodies) located on Federal or state reservations. (Please see Eligible Applicant attachment in Section A.)
- MAXIMUM AWARD. The Federal Register announcement indicates the following standard will apply for the maximum award topic. Applicants that are current grantees under the Vocational Rehabilitation Services Projects for American Indians With Disabilities program (they received funding in FY 2006), the maximum award amount for the first project year is the greater of (a) $375,000 or (b) an amount equal to 103.4 percent of the applicant's approved budget for their FY 2006 grant (an increase of 3.4 percent). For applicants that are not current grantees under the Vocational Rehabilitation Service Projects for American Indians with Disabilities program, the maximum award amount for the first project year is $360,000.

In addition, the Secretary may limit any proposed increases in funding for project years two through five to the annual estimated percentage change in the consumer price Index for all Urban Consumers (CPIU). The current estimated percentage increase in the CPIU over the prior year for project year two (FY 2008) is 1.3 percent and for project years three through five (FY 2009-2FY 2011) is approximately 2.5 percent. (See Section A)

- ABSTRACT. Each proposal MUST include a one page abstract. The abstract is a critical component of the proposal and it MUST highlight the purpose of the project, the proposed number of individuals who will receive services under an Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE) for each budget period, the proposed number of individuals who will obtain employment outcomes for each of the budget periods of the project, planned goals and objectives, innovative strategies utilized, and project outcomes.
- SELECTION CRITERIA. The program narrative MUST address the selection criteria shown following this letter (Section B). To facilitate the peer review process, the narrative should address the selection criteria in the order that the criteria are listed. An explanation of the review criteria has been provided to further describe the type of information you may use to present a response to the selection criteria. Your application should respond to each identified criterion since failure to do so will put your application at a significant disadvantage. Please be certain to carefully review this material and call for technical assistance if needed.

- SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS. In addition to the selection criteria, applicants MUST address the special application requirements at 34 CFR 371.21 in a separate section of the application titled “Special Application Requirements.” If these special requirements are not addressed, the application is incomplete and WILL NOT be reviewed for funding. An explanation of the special requirements also follows this letter (Section C). Please be certain to carefully review this material and call for technical assistance if needed.
- PERFORMANCE MEASURES. Under the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (GPRA), the Department has established two performance measures for this program. The measures are the percentage of individuals who leave the program with an employment outcome and the cost per employment outcome. Each grantee will report this information annually through the American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services Annual Performance Reporting Database. You may view the report document at the following site: <http://rsadev.net>
- MATCH. The Federal share may not be more than 90 percent of the total cost of the project, Section A of the Budget Summary (ED Form 524). The non-Federal share is 10 percent of the costs of the project and may be provided in cash or in-kind. Please document the local match on Section B of the Budget Summary (ED Form 524) and provide a budget narrative to describe the local match. *Please remember that the 10 percent match is on the total cost of the project, and the total cost is equal to the Federal and non-Federal (match) share. The simplest way to compute the required match is to divide the requested Federal funds by 9. The result is the minimum required match.
- BUDGET FORMS. As a result of changes in the Department of Education’s grants management process, all applicants for multi-year projects are required to provide detailed budget information for the total grant period requested (up to 60 months). The ED Form 524, Section G requires a Budget Narrative for the entire 60 months of the budget request. At the time of the initial award, the Department will address the funding levels for each year of the grant award.
- BONUS POINTS. Previously funded tribal programs are entitled to receive 10 bonus points. To receive the points, the applicant MUST indicate that the governing body of the Tribe or the consortia of governing bodies had previously received an award under this program and MUST provide the date of the previous project period. Please clearly indicate this information in your application and list it in the Table of Contents so it is easily located.
- Applicants are reminded that the 1998 Amendments to the Rehabilitation Act require that all new applicants must describe how the needs of individuals with disabilities from minority backgrounds will be addressed. Applicants must also provide assurance that individuals provided services must be advised of the availability and purposes of the State’s Client Assistance Program, including information on means of seeking assistance from that program.

- APPENDIX SECTION. You may include an appendix section to your application, that may include but is not limited too, the following types of documents: assurances/certifications, one-page resumes, position descriptions, letters of support, etc. If applicable, in the narrative proposal selection criteria please provide a reference for the location of these documents.

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ FIRST
U.S. Department of Education
Grants.gov Submission Procedures and Tips for Applicants

To facilitate your use of Grants.gov, this document includes important submission procedures you need to be aware of to ensure your application is received in a timely manner and accepted by the Department of Education.

- 1) REGISTER EARLY – Grants.gov registration may take five or more business days to complete. You may begin working on your application while completing the registration process, but you cannot submit an application until all of the Registration steps are complete. For detailed information on the Registration Steps, please go to: http://www.grants.gov/applicants/get_registered.jsp. [Note: Your organization will need to update its Central Contractor Registry (CCR) registration annually.]
- 2) SUBMIT EARLY – We strongly recommend that you do not wait until the last day to submit your application. Grants.gov will put a date/time stamp on your application and then process it after it is fully uploaded. The time it takes to upload an application will vary depending on a number of factors including the size of the application and the speed of your Internet connection, and the time it takes Grants.gov to process the application will vary as well. If Grants.gov rejects your application (see step three below), you will need to resubmit successfully before 4:30 pm on the deadline date.

Note: To submit successfully, you must provide the DUNS number on your application that was used when your organization registered with the CCR (Central Contractor Registry).

- 3) VERIFY SUBMISSION IS OK – You will want to verify that Grants.gov and the Department of Education receive your Grants.gov submission timely and that it was validated successfully. To see the date/time your application was received, login to Grants.gov and click on the Track My Application link. For a successful submission, the date/time received should be earlier than 4:30 p.m. on the deadline date, AND the application status should be: Validated, Received by Agency, or Agency Tracking Number Assigned.

If the date/time received is later than 4:30 p.m. Washington, D.C. time, on the closing date, your application is late. If your application has a status of “Received” it is still awaiting validation by Grants.gov. Once validation is complete, the status will either change to “Validated” or “Rejected with Errors.” If the status is “Rejected with Errors,” your application has not been received successfully. Some of the reasons Grants.gov may reject an application can be found on the Grants.gov site: http://www.grants.gov/help/submit_application_faqs.jsp#10. For more detailed information on why an application may be rejected, you can review Application Error Tips <http://www.grants.gov/section910/ApplicationErrorTips.pdf>. If you discover your application is late or has been rejected, please see the instructions below. Note: You will receive a series of confirmations both online and via e-mail about the status of your application. Please do not rely solely on e-mail to confirm whether your application has been received timely and validated successfully.

Submission Problems – What should you do?

If you have problems submitting to Grants.gov before the closing date, please contact Grants.gov Customer Support at 1-800-518-4726 or use the customer support available on the Web site: http://www.grants.gov/applicants/applicant_help.jsp.

If electronic submission is optional and you have problems that you are unable to resolve before the deadline date and time for electronic applications, please follow the transmittal instructions for hard copy applications in the Federal Register notice and get a hard copy application postmarked by midnight on the deadline date.

If electronic submission is required, you must submit an electronic application before 4:30 p.m., unless you follow the procedures in the Federal Register notice and qualify for one of the exceptions to the electronic submission requirement and submit, no later than two weeks before the application deadline date, a written statement to the Department that you qualify for one of these exceptions. (See the Federal Register notice for detailed instructions.)

Helpful Hints When Working with Grants.gov

Please note, once you download an application from Grants.gov, you will be working offline and saving data on your computer. Please be sure to note where you are saving the Grants.gov file on your computer. You will need to logon to Grants.gov to upload and submit the application. You must provide on your application the DUNS number that was used when your organization registered with the CCR.

Please go to http://www.grants.gov/applicants/applicant_help.jsp for help with Grants.gov. For additional tips related to submitting grant applications, please refer to the Grants.gov Submit Application FAQs found on the Grants.gov http://www.grants.gov/help/submit_application_faqs.jsp.

Dial-Up Internet Connections

When using a dial up connection to upload and submit your application, it can take significantly longer than when you are connected to the Internet with a high-speed connection, e.g. cable modem/DSL/T1. While times will vary depending upon the size of your application, it can take a few minutes to a few hours to complete your grant submission using a dial up connection. If you do not have access to a high-speed connection and electronic submission is required, you may want to consider following the instructions in the Federal Register notice to obtain an exception to the electronic submission requirement no later than two weeks before the application deadline date. (See the Federal Register notice for detailed instructions.)

MAC Users

If you do not have a Windows operating System, you will need to use the Citrix solution discussed on Grants.gov or a Windows Emulation program to submit an application using Grants.gov. For additional information, review the FAQs for non-windows users http://www.grants.gov/resources/download_software.jsp#non_window. Also, to view white paper for Macintosh users published by Pure Edge go to the following link: <http://www.grants.gov/section678/PureEdgeSupportforMacintosh.pdf>, and/or contact Grants.gov Customer Support (<http://www.grants.gov/contactus/contactus.jsp>) for more information. If electronic submission is required and you are concerned about your ability to submit electronically as a non-windows user, please follow instructions in the Federal Register notice to obtain an exception to the electronic submission requirement no later than two weeks before the application deadline date. (See the Federal Register notice for detailed instructions.)

If your application is not evaluated or not selected for funding, we notify you.

2. Administrative and National Policy Requirements: We identify administrative and national policy requirements in the application package and reference these and other requirements in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice.

We reference the regulations outlining the terms and conditions of an award in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice and include these and other specific conditions in the GAN. The GAN also incorporates your approved application as part of your binding commitments under the grant.

3. Reporting: At the end of your project period, you must submit a final performance report, including financial information, as directed by the Secretary. If you receive a multi-year award, you must submit an annual performance report that provides the most current performance and financial expenditure information as specified by the Secretary in 34 CFR 75.118.

4. Performance Measures: Under the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (GPRA), the Department has established two performance measures for the Vocational Rehabilitation Services Projects for American Indians with Disabilities program. The measures are the percentage of individuals who leave the program with an employment outcome and the cost per employment outcome. Each grantee must annually report its performance on these measures through the Annual Progress Reporting Form for the American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services (AIVRS) Program.

In addition, this program is part of the Administration's job training and employment common measures initiative. The common measures for job training and employment programs targeting adults are-- entered employment (percentage employed in the first quarter after program exit); retention in employment (percentage of those employed in the first quarter after exit that were still employed in the second and third quarter after program exit); earnings increase (percentage change in earnings pre-registration to post-program and first quarter after exit to third quarter after exit); and efficiency measure (annual cost per employment outcome). The Department is currently working toward implementation of these common measures. Each grantee will be required to collect and report data for the common measures when implemented.

EXPLANATION OF REVIEW CRITERIA

Listed below are the review criteria (a) through (h) that will be used by peer reviewers to rate and award scores to proposals for the American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services Grants. Each review criteria is accompanied by an explanation of terms and other information to assist the applicant in developing the various sections of the proposal. Proposals should address all of the factors listed under each criteria.

IMPORTANT: Traditionally, recipients of American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services Grants have provided services to American Indians with disabilities who reside on reservations. The 1998 Amendments to section 121 of the Rehabilitation Act allow tribal vocational rehabilitation programs to expand services to American Indians with disabilities living near the reservation, if they choose to do so. Applicants should state whether they are planning to provide services to individuals living on the reservation, or to individuals living on or near the reservation. Applicants who choose to provide service to individuals living on or near the reservation should describe the geographic area to be served by the grant.

(a) NEED FOR PROJECT -- 5 POINTS. The Secretary considers the need for the proposed project, based on the following factors:

1. The magnitude of the need for the services to be provided or the activities to be carried out by the proposed project.
2. The extent to which specific gaps or weaknesses in services, infrastructure, or opportunities have been identified and will be addressed by the proposed project, including the nature and magnitude of those gaps and weaknesses.

EXPLANATION: Descriptions of need should focus on the purpose for which these projects are funded -- to provide vocational rehabilitation services that will enable American Indians with disabilities to achieve employment outcomes. Barriers to the provision of vocational rehabilitation services and achievement of employment outcomes can also be described. In describing gaps in services, applicants may provide information that shows the extent to which VR services are provided by State VR agencies to American Indians with disabilities in the geographic area to be served by the project. In addition to reservations, the geographic area to be served can include areas near the reservation, as described by the applicant.

(b) SIGNIFICANCE--10 POINTS. The Secretary considers the significance of the proposed project, based on the following factors:

1. The potential contribution of the proposed project to increased knowledge or understanding of rehabilitation problems, issues, or effective strategies.
2. The extent to which the proposed project is likely to build local capacity to provide, improve, or expand services that address the needs of the target population.

EXPLANATION: Describe the extent to which the proposed project will expand or improve the practice of vocational rehabilitation for American Indians with disabilities. Describe how proposed services and strategies, including services traditionally used by Indian tribes, will improve employment outcomes for American Indians with disabilities to be served by the project.

(c) QUALITY OF THE PROJECT DESIGN--15 POINTS. The Secretary considers the quality of the design of the proposed project, based on the following factors:

1. The extent to which the goals, objectives, and outcomes to be achieved by the proposed project are clearly specified and measurable.
2. The extent to which the design of the proposed project is appropriate to, and will successfully address, the needs of the target population or other identified needs.
3. The extent to which the proposed project will be coordinated with similar or related efforts, and with other appropriate community, State, and Federal resources.
4. The extent to which the proposed project encourages consumer involvement.
5. The quality of the methodology to be employed in the proposed project.

EXPLANATION: Describe the overall plan for the project and how the goals, objectives, outcomes, project design and methodology are directed toward the provision of vocational rehabilitation services for the achievement of employment outcomes. The overall project design should be compatible with the assurance statements made in response to the special application requirements at 34 CFR 371.21(a)-(j). Proposals should identify the measurable results expected to be achieved during each year of the project. In order to meet the needs of the target population, proposals need to describe collaborative arrangements with State vocational rehabilitation agencies (as required at 371.21(g)) and linkages with other appropriate community, State, and Federal resources. Commitments of other organizations should be clearly documented, preferably in writing, and submitted with the application. Methods of encouraging consumer involvement include providing opportunities for input from American Indians with disabilities residing on or near the reservation (as required at 371.21(f)), establishment of an advisory committee as described at 34 CFR 369.45, or other approaches.

(d) QUALITY OF PROJECT SERVICES--25 POINTS. The Secretary considers the quality of the services to be provided by the proposed project. The application should include information on the following factors:

1. The quality and sufficiency of strategies for ensuring equal access and treatment for eligible project participants who are members of groups that have traditionally been underrepresented based on race, color, national origin, gender, age, or disability.
2. The extent to which the services to be provided by the proposed project are appropriate to the needs of the intended recipients or beneficiaries of those services.

3. The likely impact of the services to be provided by the proposed project on the intended recipients of those services.
4. The extent to which the services to be provided by the proposed project involve the collaboration of appropriate partners for maximizing the effectiveness of project services.

EXPLANATION: Proposals should describe how the program will, to the extent feasible, provide rehabilitation services that are comparable to those provided by State VR agencies, including providing a broad variety of vocational rehabilitation services as described in section 103 of the Act. (See also Special Requirement 371.21(a)) Proposals may also describe other aspects of service provision, including providing services traditionally used by Indian tribes and providing traditional VR services in a culturally appropriate manner. Proposals should demonstrate that persons with disabilities will be able to access services as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Descriptions of the appropriateness and impact of services must relate to the purpose of the program, which is the achievement of employment outcomes by American Indians with disabilities. Proposals may also describe other impacts of services to be provided by the project. Proposals should include a description of how collaboration and linkages described under “Quality of project design” contribute to the effectiveness of project services.

(e) QUALITY OF PROJECT PERSONNEL--15 POINTS. The Secretary considers the quality of the personnel who will carry out the proposed project. All of the following factors are considered:

1. The extent to which the applicant encourages applications for employment from persons who are members of groups that have traditionally been underrepresented based on race, color, national origin, gender, age, or disability.
2. The qualifications, including relevant training and experience, of key project personnel.

EXPLANATION: As stated at 34 CFR 371.43(b), preference in employment must be given to American Indians, with a special priority being given to American Indians with disabilities. Provide a resume for the project director and other key project personnel, such as vocational rehabilitation counselors. For each of the key personnel not identified at the time of application, provide a job description or the qualifications sought for the position. In addition to describing the qualifications of key personnel, the applicant can also propose use of training and other staff development activities to enhance these qualifications. Program regulations at 34 CFR 371.41(a)(1) allow for expenditures for staff development. Applicants may describe staff development efforts that are funded by the grant or that are provided through collaborative arrangements with any other appropriate resource, including, but not limited to, the State vocational rehabilitation agency and the Regional Rehabilitation Continuing Education Programs.

(f) ADEQUACY OF RESOURCES--10 POINTS. The Secretary considers the adequacy of resources for the proposed project, including the following factors:

1. The adequacy of support, including facilities, equipment, supplies, and other resources, from the applicant organization or the lead applicant organization.
2. The extent to which the costs are reasonable in relation to the objectives, design, and potential significance of the proposed project.
3. The extent to which the costs are reasonable in relation to the number of persons to be served and to the anticipated results and benefits.

EXPLANATION: Describe the facilities that will be used for the project. When describing the adequacy of support for facilities, equipment, etc. the proposal needs to consider how the applicant will meet the requirements for confidentiality of information at 34 CFR 369.46 and the extent to which facilities and other resources are fully accessible by individuals with disabilities. Identify specific contributions to the project by the applicant and by collaborating organizations, including in-kind contributions, cost sharing, donations, etc. When describing the relationship of costs to objectives, design, significance, and outcomes, the proposal can provide information about any special factors that influence the cost.

(g) QUALITY OF THE MANAGEMENT PLAN--15 POINTS. The Secretary considers the quality of the management plan for the proposed project, including the following factors:

1. The adequacy of the management plan to achieve the objectives of the proposed project on time and within budget, including clearly defined responsibilities, timelines, and milestones for accomplishing project tasks.
2. The extent to which the time commitments of the project director and principal investigator and other key project personnel are appropriate and adequate to meet the objectives of the proposed project.

EXPLANATION: The proposal should describe process by which the goals and objectives will be met, such as the roles and responsibilities of project staff, and when and how these will be achieved. Major tasks and activities should be broken down into action steps to be completed by specific dates. Applicants can use a timetable, GANT chart, or Pert Chart to graphically present the sequence and relationship of project activities to be included in the proposal.

(h) QUALITY OF THE PROJECT EVALUATION--5 POINTS. The Secretary considers the quality of the evaluation to be conducted of the proposed project. The Secretary looks for information that shows:

1. The extent to which the methods of evaluation are thorough, feasible, and appropriate to the goals, objectives, and outcomes of the proposed project.
2. The extent to which the methods of evaluation include the use of objective performance measures that are clearly related to the intended outcomes of the project and will produce quantitative and qualitative data to the extent possible.

3. The extent to which the methods of evaluation will provide performance feedback and permit periodic assessment of progress toward achieving intended outcomes.

EXPLANATION: Describe how appropriate and reliable data will be obtained and evaluated. Proposals can consider use of external evaluation methods. The evaluation plan should include a description of how evaluation activities will be phased in with other project tasks to ensure that periodic assessment provides performance feedback to project staff in time to influence the conduct of the project. Evaluation methods can include methods of gathering consumer input.

SECTION C

Special Application Requirements

SPECIAL APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICE PROJECTS
FOR AMERICAN INDIANS WITH DISABILITIES

Applicants for the Vocational Rehabilitation Service Projects for American Indians with Disabilities must provide assurances that they will meet the special application requirements stated at 34 CFR 371.21(a)-(j). Each application will be reviewed by the Department of Education to determine whether the applicant has provided the required assurances. Applications that do not include these assurances will be returned and will not be submitted for the peer review process.

INSTRUCTIONS

Listed below are the special application requirements at 34 CFR 371.21(a)-(j), explanatory notes, and instructions for the content of the required assurance statements. Provide the assurance statements in a separate section of the application entitled "Special Application Requirements."

371.21(a): Effort will be made to provide a broad scope of vocational rehabilitation services in a manner and at a level of quality at least comparable to those services provided by the designated State unit under 34 CFR part 361.

NOTE: "Vocational rehabilitation services" are defined in section 103 of the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1998. (A copy of section 103 is enclosed.) Applicants should plan to provide those vocational rehabilitation services needed by the individuals identified in the proposal as part of the evidence of need for the project. Applicants are not required to provide every service listed. While efforts should be made to provide services that are comparable to those provided by the state vocational rehabilitation agency, services provided by tribal programs are not required to be identical to those provided by a state vocational rehabilitation agency.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: A description of each of the vocational rehabilitation services planned by the applicant.

371.21(b): Decisions affecting eligibility for and the nature and scope of vocational rehabilitation services to be provided, and the provision of these services, will be made by the tribal vocational rehabilitation program through its vocational rehabilitation unit and will not be delegated to another agency or individual.

NOTE: Decisions about the eligibility of American Indians with disabilities and the services that eligible individuals receive can be made only by the staff of the tribal vocational rehabilitation program. Staff of other tribal agencies and the project's advisory committee, if it has one, are not authorized to make these decisions.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: An assurance statement that decisions about eligibility, the nature and scope of services, and the provision of services will be made only by the tribal vocational rehabilitation unit and not by any other entity.

371.21(c) and (d): An order of selection of individuals with disabilities to be served under the program will be specified if services cannot be provided to all eligible American Indians with disabilities who apply. Priority in the delivery of vocational rehabilitation services will be given to those American Indians with disabilities who are the most severely disabled.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: Depending on the applicant's situation, the application must include one of the following:

1. An assurance statement that the applicant expects to have enough resources to be able to serve all eligible American Indians with disabilities who are expected to apply.

OR

2. A description of the order of selection, prioritized on the basis of severity of disability, and giving the highest priority to those who are most severely disabled.

371.21(e): All vocational rehabilitation services will be provided according to an individualized plan of employment which has been developed jointly by the representative of the service providing organization and each American Indian with disabilities being served.

NOTE: "Service providing organization" means the tribal vocational rehabilitation program. An individualized plan for employment is a written agreement between the tribal vocational rehabilitation program unit and the eligible American Indian with a disability. The individualized plan for employment specifies the individual's employment goal, the vocational rehabilitation services that will be provided to address the individual's disability and to achieve a vocational outcome, and how those services will be provided, including the entity providing the services and timelines for the provision of services.

In addition, applicants for grants may choose to incorporate other requirements of section 102(b) of the Act that apply to State vocational rehabilitation agencies in the development of an individualized plan for employment. (A copy of section 102(b) is included in the application kit.)

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: An assurance statement that individualized plans for employment will be jointly developed for all eligible American Indians with disabilities.

371.21(f): American Indians with disabilities living on Federal or State reservations where service programs are being carried out under this part will have an opportunity to participate in matters of general policy development and implementation affecting vocational rehabilitation service delivery on the reservation.

NOTE: In addition to providing services on the reservation, the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1998 allow applicants to determine whether they will also provide vocational rehabilitation services to American Indians with disabilities living near the reservation. Applicants who decide to provide services to American Indians with disabilities living near the reservation will describe the geographic area in which the services will be provided. Opportunities for participation of American Indians with disabilities living on or near the reservation can be provided by establishment of an advisory committee as described at 34 CFR 369.45, or other approaches.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: An assurance statement that the applicant will provide an opportunity for American Indians with disabilities living on or near the reservation, as described by the applicant, to participate in matters related to the development and implementation of general policies affecting the provision of vocational rehabilitation services under this grant.

371.21(g): Cooperative working arrangements will be developed with the designated State unit, or designated State units, as appropriate, which are providing vocational rehabilitation services to other individuals with disabilities who reside in the State or States being served.

NOTE: The 1998 Amendments to the Rehabilitation Act strengthened the requirement for collaboration between tribal and State vocational rehabilitation programs. Section 101(a)(11)(F) of the Act requires State vocational rehabilitation agencies to enter into formal cooperative agreements with each recipient of an American Indian vocational rehabilitation service project in the State. The agreement must describe strategies for collaboration and coordination in providing vocational rehabilitation services to American Indians who are individuals with disabilities, including --

- strategies for interagency referral and information sharing that will assist in eligibility determinations and the development of individualized plans for employment;
- procedures for ensuring that American Indians who are individuals with disabilities and are living near a reservation or tribal service area are provided vocational rehabilitation services; and

- provisions for sharing resources in cooperative studies and assessments, joint training activities, and other collaborative activities designed to improve the provision of services to American Indians who are individuals with disabilities.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: An assurance statement that the applicant has established or will establish a formal cooperative agreement, or agreements if appropriate, that include the required strategies for collaboration and coordination of service provision.

371.21(h): Any comparable services and benefits available to American Indians with disabilities under any other program which might meet in whole or in part the cost of any vocational rehabilitation service will be fully considered in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services in accordance with 34 CFR part 361.

NOTE: As defined in 34 CFR 361, "comparable services and benefits" means services and benefits that are: 1) provided or paid for, in whole or in part, by other Federal, State, or local public agencies, by health insurance, or by employee benefits; 2) available to the individual at the time needed to achieve the goals of the individualized plan for employment; and 3) commensurate to the services the individual would otherwise receive from the vocational rehabilitation program.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: An assurance statement that the applicant will assist individuals with disabilities to fully consider the appropriate use of all comparable services and benefits available through other sources.

371.21(I): Any American Indian with disabilities who is an applicant or recipient of services, and who is dissatisfied with a determination made by a counselor or coordinator under this program and files a request for a review, will be afforded a review under procedures developed by the grantee comparable to those under the provisions of section 102(c)(5)(A)-(I) of the Act.

NOTE: Applicants for grants must develop due process procedures by which an American Indian with a disability is provided an opportunity to have his/her grievance reviewed at levels above that at which the original decision was made. Applicants may model their due process procedures on those described in section 102(c)(5)(A)-(I) of the Act. Applicants may use tribal courts, impartial hearing officers from the list developed by the State vocational rehabilitation agency, or other methods. (A copy of section 102(c)(5)(A)-(I) is enclosed.)

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: An assurance that due process procedures have been developed or will be developed, with an early time line for that development.

371.21(j): Minimum standards will be established for community rehabilitation programs and providers of services which will be comparable to the standards set by the designated State unit and designated State units in the State or States in which the program is to be provided.

NOTE: "Community rehabilitation programs" are defined at 34 CFR 369.4. Applicants may choose to adopt State agency standards or they may modify State agency standards. At a minimum, community rehabilitation programs and other service providers should be accessible to individuals with disabilities. Other standards to consider include the qualifications of the personnel providing the requested service, the extent to which an individual's special communication needs can be met, and the existence of procedures to prevent fraud, waste and abuse.

ASSURANCE STATEMENT: A description of how the applicant will assure use of qualified service providers.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANT FOR SUBMITTING A PROPOSAL FOR A SECTION 121 GRANT

American Indian Tribes may submit applications for American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Services Projects funded under section 121 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, using one of the following options.

1) An Indian Tribe may submit a 121 proposal to provide VR services only to American Indians with disabilities living on or near its own reservation.

2) An Indian Tribe may submit a 121 proposal to provide VR services to American Indians with disabilities living on its own reservation and to American Indians with disabilities living on the reservations of other Indian Tribes, under an inter-tribal arrangement as referenced in 34 CFR 371.42(b). Such a proposal must include a written authorization from the governing bodies of the other Indian Tribes that allows VR services to be provided by the Indian Tribe receiving the 121 grant. An example of a suitable written authorization is provided in Sample #1.

SAMPLE #1
Inter-tribal Arrangement

Section 34 CFR 371.42(b) provides that a section 121 grantee may enter into an inter-tribal arrangement with governing bodies of other Indian Tribes for carrying out a project that serves more than one Tribe. An American Indian Tribe may submit a proposal for a section 121 project to provide services to American Indians with disabilities living on its reservation and on the reservations of other Indian Tribes, so long as the governing bodies of the other Indian Tribes provide written authorization allowing for the provision of such services. This arrangement authorizes the (Indian Tribe submitting the application) to submit an application for a grant pursuant to 34 CFR § 371.42(b) to fund a VR project that will include the provision of VR services to American Indians with disabilities residing on the reservation of the (Indian Tribe supporting the application).

(Whatever justification of the need for the project the writer deems appropriate.)

(Whatever closing statements the writer deems appropriate.)

Sincerely,

(Name of official authorized to sign
this letter)

(Name of Indian Tribe)

SAMPLE #2 Consortium

A consortium of Indian Tribes may submit a proposal for a section 121 project. As defined under 34 CFR 371.4, a consortium means “two or more eligible governing bodies of Indian Tribes that make application as a single applicant under an agreement whereby each governing body is legally responsible for carrying out all of the activities in the application.” A single application from a consortium of Indian Tribes must include the following statement (or something similar that has the same legal effect) from each of the Tribes that is included in the consortium.

The (the official name of each governing body of the Indian Tribe that is included in the consortium) submits this application as a member of the consortium that is submitting an application for a grant under section 121 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (the Act) to carry out an American Indian vocational rehabilitation (VR) project. The VR project will be carried out by the (the official name of the governing body of the Indian Tribe or Tribes that will be actually carrying out the project). SECTION D

Important Things to remember

GENERAL INFORMATION ON COMPLETING AN APPLICATION

1. The purpose and goal of the project is to provide vocational rehabilitation services to empower consumers to prepare for and obtain gainful employment.
2. Applicants MUST address the Special Requirements--applications will be returned if they are not addressed! In your application, include these assurances in a separate section titled "Special Requirements".
3. The 121 projects MUST deliver a wide variety of vocational rehabilitation services to meet the needs of consumers with disabilities.
4. Make it easy for the reviewers to rate your application appropriately. The application narrative (Part III of this application form) should be organized to follow the exact sequence of the components in the selection criteria used to evaluate applications. (Selection Criteria are located in Section B.)
Please number ALL pages--including the Appendices.
Remember to cross-reference the narrative sections of your application ,if you are including further information in the appendix.
Include a Table of Contents.
Include a one-page single-spaced abstract.
Do not bound applications.
Try to keep the narrative to 35 pages, double-spaced.

5. Definitions/Information for preparing the Budget:

Equipment-Tangible, nonexpendable property having a useful life of more than one year and an acquisition cost of $5,000 or more per unit. However, consistent with YOUR institutional policy, lower limits may be established.

Supplies-Direct materials and supplies that are consumable, expendable or of a relatively low unit cost.

Personnel-All project staff who are paid for by the grant or whose time is used to meet the match requirement.

Match-The match is computed on the TOTAL cost of the project (both Federal and applicant contributions). The easiest way to compute the correct local match is to divide the requested Federal funds by 9. Example: $100,000 requested Federal funds per year/9 = $11,111 required match per year.

Other-This is the place for all direct costs that are not clearly covered by the other direct cost categories. It is a catch-all category that could include a wide variety of costs that do not seem to "fit" elsewhere in the budget. For instance, postage and copying; as well as all Client services including training and stipends, etc. listed in this category.

Staff training costs ARE allowable expenses, in accordance with 34 CFR 371.41.

6. There is a maximum award amount specified for the competition included in the Federal Register Notice.
7. Include a multi-year budget breakdown and narrative.
8. KEY PERSONNEL are defined as the Project Director, Principle Investigator and/or the Project Coordinator and vocational rehabilitation counselors. Please provide a resume or a job description for all key personnel and other staff members.
9. If you are eligible for the 10 bonus points as a previously funded 121 project, provide the name of the Tribe or Consortium and the dates of the last project period.

PLEASE NOTE:
American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services Program

The American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services (AIVRS) program (part 371) is authorized by sections 110(c) and 121 of the Act. Under this program, grants are awarded to governing bodies of Indian Tribes located on Federal and State reservations to provide vocational rehabilitation services for American Indians with disabilities residing on or near those reservations.

The 1998 Amendments changed the AIVRS Program in three significant ways: 1) the geographic area that can be served by these programs was expanded to include American Indians with disabilities who live near the reservation, in addition to providing services to those who live on the reservation; 2) the project period for which these programs can be approved was extended from three to five years; 3) section 101(a)(11)(F) of the Act requires State vocational rehabilitation services agencies to enter into formal cooperative agreements with AIVRS program grantees within the State that describe strategies for collaboration and coordination in providing vocational rehabilitation services to American Indians with disabilities.

In addition, please note the longstanding statutory provision in section 121(b)(4) of the Act that directs the Secretary to give priority consideration to applications for the continuation of programs that have been funded previously under this program.

Novice Applicant (See 34 CFR 75.225). For discretionary grant programs under which the Secretary gives special consideration to novice applications, a novice applicant means any applicant for a grant from ED that—

- Has never received a grant or subgrant under the program from which it seeks funding;
- Has never been a member of a group application, submitted in accordance with 34 CFR 75.127-75.129, that received a grant under the program from which it seeks funding; and

In the case of a group application submitted in accordance with 34 CFR 75.127-75.129, a group includes only parties that meet the requirements listed above.

PROTECTION OF HUMAN SUBJECTS IN RESEARCH

I. Definitions and Exemptions

A. Definitions.

A research activity involves human subjects if the activity is research, as defined in the Department's regulations, and the research activity will involve use of human subjects, as defined in the regulations.

—Research

The ED Regulations for the Protection of Human Subjects, Title 34, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 97, define research as “a systematic investigation, including research development, testing and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalizable knowledge.” If an activity follows a deliberate plan whose purpose is to develop or contribute to generalizable knowledge it is research. Activities which meet this definition constitute research whether or not they are conducted or supported under a program that is considered research for other purposes. For example, some demonstration and service programs may include research activities.

—Human Subject

The regulations define human subject as “a living individual about whom an investigator (whether professional or student) conducting research obtains (1) data through intervention or interaction with the individual, or (2) identifiable private information.” (1) If an activity involves obtaining information about a living person by manipulating that person or that person's environment, as might occur when a new instructional technique is tested, or by communicating or interacting with the individual, as occurs with surveys and interviews, the definition of human subject is met. (2) If an activity involves obtaining private information about a living person in such a way that the information can be linked to that individual (the identity of the subject is or may be readily determined by the investigator or associated with the information), the definition of human subject is met. [Private information includes information about behavior that occurs in a context in which an individual can reasonably expect that no observation or recording is taking place, and information which has been provided for specific purposes by an individual and which the individual can reasonably expect will not be made public (for example, a school health record).]

B. Exemptions.

Research activities in which the only involvement of human subjects will be in one or more of the following six categories of exemptions are not covered by the regulations:

(1) Research conducted in established or commonly accepted educational settings, involving normal educational practices, such as (a) research on regular and special education instructional strategies, or (b) research on the effectiveness of or the comparison among instructional techniques, curricula, or classroom management methods.

(2) Research involving the use of educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures or observation of public behavior, unless: (a) information obtained is recorded in such a manner that human subjects can be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects; and (b) any disclosure of the human subjects' responses outside the research could reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subjects' financial standing, employability, or reputation. If the subjects are children, exemption 2 applies only to research involving educational tests and observations of public behavior when the investigator(s) do not participate in the activities being observed. Exemption 2 does not apply if children are surveyed or interviewed or if the research involves observation of public behavior and the investigator(s) participate in the activities being observed. [Children are defined as persons who have not attained the legal age for consent to treatments or procedures involved in the research, under the applicable law or jurisdiction in which the research will be conducted.]

(3) Research involving the use of educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures or observation of public behavior that is not exempt under section (2) above, if the human subjects are elected or appointed public officials or candidates for public office; or federal statute(s) require(s) without exception that the confidentiality of the personally identifiable information will be maintained throughout the research and thereafter.

(4) Research involving the collection or study of existing data, documents, records, pathological specimens, or diagnostic specimens, if these sources are publicly available or if the information is recorded by the investigator in a manner that subjects cannot be identified, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects.

(5) Research and demonstration projects which are conducted by or subject to the approval of department or agency heads, and which are designed to study, evaluate, or otherwise examine: (a) public benefit or service programs; (b) procedures for obtaining benefits or services under those programs; (c) possible changes in or alternatives to those programs or procedures; or (d) possible changes in methods or levels of payment for benefits or services under those programs.

(6) Taste and food quality evaluation and consumer acceptance studies, (a) if wholesome foods without additives are consumed or (b) if a food is consumed that contains a food ingredient at or below the level and for a use found to be safe, or agricultural chemical or environmental contaminant at or below the level found to be safe, by the Food and Drug Administration or approved by the Environmental Protection Agency or the Food Safety and Inspection Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

II. Instructions for Exempt and Nonexempt Human Subjects Research Narratives

If the applicant marked "Yes" for Item 3 of Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424, the applicant must provide a human subjects "exempt research" or "nonexempt research" narrative. Insert the narrative(s) in the space provided. If you have multiple projects and need to provide more than one narrative, be sure to label each set of responses as to the project they address.

A. Exempt Research Narrative.

If you marked "Yes" for item 3 a. and designated exemption numbers(s), provide the "exempt research" narrative. The narrative must contain sufficient information about the involvement of human subjects in the proposed research to allow a determination by ED that the designated exemption(s) are appropriate. The narrative must be succinct.

B. Nonexempt Research Narrative.

If you marked "No" for item 3 a. you must provide the "nonexempt research" narrative. The narrative must address the following seven points. Although no specific page limitation applies to this section of the application, be succinct.

(1) Human Subjects Involvement and Characteristics: Provide a detailed description of the proposed involvement of human subjects. Describe the characteristics of the subject population, including their anticipated number, age range, and health status. Identify the criteria for inclusion or exclusion of any subpopulation. Explain the rationale for the involvement of special classes of subjects, such as children, children with disabilities, adults with disabilities, persons with mental disabilities, pregnant women, prisoners, institutionalized individuals, or others who are likely to be vulnerable

- (2) Sources of Materials: Identify the sources of research material obtained from individually identifiable living human subjects in the form of specimens, records, or data. Indicate whether the material or data will be obtained specifically for research purposes or whether use will be made of existing specimens, records, or data.
- (3) Recruitment and Informed Consent: Describe plans for the recruitment of subjects and the consent procedures to be followed. Include the circumstances under which consent will be sought and obtained, who will seek it, the nature of the information to be provided to prospective subjects, and the method of documenting consent. State if the Institutional Review Board (IRB) has authorized a modification or waiver of the elements of consent or the requirement for documentation of consent.
- (4) Potential Risks: Describe potential risks (physical, psychological, social, legal, or other) and assess their likelihood and seriousness. Where appropriate, describe alternative treatments and procedures that might be advantageous to the subjects.
- (5) Protection Against Risk: Describe the procedures for protecting against or minimizing potential risks, including risks to confidentiality, and assess their likely effectiveness. Where appropriate, discuss provisions for ensuring necessary medical or professional intervention in the event of adverse effects to the subjects. Also, where appropriate, describe the provisions for monitoring the data collected to ensure the safety of the subjects.
- (6) Importance of the Knowledge to be Gained: Discuss the importance of the knowledge gained or to be gained as a result of the proposed research. Discuss why the risks to subjects are reasonable in relation to the anticipated benefits to subjects and in relation to the importance of the knowledge that may reasonably be expected to result.
- (7) Collaborating Site(s): If research involving human subjects will take place at collaborating site(s) or other performance site(s), name the sites and briefly describe their involvement or role in the research.

Copies of the Department of Education's Regulations for the Protection of Human Subjects, 34 CFR Part 97 and other pertinent materials on the protection of human subjects in research are available from the Grants Policy and Oversight Staff, Office of the Chief Financial Officer, U.S. Department of Education, Washington, D.C. 20202-4250, telephone: (202) 245-6120, and on the U.S. Department of Education's Protection of Human Subjects in Research Web Site: <http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/OCFO/humansub.html>

Section C - Budget Narrative [Attach separate sheet(s)] Pay attention to applicable program specific instructions, if attached.

1. Provide an itemized budget breakdown, and justification by project year, for each budget category listed in Sections A and B. For grant projects that will be divided into two or more separately budgeted major activities or sub-projects, show for each budget category of a project year the breakdown of the specific expenses attributable to each sub-project or activity.
2. If applicable to this program, provide the rate and base on which fringe benefits are calculated.
3. If you are requesting reimbursement for indirect costs on line 10, this information is to be completed by your Business Office. Specify the estimated amount of the base to which the indirect cost rate is applied and the total indirect expense. Depending on the grant program to which you are applying and/or your approved Indirect Cost Rate Agreement, some direct cost budget categories in your grant application budget may not be included in the base and multiplied by your indirect cost rate. For example, you must multiply the indirect cost rates of "Training grants" (34 CFR 75.562) and grants under programs with "Supplement not Supplant" requirements ("Restricted Rate" programs) by a "modified total direct cost" (MTDC) base (34 CFR 75.563 or 76.563). Please indicate which costs are included and which costs are excluded from the base to which the indirect cost rate is applied.

When calculating indirect costs (line 10) for "Training grants" or grants under "Restricted Rate" programs, you must refer to the information and examples on ED's website at:

<http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>.

You may also contact (202) 377-3838 for additional information regarding calculating indirect cost rates or general indirect cost rate information.

NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS

The purpose of this enclosure is to inform you about a new provision in the Department of Education's General Education Provisions Act (GEPA) that applies to applicants for new grant awards under Department programs. This provision is Section 427 of GEPA, enacted as part of the Improving America's Schools Act of 1994 (Public Law (P.L.) 103-382).

To Whom Does This Provision Apply?

Section 427 of GEPA affects applicants for new grant awards under this program. ALL APPLICANTS FOR NEW AWARDS MUST INCLUDE INFORMATION IN THEIR APPLICATIONS TO ADDRESS THIS NEW PROVISION IN ORDER TO RECEIVE FUNDING UNDER THIS PROGRAM.

(If this program is a State-formula grant program, a State needs to provide this description only for projects or activities that it carries out with funds reserved for State-level uses. In addition, local school districts or other eligible applicants that apply to the State for funding need to provide this description in their applications to the State for funding. The State would be responsible for ensuring that the school district or other local entity has submitted a sufficient section 427 statement as described below.)

What Does This Provision Require?

Section 427 requires each applicant for funds (other than an individual person) to include in its application a description of the steps the applicant proposes to take to ensure equitable access to, and participation in, its Federally-assisted program for students, teachers, and other program beneficiaries with special needs. This provision allows applicants discretion in developing the required description. The statute highlights six types of barriers that can impede equitable access or participation: gender, race, national origin, color, disability, or age. Based on local circumstances, you should determine whether these or other barriers may prevent your students, teachers, etc. from such access or participation in, the Federally-funded project or activity. The description in your application of steps to be taken to overcome these barriers need not be lengthy; you may provide a clear and succinct description of how you plan to address those barriers that are applicable to your circumstances. In addition, the information may be provided in a single narrative, or, if appropriate, may be discussed in connection with related topics in the application.

Section 427 is not intended to duplicate the requirements of civil rights statutes, but rather to ensure that, in designing their projects, applicants for Federal funds address equity concerns that may affect the ability of certain potential beneficiaries to fully participate in the project and to achieve to high standards. Consistent with program requirements and its approved application, an applicant may use the Federal funds awarded to it to eliminate barriers it identifies.

What are Examples of How an Applicant Might Satisfy the Requirement of This Provision?

The following examples may help illustrate how an applicant may comply with Section 427.

- (1) An applicant that proposes to carry out an adult literacy project serving, among others, adults with limited English proficiency, might describe in its application how it intends to distribute a brochure about the proposed project to such potential participants in their native language.
- (2) An applicant that proposes to develop instructional materials for classroom use might describe how it will make the materials available on audio tape or in braille for students who are blind.
- (3) An applicant that proposes to carry out a model science program for secondary students and is concerned that girls may be less likely than boys to enroll in the course, might indicate how it intends to conduct "outreach" efforts to girls, to encourage their enrollment.

We recognize that many applicants may already be implementing effective steps to ensure equity of access and participation in their grant programs, and we appreciate your cooperation in responding to the requirements of this provision.

GRANTS

Applicants for grants from the U.S. Department of Education (ED) have to compete for limited funds. Deadlines assure all applicants that they will be treated fairly and equally, without last minute haste. For these reasons, ED must set strict deadlines for grant applications. Prospective applicants can avoid disappointment if they understand that:

Failure to meet a deadline will mean that an applicant will be rejected without any consideration.

The rules, including the deadline, for applying for each grant are published, individually, in the Federal Register. A one-year subscription to the Register may be obtained by sending $555.00 to: Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402-9371. (Send check or money order only, no cash or stamps.) In addition, the Federal Register is available on-line for free on Government Printing Office (GPO) Access: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/fr/index.html>. Depository Library location and Federal Register services: <http://www.archives.gov/>.

The instructions in the Federal Register must be followed exactly. Do not accept any other advice you may receive. No ED employee is authorized to extend any deadline published in the Register. No ED employees are authorized to extend any deadline published in the Federal Register. Questions regarding submission of applications may be addressed to:

CONTRACTS

Competitive procurement actions undertaken by the ED are governed by the Federal Acquisition Regulations and implementing Department of Education Acquisition Regulations.

Generally, prospective competitive procurement actions are synopsisized in the Commerce Business Daily (CBD). Prospective offerors are therein advised of the nature of the procurement and where to apply for copies of the Request for Proposals (RFP). All of ED's RFP's are now available on-line for downloading at the following url: <http://www.ed.gov/fund/contract/apply/currfrp.html>.

Offerors are advised to be guided solely by the contents of the CBD synopsis and the instructions contained in the RFP. Questions regarding the submission of offers should be addressed to the Contracts Specialist identified on the face page of the RFP. Offers are judged in competition with others, and failure to conform with any substantive requirements of the RFP will result in rejection of the offer without any consideration whatever.

Do not accept any advice you receive that is contrary to instructions contained in either the CBD synopsis or the RFP. No ED employee is authorized to consider a proposal which is non-responsive to the RFP. A subscription to the CBD is available for $208.00 per year via second class mailing or $261.00 per year via first class mailing. Information included in the Federal Acquisition Regulation is contained in Title 48, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter 1 ($49.00). NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS:
The Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA)

What is GPRA?

The Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) of 1993 is a straightforward statute that requires all Federal agencies to manage their activities with attention to the consequences of those activities. Each agency is to clearly state what intends to accomplish, identify the resources required, and periodically report their progress to the Congress. In doing so, it is expected that GPRA will contribute to improvements in accountability for the expenditures of public funds, improve Congressional decision-making through more objective information on the effectiveness of Federal programs, and promote a new government focus on results, service delivery, and customer satisfaction.

How has the United States Department of Education Responded to the GPRA Requirements?

As required by GPRA, the United States Department of Education (the Department) has prepared a strategic plan for 1998-2002. This plan reflects the Department's priorities and integrates them with its mission and program authorities and describes how the Department will work to improve education for all children and adults in the United States. The Department's goals, as listed in the plan, are:

- Goal 1: Help all students reach challenging academic standards so that they are prepared for responsible citizenship, further learning, and productive employment.
- Goal 2: Build a solid foundation for learning for all children.
- Goal 3: Ensure access to postsecondary education and lifelong learning.
- Goal 4: Make the United States Department of Education a high performance organization by focusing on results, service quality, and customer satisfaction.

COMMON QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

[Below are some examples of Q's & A's that programs may include in their application booklets. Programs may want to add others. Generally speaking, Q's & A's should not repeat information that is given elsewhere in the application. However, there may be exceptions to this "rule of thumb." Q's & A's should not be subregulatory and should not take the place of instructions.]

Q. What happens to my application after it is received in the Department?

A. The Department's Application Control Center receives each application, assigns each an identifying number (PR/Award number), confirms receipt of applications, and sends the applications to the appropriate program office, which screens them for eligibility. The program conducts a peer review of all eligible applications sent to a program competition, ranks them and recommends the highest ranked applications for funding with exceptions as provided by law. The responsible official for the applicable program reviews the program office's recommendations, checks the adequacy of the documentation supporting the recommendations, and approves a final list, or slate, of recommended projects and funding amounts. RSA Training Division staff discuss the recommendations with the successful applicants and awards the grants.

Q. What happens to my application if the Department finds it to be ineligible?

A. The Department immediately returns an application that does not meet the eligibility criteria for the particular program. A letter from the Department explaining why it is not being reviewed in the competition accompanies the application.

Q. How does the Department review an application?

A. Each application is assessed by knowledgeable persons from outside and sometimes inside the Department who are asked for their judgments about the quality and significance of the proposed project. These persons represent a diversity of disciplines and institutional, regional, and cultural backgrounds. The advice of these experts is compiled by Departmental staff that comment on matters of fact or on significant issues that would otherwise be missing from the review. The results are then presented to the responsible official responsible for the program who approves the recommendations for funding.

Q. What Criteria do the reviewers use when scoring an application?

A. Reviewers score each application using the selection criteria published in the Federal Register as part of the program regulations, which are given in Section F of this application package. Reviewers are instructed to use only the published criteria.

Q. Is a recommended application guaranteed funding?

A. No. Funding is not final until discussions have been successfully concluded and a grant award notification has been signed by the grants office and mailed to the applicant.

Q. How long does it take the Department to complete the review process?

A. Most review processes take from four to six months.

Q. How does the invitational, competitive and absolute priorities differ?

✓ Invitational Priority

The Secretary may simply invite applicants to meet a priority. However, an application that addresses invitational priorities receives no competitive or absolute preference over applications that do not meet this priority.

✓ Competitive Priority

If a program uses weighted selection criteria, the Secretary may award selection points to an application that meets the priority. These points are in addition to any points the application earns under the selection criteria. The notice states the maximum number of additional points that the Secretary may award to applications that meet the priority in a particularly effective way. Or the Secretary may simply select applications that meet the competitive priority over applications of comparable merit that do not meet the priority.

✓ Absolute Priority

Under an absolute priority, the Secretary may select for funding only those Applications that meet the priority.

Q. Can changes in the size of subsequent year awards be made after the multi-year budget has been negotiated?

A. Yes, a grantee can renegotiate his or her multi-year budget and may be awarded additional funds if sufficient justification is presented to the Secretary and funds are available. Also, funds can be decreased if it is determined that the multi-year budget was overestimated.

Q. How will funding continuation decisions be made if the Department is phasing out the use of non-competing continuation applications after fiscal year 1995?

A. Grantees will be required to complete annual performance reports that describe the projects' accomplishments, evaluations, and finances. These performance reports, along with other information, will be used by the Department to decide whether to continue funding projects.

D-U-N-S No.: Please provide the applicant's D-U--N-S Number. You can obtain your D-U-N-S Number at not charge by calling 1-800-333-0505 or by completing a D-U-N-S Number Request Form. The form can be obtained via the Internet at the following URL:

<http://www.dnb.com/dbis/about/intlduns.htm>

The D-U-N-S Number is a unique nine-digit number that does not convey any information about the recipient. A built in check digit helps assure the accuracy of the D-U-N-S Number. The ninth digit of each number is the check digit, which is mathematically related to the other digits. It lets computer systems determine if a D-U-N-S Number has been entered correctly.

DUN & Bradstreet, a global information services provider, has assigned D-U-N-S number to over 43 million companies worldwide.
